WATCHING HUSKERS PRACTICE—A University co-ed watches Nebraska practice for Saturday.

Hohn Doubtful Starter—

Crucial MU Tilt Affects Big 8

As football swings into the last half of the season, Nebraska's game at Missouri this Saturday very well could be a deciding factor in the Big Eight Conference.

Both the Cornhuskers and the Tigers go into the contest with even conference and overall records. In six games each team has suffered one non-conference setback. Missouri's loss came on opening day at the hands of Northwestern 23-12. Nebraska's only defeat was an upset 17-13 loss to Air Force.

Common opponents were Kansas State and Iowa State. Nebraska beat these two 28 to 6 and 21 to 7 while Missouri beat Kansas State 21 to 11 and barely edged Iowa State 7 to 0 last Saturday at Ames, making only three first downs and 18 yards rushing.

Tackle to tackle the beefy Husker line outweighs the Tigers by 24 pounds. Nebraska's overall line averages 225; tackle-to-tackle the average is 234. Missouri's overall line average is 216; tackle-to-tackle average is 210. In the backfield Nebraska averages 194 pounds per man whereas Missouri averages 199.

The series record for the game gives a slight edge to the Cornhuskers. Nebraska has won 28, Missouri has won 25, and there have been three ties.

Coach Bob Devaney continues to be plagued by squad injuries. Speedy halfback Willie Ross will be making the trip and will probably start, but right half Bob Hohn is now on the doubtful list.

Bothered with severe headaches, Hohn has been placed in Student Health for observation. A decision on whether or not he will be at Columbia will be made this morning. Tackle Monte Kiffin is lost for the game, and Center Lyle Sittler will see limited action.

The Huskers depart for Missouri via chartered plane today at 12:30 p.m. They will return to the Municipal Airport at 9 p.m. Saturday.

Tom Wolf Leads Delts To 28-0 Win Over Sigma Nu

Delta Tau Delta-A, defending All-University football champion, remains undefeated and atop League 2-A with a 28 to 0 victory over Sigma Nu's "A" team Wednesday.

Pleased at a good turnout, the Delts first scored on a reverse play by Jim Scanlon. The second touchdown of the first half came when Tom Wolf intercepted a pass and ran it back all the way.

Wolf quarterbacked the Delts in the second half after Tom Nystrom, first-half quarterback, had to leave the game. Wolf continued the able Delts attack by throwing two touchdown passes to Lynn Hasselbach, one on a fake reverse and the other on a down-and-out play. All extra points were made, and Delta Tau Delta also scored another third-period touchdown that was called back because of a penalty.

Intramural Results:
Delta Tau Delta-A 28 - Sigma Nu-A 0
Chi Phi 24 - Acacia 7
Alpha Gamma Rho 7 - Delta Sigma Phi 0
Gus 1 20 - Burnet 19
Bressey 20 - Seleck 19
Sigma Phi Epsilon-A 20 - Brown Palace 8

Husker Wrestlers Look To Challenging Season

Nebraska's wrestling team, without its main asset of last year, National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) champion Mike Nissen, prepares for its season opener with Northwest Missouri on December 6.

Coach Bob Mancuso's grapplers face a fourteen dual season, including the talent-laden Big Eight circuit, with only four lettermen reporting.

Mancuso sees the possibility of improving last year's record, commenting, "We will miss an outstanding individual like Mike Nissen, but this year's team is better balanced despite the fact it is a younger team."

Fifteen of Mancuso's charges are sophomores, but some have excellent chances of starting. Ten former state champions dot the wrestling roster to boost Husker hopes.

Two heavyweights, Don McDermott and Bob Zartner, and two lightweights, Steve Walenz and Chuck Martin, comprise the wrestling lettermen.

Walenz provides the best Husker bet for Big Eight prominence. He finished with an even record in the NCAA national tourney last year. Walenz, a former Omaha North Nebraska State Champion, will wrestle at 123.

Larry Nissen, brother of Mike, comes to Nebraska this year from Orange Coast Junior College with a 45 and one dual record.

Other possible standouts are 137-pounder Gary Richards from Bellevue and heavyweight Don McDermott from Harlan, Iowa. Richards, holdover from a strong frosh squad, should give Nebraska additional strength in the lower weights. McDermott is playing the two-sport role again this year and will report to Mancuso when football is through.

Additional footballers to report later are LaVerne Allers, Richard Czap, and Jim Brown.

IM Basketball League Teams Register Soon

All entries for intramural basketball are due by Tuesday, November 5, at Room 102 Men's Physical Education Building.

Team rosters must be presented and the $20 team entry fee paid by then. Intramural managers will have a meeting on Tuesday, November 5, at 5:00 p.m. in Room 114, Men's Physical Education Building.

Leagues to be organized are: Fraternity A, B, and C; Residence Halls; Independents. Championships will be determined by double-elimination tournaments.

All teams must furnish their own suits—reversible scarlet and gold jerseys. Basketball shoes must be worn for games and practices, and boys wearing glasses must wear a suitable glasses guard.

Games will be played at courts 1 and 2 of the Men's Physical Education Building, varsity and freshman courts of the Coliseum, and at the Ag College Activities Building.

All players must meet eligibility requirements for extra-curricular activities, and all men named by the basketball coaching staff on the Varsity and Freshmen rosters as of November 11 are ineligible for intramural basketball.

National College Basketball Rules will be followed except for timing, which will be as follows: four ten minute quarters, one-minute rests between quarters, and five-minute rest between halves.

Teams must provide an official for each game or forfeit.

The best four teams in each league will qualify for the All-University Championship Tournament (except for the B team leagues, who play for the B and C championships.)

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANIES SALUTE: KEN HUCK

It's been a busy first year for Wisconsin Telephone's Ken Huck (B.A., 1962).

In less than a year's time, Ken has filled in as Business Office Supervisor in Janesville, and as Manager both there and in Watertown, Wisconsin. Besides managerial duties, he made studies on manager security checks and order-writing discrepancies, and compiled work volume forecasts for Janesville and Beloit.

Few men in any field of work begin their careers with as much responsibility as Ken Huck has found at Wisconsin Telephone. His company is well aware that managerial muscle, if it is to grow, needs exercise.

Ken Huck, like many young men, is impatient to make things happen for his company and himself. There are few places where such restlessness is more welcomed or rewarded than in the fast-growing telephone business.

Nebraska, Tiger Runners Meet at Mizzou Saturday

Nebraska's cross country team travels to Missouri Saturday for their final meet prior to the Big Eight Conference run at Lawrence, Kans. next week.

Coach Frank Sevigne is taking a squad of only five runners. Peter Scott, who has led the Huskers two out of three meets, Larry Toothaker, Tucker Lillis, Stuart Tucker, and Jim Wendt make up the squad.

Running for Missouri will be highly respected Robin Lingle. Lingle, a transfer, is in his first year of competition for the Tigers and has placed first in all of Missouri's meets. Missouri's number two man is sophomore Randy Holt.
