AMLEC Offers Travel Program

Next summer 250 students will have the opportunity to participate in Michigan State University's American Language and Education Center's (AMLEC) program of language study and travel in Europe.

AMLEC cooperates with a non-profit Swiss foundation to offer college students an inexpensive opportunity to study Spanish, German, French and Italian, while immersed in the culture and daily life of the countries in which these languages are spoken.

During the summer of 1963, 242 students, representing 64 American colleges and universities, participated in this MSU program.

Karen Lund, Kappa Alpha Theta senior in Teachers from Lincoln, to Dwa in Carlson, Phi Kappa Psi senior in Business Administration from Fullerton.

If you agree with me that this short book will open new vistas for people in the South who have trouble reading newspapers, would you meet with me and my banker at your convenience? (It will have to be very soon because my Christmas bills may temporarily depress my credit rating.) Also, I really felt I should have tried to do something about it before the Orange Bowl game, but your publication was on vacation for the holidays and I hesitated to contact the Omaha World-Herald.

P.S. By the way, was I dozing? I missed that "Wah-h-h Eagle!" cry completely! And I almost preferred Husky the Husker to that mangy bird I saw. Guess I'm not as young as I used to be.

secuted. Hence, in time who became a paranoid and had to consult a psychoanalyst. Between being in jail and spending hours in the psychiatrist's office, Goosie became acquainted with a very different sort of people. These people became the subject of her rhymes.

You remember "Tom, Tom, the piper's son," who "stole a pig and away he run." Well Tom was nothing but a plain old kleptomaniac. And the little dog in "Hey, Diddle, Diddle," who laughed at the cow jumping over the moon, and who saw the dish run away with the spoon, well, he was a drug addict, constantly beset with hallucinations. And "Georgie Porgie" who "kissed the girls and made them cry," he was a sex maniac.

What Mother Goose actually was, was a person who only viewed things as they related to her. Because she was an oft-times criminal herself, Tom, Georgie, and the little dog (who was really a disguised person) did not seem as much in the wrong to her as they might to you or me.

I think that behind this whole search, there lies a moral: Look at life as it is, not as you think it ought to be.
