

ANOTHER FOR WEBB—Coley Webb, sophomore cager, get position to pull down another rebound against the Jayhawks. In the last four games Webb has improved greatly as he has collected 36 points and 31 rebounds.

Varsity Mark Set By Frosh

Who is Charley Greene? This question was frequently asked in New York's Madison Square Garden after last Saturday night. The University of Nebraska freshman was second behind Florida A&M's Bob Hayes in a record breaking 60 yard dash effort. Hayes was clocked in :05.9, Greene in :06.0, the former world's record.

Next Mat foe Ranked First

Nebraska's wrestling team has its work cut out for it this week end as it faces Iowa State in a dual meet. The Cyclones are currently ranked No. 1 in the country and are going for their tenth straight win. Their 9-0-1 record includes a tie with a No. 2-ranked Oklahoma State.

The Big Eight dual is slated for 7:30 Saturday night at the Iowa State Armory. Nebraska has continued to show improvement and will have two top hands on the mat in Rick Allgood at 123 points and Dennis Kendall at 157.

It may be a little early to look towards next year's Big Eight Championships, but the young 19-year-old is almost sure to rewrite Big 8 record books.

If he continues his pace, he will be among the contenders for a berth on the next Olympic team. The speedster, called "Peepers" by his teammates because of his glasses, is unusual in that he takes his practice starts in tennis shoes. He explains that when he changes to spikes it makes his feet seem lighter and he runs faster.

Greene comes to the University from Seattle, Washington where he ran for O'Dea High School. His prep coach, Bill Gilmore, encouraged the runner to attend Nebraska. Gilmore is originally from David City, Neb.

As a high schooler, Greene ran the 100 in :09.4 with the wind at his back and :09.5 without the wind. He was clocked in a :20.5 220 with the wind and :21.0 in calm weather.

Bowl Policy Major Topic

First on tap for the Big Eight representatives at their quarterly meeting of athletic directors and faculty representatives will be the policy for post-season bowl games.

The meeting will be at Kansas City this week. Under present rules Big Eight teams can go to any post-season bowl game with approval of the faculty representatives. Last season, approval was automatic for the Bluebonnet and Gator bowls, with the champion going to the Orange Bowl.

The end of the Orange Bowl opens the door to appearances in other New Year's Day games but no contract with any bowl is in prospect now. In fact, no changes may be made in the league's bowl policy, but it's certain to be a major topic of discussion.

Athletic directors start their meetings a day early to get a head start on the 1970 and 1971 football schedules. They will also meet Thursday and be in a joint session with the faculty representatives Friday morning. The faculty men then will meet Friday afternoon and Saturday.

for a clash with the Sooners. Nebraska ends its season with a game with Colorado at Boulder the following Monday.

"We've looked just as good on the road as we have at home against the teams we've played," says Coach Joe Cipriano.

"We feel that with a top effort we can bounce back." Nebraska bowed to Kansas last Monday, 64-55, after escaping with a 37-35 win against Iowa State last Saturday.

"We weren't in the right frame of mind against Kansas," says Cipriano. "And their top defensive effort slowed down our offense."

In home games Nebraska beat Oklahoma State, 54-53, to knock them from the top rung on the conference ladder, and the Sooners were 76-69 overtime victims.

Nebraska is now 7-15 overall and 5-6 in the loop race. Charlie Jones, who scored 18 against the Jayhawks, is atop the Husker scoring chart again this week. He leads the team in scoring, rebounding and field goal per cent.

Bob Antulov, who has shown great improvement in defense and rebounding, now is second in rebounding with 111 grabs.

Cagers To Oklahoma For Weekend Games

Heading down the home stretch of the Big Eight Conference race, the Nebraska cagers have three road games to finish out their season.

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANIES SALUTE: JIM HEYER

When he joined the Wisconsin Telephone Company in August of 1962, Jim Heyer (B.S.E.E., 1960) immediately learned to design television transmission circuits.

No "make-work" assignment, Jim's job calls for him to develop circuits for use throughout Wisconsin. He also goes into the field to check the effectiveness of his designs once they're in operation.

There are many decisions to make, and many to defend. But Jim enjoys the challenge and has the ability to meet it. No wonder raises come much sooner than expected.

Jim Heyer, like many young engineers, is impatient to make things happen for his company and himself. There are few places where such restlessness is more welcomed or rewarded than in the fast-growing telephone business.
