Eight Receive Grants—

Ak-Sar-Ben Aids Staff Members' Graduate Work

tural Extension Service staff boril is working on a masters to the state extension leader members have been awarded degree at Colorado State Uni- of programs and reports at in 218 Social Sciences. Dr. scholarships by the Knights versity, Fort Collins, Colo. the University. Perry is work- Bradsky will speak on the Pa- fairs and book reviews. He of Ak-Sar-Ben, in support of graduate work applying toward advanced degrees.

sion personnel working to- NU. ward professional improvement, according to Dr. Duane leader of studies and training, agent, and more recently has Fort Collins.

Those receiving scholartending are as follows:

Deon Axthelm, extension irrigationist and director of the recent Peace Crops training project at the University, graduate work at the University of Nebraska.

Mrs. Elsie M. DeLunger, has responsibility for assist- Kruger, APO president.

John D. Orr, associate state leader of 4-H and Young Men and Women and a moving force behind construction of the new state 4-H camp, will do graduate work at NU.

Edwin J. Penas, formerly Platte County extension agent and now conducting a demonstrational program in soils involving zinc and sulfur requirements of crops. He is working toward a masters de-Home Economics.

and Knox counties, has de- areas." Kruger said. veloped outstanding county The price on books at the Chris Perrin.

Henry E. Kumpost, Pierce in agricultural economics. Fach is the recipient of a County extension agent since Roy F. Stohler has been county extension agent in $100 scholarship, marking an- emphasis on soil fertility pro- Madison County since March, 7:30 p.m. in the Ag Union other contribution by Ak-Sar- grams in that county. Kum- 1957. He has served as a lounge Ben in a long-standing pro- post is working on a master's resource person in the area INST gram of assistance to exten- degree in poultry nutrition at on youth camping and rec- TRICAL AND ELECTRONIC Robert E. Perry is former gram in extension education Ferguson for election of treas-ships, their present position and institution they are ating with home economics pro- Kruger said that the exgrams in counties which do change has handled around not have home extension 750 books, has sold 300 and agents. Mrs. DeLunger will still has 350 for sale. "Of

> A quick poll of the ex-change finds that the books Kruger said the most in demand are those for math 18, sociology 53, psychology 70, and philisophy 10.

'The books most in demand as a general course seem to be education books with the exception of education 30 books," one worker said as he revealed a whole shelf of these books.

gree in agronomy at the NU 91 books are other books with the Arnold Air Society at the College of Agriculture and which the book exchange is University. oversupplied. "The books Other new officers inclu Robert M. Voboril, former-come and go pretty fast administrative officer, Chrisly extension agent in Dundy though, in most other course tie Brehm; executive officer, ler, Kruger said that another chapter of APO has a volumn of $16,000 a semester, ty female models from vari-"That," he added, "is our goal and for that we will need five male models, who will

Virginia Kramer has been elected commander of Angel Linda Crosson, Clare DeWitz Flight, an honorary service Marianna Gesman, Lin Hall-Math 14 books and history organization associated with quist, Pat Harrison, Yvonne

Anita Maxwell; comptroller, Noyes, Beverly Schultz, Suzi

youth programs, and is cur- book exchange ranges from Deputy chief of training, The boys are Louie Burghrently conducting a study of 60 cents on various paper- Dianna Kosman; information er, Jim Jones, Joe Kazlowski,

Campus Calendar

TOMORROW

PSI CHI will meet at 4 p.m. in January, 1964. the State Hospital.

INSTITUTE OF ELECreational activities. Stohler is ENGINEERS will meet working on a master's pro-Wednesday at 7 p.m. in 217 Loswenstein, state Extension Valley County extension at Colorado State University, urer and secretary, Robert Morgan from Bendix will speak on the Use of Tunnel Dials in Logic Circuits.

the Union north party room. program.

Coeds To Model For Bridal Show

A bridal show will be held tonight at 7:30 in the Student When asked to compare this Union ballroom, sponsored by

The theme for this year's attend the University of course," Kruger added, "this better but still not as good directed by Marcia Lewis, changes constantly as stu-dents buy and sell books." as possible. We hope that the chairman of the Union hos-exchange will snow-ball each pitality committee, and Leexchange will snow-ball each pitality committee, and Leanna Shike, Hovland's bridal

The show will feature twenous living units, as well as don wedding apparel, supplied by Holway Rent-a-Tux.

The girls include Kay Anderson, LaVonne Bartruff, Hesson, Ruth Ann Larson, Ann Lemon, Janice Ann McDaniel, Alice Meara, Terry Moran, Jodeen Muel-Carolyn Mitchell, Jo Trammel and Vicki Weber.

4-H needs and interests of backs, to $10 on engineering officer, Suzanne Trammel; Steve Sidles and Don Theo-youth in the age range eligi-books. Students have been historian, Karlyn Kuper.

