Jr. IFC Chooses Finalists; Queen To Reign At Dance

Five University pledges Barbara Smith, Beta Theta a Cornhusker Beauty Queen have been selected as final. Pi representative, is majoring Finalist.

Beta Phi; Carolyn Rankin, Pi Miss Rush Week and Corn- will be presented during the Beta Phi; Barbara Smith, husker Beauty Queen, and a coronation ceremonies. Kappa Alpha Theta; and Pam finalist for Rose Queen. Wilson, Kappa Kappa Gam-ma. They were selected by the Jr. IFC executive and social committees on the basis intelligence, beauty, appearance, and interest.

Barbara Atkinson, candidate for Sigma Alpha Epsilon, is in elementary education and speech therapy. She is president of Love Hall and of her pledge class and is a member of a Builders committee.

Diana Focht is representing Phi Gamma Delta and is in the Arts and Sciences College. She is a member of Builders, a Cornhusker yearbook worker, and Student Council Associate. She was a Miss Rush Week candidate.

Representing Kappa Sigma is Carolyn Rankin. She is a member of a Union Committee, and UNSEA. She plans to major in elementary educa-

Miss Rankin

Sheldon Exhibits

Shown Outstate

at Crete and Holdrege during January and February by the

be at the South Central Reg-

gram, according to Norman

braska Art Association.

Sheldon Art Gallery.

ists for Junior Interfraternity in child psychology in the College of Arts and Sciences. She by the vote of those attending is a member of a Union committee, Red Cross, and Ker 12 p. m. at the Lincoln Heat.

They are Barbara Atkinson, mittee, Red Cross, and KerPi Beta Phi; Diana Focht, Pi nals. She was a candidate for All finalists and candidates

Pam Wilson, sophomore transfer from the University of Missouri, is representing Triangle. She is majoring in elementary education and transfer from the University of Missouri, is representing in IFC representatives must atelementary education and was tend.

Miss Wilson

Rehearsal for the Ball will

Miss Atkinson

Campus Calendar

TASSELS meeting at 5 p.m. in 232 Student Union.

334 Student Union.

Region Meet Set At Center

plains states will meet at the time day students taking re-Nebraska Center March 12-15 quired courses for a degree. for a Regional American Assembly on the "Population Di-

Dr. Roy Holly, vice chancellor and chairman of the asbly was held here a year ago classes have been added be-on "Outer Space." The event cause of demand, Ellingson is co-sponsored by the American Assembly of Columbia University and the University of Nebraska.

Participants will meet in discussion groups for three Ad, FTC Figures days to exchange ideas and opinions on the "Population Dilemma." A book entitled "Population Dilemma" prepared for the American As-ism School convocations this sembly will be used as back-ground for the meeting. month.

gional Assembly will be dup- Federal Trade Commissioner licated in the April 1964 issue of the Nebraska Alumnus magazine.

The American Assembly, founded by Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1950 when he was president of Columbia University, is a national non-partisan educational organization which regularly holds internastate and local meetings and publishes books on vital current topics.

Evening Enrollments Up By 19 Per Cent

PANHELLENIC meeting at of 2,245 enrollments in even- loging, statistics, principles 4 p.m. in 332 Student Union. ing classes at the University of insurance, a senior level PEOPLE TO PEOPLE stu- of Nebraska - up 19 per Edor Ellingson, supervisor of evening classes, said an IWA meeting at 5 p.m. in enrollment is counted when a student registers for one course. Some students may register for more than one night course.

The increase in enrollment, Ellingson said, results from both part-time adult students Leaders from nine northern taking credit courses and full-

The Extension Division is preparing to handle more students next semester since About 70 persons who are enrollments for the second prominent in industry, labor, term usually exceed the first government, education, com- term. Registration for second munications and other persuits will come from Nebras-ka, Iowa, Wyoming, North until Feb. 21. Interested per-Dakota, South Dakota, Mon- sons should write or call the tana, Kansas, Colorado and Extension Division at the University. Classes will begin Feb. 10.

Several courses which are sembly, said a similar assem- not usually offered in evening said. They include: a senior

J-School To Hear

They are advertising execu-The final report of the Re- tive Donald J. Martin and Sigurd Anderson

According to Albert C. Book, professor of advertising, Martin will speak on "American Advertising Travels Abroad," on Tuesday, at 1:30 p.m. Martin is the vice-president of J. Walter Thompson Company, and represents the international department of the agency's Chicago office. Martin's talk will be co-sponsord by the Journalism School and the Lincoln Advertising Club. He will be the featured speaker at the Club's regular meeting Monday night.

