

Huskers In Fourth With 4-3 Loop Mark

Nebraska's red-hot Cornhuskers now have gained sole possession of fourth place after they upset league-leading Oklahoma State Monday night.

The high-riding Cowboys followed Oklahoma University to the Coliseum where the Huskers are always tough and both clubs were nipped in close contests.

Colorado with a win over Oklahoma and Kansas State who has been idle this week are now knotted with Oklahoma State for the lead at 5-2.

After a dismal last-place finish in the Big Eight Tournament at Kansas City in late December, the Cornhuskers of Coach Joe Cipriano have caught fire and are now in fourth.

Their mark in the loop now stands at 4-3.

Following the four leaders are Kansas at 4-4, Missouri at 3-4 and Iowa State at 3-5. Rounding out the second division is Oklahoma with a 1-8 record.

The Buffaloes, who will be in Lincoln for an important tilt Saturday night, were paced by Jim Davis' 19 points in the win over the Sooners, but displayed good balance as four men hit double figures.

Bob Vander Wilt started his first game for Iowa State and celebrated by scoring 20 points to lead his team past Missouri, a team that split its two games with the Huskers.

All-U Basketball Tournament Near

The All-University intramural basketball tournament will begin Tuesday, Feb. 25 and will run through March 3. Last year's all-university champion, Navy ROTC, will be back to defend its title.

The competition will be held on three courts and there will be three games played each night. According to intramural director, Ed Higginbotham, Friday is the last day to add names to the roster before the tournament.

Phi Psis, Sig Eps Top Cage Teams

Going into the last weeks of intramural basketball before the tournament, Phi Kappa Psi and Sigma Phi Epsilon are tied for the lead in League 1-A with identical 4-0 marks.

League 2-A is in the same situation with Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Sigma Nu sharing the lead at 4-0. Ag Men of League 3-A round-out the unbeaten fives in the top fraternity leagues.

A Talk to College Girls about Love and Sex

"What can I do about sex until marriage?"
 "Whose business is it anyway but mine?"
 "Can I expect adults who are responsible for my well being to tell me honestly to 'go ahead'?"
 Without invoking ideals, morals or sacred values, a distinguished doctor and marriage counselor presents a practical, candid guide for college girls on the subject of modern love, premarital sex and marriage.

Scholastic Hurdles Trip Big 8 Athletes

Big Eight athletes have already failed to clear their scholastic hurdles and will not be eligible for competition this semester.

Kansas State performers Benny Gates, a sprinter, Richard DeMoss, a wrestler, and Ike Evans, a baseballer, all bit the dust, while Kansas University lost seven.

The Jayhawks who will not compete are starting center Walter Wesley, Kerry Bolton, and Wayne Loving, basketball players and Nate Sims, Larry Rheams, Art Cortez, and Ed Wiberg, tracksters.

The fate of the Nebraska athletes has not been announced yet, as the University semester ends later than its Big Eight counterparts.
