Nine Coeds Seek Titles As Queens

Nine finalists for Honorary Commandant were announced at the Military Ball style show Monday night. The style show, featuring floor length formals, was sponsored by Angel Flight and Ben Simons and Sons Department Store.

The finalists were chosen by an interviewing board composed of representatives from the various branches of the service.

Candidates for Miss Army are: Joan Brueggemann, a member of Delta Gamma Sorority and a senior in Arts and Science and Teachers College. She is a member of Angel Flight, a Dorm Student Advisor and was a 1963 Cornhusker Beauty Queen Finalist.

Lollie Linnemann is a member of Kappa Delta Sorority, a senior in Teachers College and social chairman of Kappa Delta, a member of the Lutheran Foreign Student Committee, Union Assistant Chairman and a finalist for Miss Omaha 1963.

Jane Tenhulzen, a senior in Arts and Science, is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority and Mortor Board, Associate Editor of the 1964 Cornhusker, Vice-President of the AWS Board and 1962 Homecoming Queen attendant.

Candidates for Miss Navy are: Elaine Anderson, a junior in Arts and Science and Teachers College, Social Chairman of Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority, a member of Red Cross and AWS Board.

Willa Meyer, a Senior in Arts and Sciences is Pledge trainer of Pi Beta Phi Sorority, chairman of Family Project Committee, member of Union Committee and a finalist for Nebraska Sweetheart 1962.

Evonne Agena is a junior in Teachers College, a member of Gamma Delta, Alpha Lambda Delta, and activities chairman of Amelia Earhart Hall.

Finalists for Miss Air Force are: Donna McFarlin, a senior in Teachers College, President and colonizer of Alpha Delta Pi Sorority, a member

THEY SING HONEST FOLK SONGS.

IN A WILD,
DRIVING,
SPIRITED,
EXCITING,
AND SOMETIMES QUIET
NEW WAY.

THE JOURNEYMEN

NEW DIRECTIONS
IN FOLK MUSIC

Just listen to their Capitol album, "New Directions in Folk Music." You'll hear the rocking, driving way the Journeymen sing "Someday Baby," a low down blues out of Chicago. The fun they have with "Stackolee," the wild song about a legendary terror of New Orleans. Their quiet and moving version of "All the Pretty Little Horses," one of the most beautiful lullabies ever written. Their spirited ragtime rendition of "San Francisco Bay."

Then you'll know what's new in folk songs. And what's best.

Look for - ask for - the Journeymen in concert on your campus.