Commissioner Anderson will address a convocation on Wednesday, at 2 p.m. His topic is "Self-Regulation in the

An ex-governor of South Dalibraries, so the volumes sored jointly by the Better needed most are texts for all Business Bureau of Lincoln levels from grade school and the Lincoln Advertising ganizations on the 22nd.

The J-School convocations are open to anyone interested. according to Professor Book. Both will be held in Room 328 Nebraska Hall.

Pure Beef Hamburger . . . 15c Triple-Thick Shakes 20c Tasty Cheeseburger20c Golden French Fries 12c Thirst-Quenching Coke ...10c Delightful Root Beer 10c Steaming Hot Coffee 10c Delicious Orange Drink ... 10c

Refreshing Cold Milk 12c 5305 "O" St. 865 No. 27th St. -OPEN ALL YEAR-

course in the problems of jewelry making and several journalism courses including magazine article writing and editing and advertising lay-

More than 60 courses are

PTP Holds Meet To Discuss Jobs

People-to-People (PTP) will have a Job Placement Orientation for foreign students at their meeting Wednesday night at 7:30 in 23S Student

Willard Goldfine, director of Veterens employment of the Lincoln Division of Employment, will be the feetured oftered including two special speaker. He will explain to non-credit courses in Fortran foreign students how they coding (fundamentals of com- should apply for a job and puter language and usage) what they should expect in the and astronomy for beginners. course of their application.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

WE NEVER CLOSE

HER PARENTS HER ROOMMATE THE PEAN

PERMANENT TYPE

ANTI-

DIVIDEND BONDED GAS 16th & P Sts.

Downtown Lincoln

IFFERENT TYPE

From out of the isolated Brazilian jungle comes Los Indios Tabajaras and their "Maria Elena." Now it's the title tune for a fascinating new album. A treasury of tribal folk songs like "Maran Cariua," "Los Indios Danzan" and "Baien Bon." Get this album and hear the most intriguing new sounds in music today-at your record shop.

NIA Collects 12,000 Books Two exhibitions of American paintings will be staged To Fill Overseas Requests The Nebraska International bers and others overseas," | English, public hygiene and Business World."

The exhibition entitled ect is growing, but there is "American Paintings" is on display at Doane College in a need for more books to fill with Ron Zimmer. a steady stream of requests Crete through Jan. 24 and will from foreign lands. Two years ago students col-Paintings by 20 artists are then, 3,500 books have been included in the exhibition shipped to all corners of the made possible through the world and 8,500 books are on University's extension pro- hand ready for shipment.

Geske, director of the Shel-"It will take all the books don Art Gallery. The paintings we have to fill current reare being loaned by the Ne- quests from teachers, missionaries, Peace Corps mem-

Funds and books for the Nebraska. Church groups have been very helpful in supplying books and have told their missions abroad of NIA's program.

were sent to a foundation in San Francisco which arthe project and ship books directly to foreign lands.

"We would like to have packing operations. Nebraskans receive more credit for this program," said terested in supporting the Zimmer. "The people who Association's book project Zimmer. "The people who Association's book project asked for the books know the through donations of funds or volumes are coming from us, but other people may not ka International Association, know that the books are com- Book Project, at the Student ing from Nebraska. We are Union. working with other private and civic organizations to ob-tain funds for the shipping Books of all types are welcomed by the organization. Particularly in demand are those on mathematics and nome economics. Most of the co-chairman of the project books are sent to schools and kota, Anderson's visit is sponional Library in Holdrege.

Jan. 26-Feb. 16.

Iwo years ago students broject have been broject have been broject have been actions and individuals over shipped to Pakistan. Since aztions and individuals over which will not stand up for mailing, are sold to help pay project expenses.

NIA members donate their time to collecting books, cata-Prior to this year the books loging each book, and preparing shipments. The headranged for overseas shipment. quarters for the book project Now NIA hopes to expand is being moved to the basement of Selleck Quadrangle to provide additional room to shelve books and to carry on

Persons or organizations inbooks may contact: Nebras-

RENT an Econo-Car 12 hrs. 3.99 24 hrs. 4.99 plus &c per mile 432-8435

February 14th is the

Send 9t Home deadline for "Rag" Subscriptions

LET YOUR PARENTS READ ALL ABOUT YOUR UNIVERSITY IN THE STUDENT'S

NEBRASKAN

CLIP AND MAIL

DAILY NEBRASKAN

ROOM 51 MEBRASKA UNION UNIVERSITY of NEBRASKA LINCOLN, NEBRASKA

Thank You!

KOSMET KLUB "Bye Bye Birdie" Tryouts—Jan. 16, 17, 18

Scripts now Available IFC Office Nebraska Union