Pom Poms Spur Nebraska Enthusiasm

Meet the pom pom girls! The pom poms, organized last spring by Jake Geier, head gymnastics coach, are Jean Barber, Kappa Alpha Theta, in elem. ed.; Linda Keating, Kappa Kappa Gamma, in elem. ed.; Sandy Stefanisin, Alpha Phi, in English.

Georgia Merriam, Alpha Omicron Pi, in textiles and clothing; Carolyn Daubert, Kappa Kappa Gamma, in elem. ed.; Sandy Lane, Kappa Alpha Theta, in elem. ed. and Becky Haas, Pi Beta Phi in Zoology.

The enthusiasm shown by them at pep rallies, rally parades and football games has proven that they are a popular and very talented addition to the yell squad.

The hours spent rehearsing the routines vary, but average seven to ten hours a week. Their activity will not end with the football season. According to Doug Busskohl, yell king, basketball fans will also be treated to their routines.

Additional IFC Rush Considered

The Interfraternity Council met Wednesday night in an informal meeting at the Sigma Chi house.

Among the topics discussed were a better IFC image to house members and pledges, scholastic requirements for rush week eligibility, and the tentative schedule for a spring rush week.

At the present time, an entering freshman must have graduated in the top half of his high school class in order to participate in rush week. It was pointed out by members of IFC that there are many cases in which someone graduating in this group would be less qualified than someone in a lower group from a larger high school.

The institution of a rush week or week end in the spring, after first semester grades are released, would allow these other men to pledge if they had made the necessary 5.000 average; thus proving their ability.

Another issue presented for discussion by Bill Buckley, president of IFC, was that many applicants for IFC positions failed to show proper knowledge and enthusiasm for the work of the council. It was suggested that more work be done with pledges in orienting them for such positions.

Jim Branch works in our local bank. I've known him for years. We went to school together. But I never felt I could come right out and ask him why he never goes to church. One night when we both happened to get into a confidential frame of mind, the words came easier.

He told me that — of all things — it was because he hated this business of passing the plate for money. He said he saw enough money at the bank all week without seeing it worshipped on Sunday too.

I admit this shocked me. That's why I told him, frankly, that I thought he'd completely missed the point. I told him our minister once said that it gives him a good feeling when he receives the collection; not because this is money but because the people are giving the fruit of their own efforts to God. In the old days, it might have been a sheep, or the choicest fruits and vegetables from the harvest. Today, it's dollars and cents. But the motive is still the same, and it's a good motive.

I saw Jim at the morning service a couple of weeks ago, and something tells me that it won't be long before he'll be getting the point . . . not missing it!
