

New Contract Awaits Regents—

Devaney To Stay

Nebraska football coach Bob Devaney announced Tuesday afternoon that he has notified University of Miami officials to withdraw his name from consideration as a successor to retiring Andy Gustavson.

The popular Nebraska coach, whose two-year record is 18 wins and only three losses, had visited Miami last weekend but upon his return stressed that he had not received an offer from Miami. Devaney's statement Tuesday afternoon:

"I have decided to stay at the University of Nebraska and have withdrawn my name from consideration at the University of Miami. The job was not offered to me, but I did visit with Miami officials. My wife, my family and I are very happy at Nebraska and we have decided to stay here. We are now turning our full attention toward Auburn and the Orange Bowl game."

Devaney's decision was hailed by Nebraska Athletic director Tippy Dye.

"We're all extremely happy that Bob Devaney and his wonderful staff have decided to stay here at the University of Nebraska, Dye said. "They have brought our football fortunes to such a position that all of us are tremendously proud."

No announcement relating to a new contract, appointment or financial arrangements with Devaney was made and there will be none, Dye said, because such announcements must be made by the University Board of Regents following their actions and the Regents do not have a meeting scheduled until Thursday.

NU Rushing Game Doubles In Ability To Defeat Foes

As the Nebraska Cornhuskers prepare to meet Auburn in the Orange Bowl, it's interesting to note that their ability to move the ball long distances and fracture goal line defenses played a key part in NU's 9-1 season. The Big Eight champions traveled 84 yards and 65 yards for touchdowns against Iowa State, 87 and 74 against Kansas State, 83, 84 and 78 against Colorado.

Nebraska powered 81 and 76 yards to score on Missouri, marched 75 against Kansas, hit Oklahoma State with drives of 73 and 70, and rolled 69 yards for a TD against Oklahoma.

Perhaps the most impressive Husker statistic is the fact that 26 of the 37 NU touchdowns were scored from inside the opposition's 10-yard line.

Nebraska made strides in defensive improvement, to go with a powerful offense, during 1963, and it paid off handsomely for nine wins.

The Cornhuskers took the ball away from its opponents a total of 28 times this fall, and they "gained" 585 yards on plays originated by the opposition.

NU foes yielded 360 yards when their backs were nabbed behind the line of scrimmage. And Nebraska defenders advanced the ball 225 yards with 14 pass interceptions.

Statistics don't reveal countless "clutch" plays that kept the Huskers among the nation's elite — 5th in the UPI poll and 6th in the AP poll, that is.

Bruce Smith blasting Missouri end Jim Waller loose from a two-point conversion attempt pass that would have put the Tigers in front, 14-13.

Dick Callahan's sprint along the goal line to bat down a pass from Larry Shields to Lance Rentzel.

All America Bob Brown tearing into the end zone, then leaping high in the air to bat down a sure TD pass to Colorado's Leon Mavity. Other interesting defensive facts about the Cornhuskers: Opponents managed only four touchdowns rushing from inside the 10-yard line.

No opponent was able to score on the Huskers during the third quarter. Nine of the foes' 15 TDs came in the fourth quarter.

Eight of the opposition's 15 touchdowns came on pass plays; opponents passed 193 times and Nebraska turned three of these into NU touchdowns.

The way opponents scored on Nebraska, by quarters:

First Quarter 1-yard — Minnesota, Sadek on quarterback sneak. 13-yards—Colorado, Symons to Howe pass.

Second Quarter 1—Air Force, Czarnote on plunge. 4—Missouri, Boston, fumble recovered in end zone. 7—Kansas State, Corrigan to McFillen pass. 70—Iowa State, Hoover on fake punt.

Third Quarter None.

Fourth Quarter 4—Oklahoma State, Miller to Williams pass. 7—Oklahoma State, Thomas on plunge. 22—Oklahoma, Fletcher to Flynn pass. 23—South Dakota State, Meyer to Maras pass. 27—Oklahoma, Pannell to Skidgel pass. 27—Oklahoma, Skidgel on end run. 38—Air Force, Isaacson to Greenlee pass. 53—Missouri, Lane to Boston pass. 99—Kansas, Sayers on end run.

BOWL-BOUND HARRIER — Nebraska's Gil Gebo, who will travel to Miami with the Husker relay team, loses by inches to Missouri ace Greg Pelster last year.

Miami Hosts Track With Grid Teams

Husker football players are not the only ones dreaming of post season bowls... the University of Nebraska track men will see action in two bowl track meets.

Bowl-bound tracksters include a mile relay team running in the Orange Bowl track meet and Ray Stevens who will run the 1500 meters in the Sugar Bowl classic Coach Frank Sevigne announced yesterday.

Although the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans has held a track meet in connection with the football game for a number of years, this is the first year that the Orange Bowl spectacular has included a track meet.

Coach Sevigne will be sending a mile relay team composed of senior Gil Gebo from New York City, junior Dick Strand from Minden, and sophomores Dave Crook of Bellevue and Tucker Lillis of Boston. Gebo and Strand are returnees from last year's indoor championship mile relay team.

Ray Stevens, of North Platte, who capped a fine three year performance by setting a Big Eight record in the outdoor mile last spring, will be the Huskers lone entrant in the Sugar Bowl track meet scheduled for New Year's Day.

Stevens ran the mile in 4:04.9 at the Outdoor Track Championships in Manhattan, Kansas last May.

The Orange Bowl meet will be held New Year's Day at the University of Miami.

NU Mermen May Repeat 1962 Success

Nebraska's swimming team, still wet from a winning dual over Iowa University at Iowa City, doesn't dip in competition again until Washington University of St. Louis travels to Lincoln for the Husker mermen's second dual on January 4.

Coach Dick Klaas may send his swimmers into Big Eight prominence again this year. Major roadblocks are Kansas and Oklahoma this year after a second place-finish to Oklahoma in the conference chase last year.

Back from that '62 team are loop tournament placers Keefe Ludwig, Bill Henry, Bill Fowles, Tom Chambers, and Don Copas.

After the Washington dual, the varsity will meet the frosh on January 17.

The freshman roster: Ray Barber, Grand Island; John Burchill, Nova Scotia, Canada; Tom Edwards, Lincoln; Dick Frank, Lincoln; Don Frazier, Lincoln; Bob Johnson, Fremont; Bill Martz, Bellevue; Bob Nebe, Omaha; Dave Lindbergh, Omaha; Ren Miller, Lincoln; Dale Parker, Lincoln; Chuck Peterson, Lincoln; Jeff Weston, Beatrice.
