In the midst of much southern commentary on the question of whether the Big Eight is an adequate opponent in the Orange Bowl, it was refreshing to see Hal Brown of the Lincoln Star point out that Big Eight teams are at least the equal of their southern foes.

Coach Bob Devaney had remarked before the team left that a big win would be needed to bolster conference prestige. Well, Nebraska got that victory and made the loop mark 3-3 in the last six years.

The Big Eight picture shouldn't dim at all next year. Oklahoma, playing with a host of juniors, will have most of their regulars back. Kansas calls back Sayers and Renko plus several sophomore speedsters for their backfield.

Missouri returns phenom Gary Lane plus Carl Reese. Monroe Phelps, who was injured early last year after leading the Tigers in almost every offensive department. will have another go. Nebraska should be very close to this year's peak. The crystal ball backfield could start Fred Duda at quarterback, Bob Hohn and Kent McCloughan at halfbacks, and Bruce Smith at fullback. "In the background" could be Maynard Smidt, Ted Vactor, and a host of talent-laden sophomores including Kaye Carstens of Fairbury.

Nebraska's major problem would be in the line where experience leaves in the spring. Tony Jeter and Freeman White brighten the end position, but Larry Kramer is the only starting lineman returning besides Jeter.

The Huskers could make a return trip to the Orange Bowl and prove the Big Eight's case once more.

Kansas was at its best the other night at Lawrence. Nebraska wasn't, Walt Wesley and George Unseld provided the height problem that should trouble the Scarlet for the rest of the year.

Coach Cipriano called it the "worst he'd ever been beaten." Nebraska hit just a third of their shots and were outrebounded 52 to 39. Most of the rebound difference was off the NU offensive boards where Huskers just couldn't grab the ball.

When they got defensive rebounds, they couldn't hit after bringing the ball down or else the ball was lost on mechanical error.

Hopefully, and that's about all they have is hope, the Huskers return to Lincoln for a Saturday night game with national power Oklahoma City.

If Nebraska thought Wesley and Unseld were bad, try the Oklahomans' average height of around 6-6 or 6-7! It will be interesting to see what Cip will do with Abe Lemon's giants.