The Alpha Phi Omega saving between 25 cents and (APO) book exchange is in $2.00 on each book they buy Tonight In Union full swing and is very suc- at the book exchange, accordarea county extension agent; cessful, according to Jim ing to Kruger.

year's exchange with last Hovland Swanson and by the years, Kruger said, "It is a Union hospitality commiettee. least double in volume and student participation has been show is "The Bridal Path,

100% student partciipation."

Angels Elect Officers

Esquenazi-Mayo Becomes Columnist For Leading Colombian Newspaper

p.m. in 203 Veterinary its horizons to such places as America, Africa, Europe, or other nations. Colombia and other countries, Asia. THETA SIGMA PHI will thanks to Dr. Roberto Esmeet at 7 p.m. in the Daily N quenazi-Mayo, associate pro-

Esquenazi is now a weekly columnist in EL TIEMPO, YWCA FRESHMEN will Colombia's top daily newsmeet at 7 p.m. in the Union. paper. He began his column topics as inter-American af- tial for those who plan evening toward a master's degree tient Companion Program at hopes to write about this University and the interest

> In addition to bringing Nebraska to Latin America, Esquenazi is working with a committee concerned with bringing area studies of other nations to American college campuses. Last month he was elected secretary of the Hispanic Area Studies of the Modern Language Associa-THETA NU pre-med honorary, will meet at 7:30 p.m. in the Union north party room. tion, an organization of 60 uni-

> > tures as well as languages of be eligible to vote for queen. Colombians, he added.

ting to be an integral part of In 1946 and 1947 he served as fessor of Romance languages. academic activities," said United Nations correspondent Esquenazi of the area studies from Bogota's EL TIEMPO. in other universities.

knowledge of cultures as well The columns concern such as their languages is essen-

Student Nurses Vie RODEO CLUB will meet at that it has in Latin America. For Queen Of Hearts

Competing for the Queen of Hearts throne are three University School of Nursing students.

Queen hopefuls are Marjorie Herrill, sophomore; Pat Hall, junior; and DeLilia Schneider, senior.

Each candidate was nominated by her respective class. problems. The 1964 queen will be

The area studies are classes to the sophomore sponsored Corps." They are so popular, for students interested in dance, to be held Feb. 14. in fact, that some of the knowing all about the cul- Each student attending will members are marrying

NU VETS will meet at 7:30 The University may widen countries in Latin America, tually involve themselves with

As a columnist, Esquenazi "I think the studies are get- is no stranger to Colombia.

He hopes that an exchange program between University students and Colombian col-Esquenazi believes that lege students can be arranged > Esquenazi worked in the Organization of American States with Dr. Alberto Lleras, who was twice the President of Colombia and Secretary General of the OAS. "Alberto Lleves is perhaps the greatest Latin American statesman of the century," says Esquenazi.

> As far as Colombia goes, Esquenazi believes it is working earnestly in the Alliance for Progress in order to cope with its economic and social

Nursing students and facul- praise for the men and women ty and their dates are invited who work in the Peace announcing

NEBRASKA WORLD FILM FESTIVAL

A series of unusual, sophisticated adult films from all parts of the world...at the Nebraska Theatre beginning February 13. Each picture will play at the Nebraska for a full week.

Regular admission for these films is $1; however, you may purchase a subscription book of six admissions for $4.50. The subscription book tickets will be honored at any performance of any of the films.

Febr. 13

from ITALY

VORACIOUS

March 5 from FRANCE"A ROMP OF BAWDY TALES. THE MOST REFRESHING MOVIE

OFLOVE LESLIE GARON ROSSAND BRAZZI

Febr. 20 from SWEDEN "I ASSURE YOU IT IS A BEAUTIFUL MOVIE!"

A Tribute to Dylan Thomas' Narrated by Richard Burton

from IRELAND "A Joy: absolute and unbounded."

March 12

Febr. 27 from ENGLAND

HE'S THE MOST DANGERO

March 19 from ENGLAND

"Devastating to the well-tuned funny

COMING APRIL

MAIL TO: The Nebraska Theatre 1144 P Street Lincoln, Nebraska

subscription books of 6 tickets each for the Nebraska World Film Festival at the Nebraska Theatre @ $4.50/book. Enclosed is check or money order and stamped self-addressed envelope.

NAME CITY ADDRESS

"I check at the First," said Tom Ezly

"Checks from the First are personalized," said Judy identifiably.

"First gives you as many checks as you need," said Jeff reasonably.

"You don't pay for checks in advance at the First," said Mary thriftily.

"With E-Z check you pay a nominal fee after you write your checks," said Nancy deductedly.

"No minimum balance is required for E-Z Check," said Bob sparingly.

"First National's Drive-In is really convenient," said Linda speedily.

"Saving at the First is the greatest," said John interestedly.

"My checking account at the First keeps me within my budget," said Kathy unerringly.

"Why don't you open your EZ checking account at the First today?" they said immediately

FIRST NATIONAL BANK & Trust Company of Lincoln At the Time and Temperature Corner - 12th & N Popular Drive-In at 13th & L Member: F.D.I.C.