

Quiz Bowl Program Moves Into Semifinals

The accelerated Quiz Bowl program will move into semifinal rounds April 15 with a match between Kappa Alpha Theta II and Pharmacy College, according to Dan Rosenthal, Quiz Bowl chairman.

The single elimination semifinals will continue through April 19 and April 22, and the remaining ten teams will begin final competition on April 25. The next day the top five teams will be ranked and an All-University team will be selected from the top individuals on these teams.

Rosenthal said that five outstanding individuals from teams which did not make the top five will also be considered in the selection of the All-University team, which will represent the University at the Big Eight Quiz Bowl in Norman, Okla., May 2.

Four regulars and two alternates will be chosen from the top 25 to go to Norman.

Rosenthal noted that the April 19 matches will be the first time that Quiz Bowl competition has been held on a Sunday.

MUSIAL WILL SPEAK - Health Day Emphasizes Research

By Barb Berney Junior Staff Writer

The 14th Annual College Health Day Series will be held in conjunction with the annual meeting of the Nebraska State Medical Association and the Governor's Conference on Physical Fitness, April 29-May 1.

Stan Musial, famed baseball player, who is special consultant to the President on physical fitness, will be one of the main speakers.

Gerard, Professor of Biological Sciences, University of California and the Director of Mental Health Research Institute at the University of Michigan.

Gerard's field of interest concerns the nervous system and behavior. He will speak on the subject "Life-Long Mental Fitness."

Governor Morrison and Stan Musial will present keynote statements at the Nebraska

State Medical Association Meeting at the Hotel Cornhusker Ballroom, 10:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m. The main feature of this session will be a panel discussion on physical fitness by Musial, Fuenning, McCleave, Gerard, Selye and Roman. This meeting is also available to all interested students.

Selye will present an open seminar in the Love Library Auditorium, Friday, 9:30-10:30 a.m. His topic will be "Adaptation Syndrome."

Annual Jazz Concert To Feature Vocalist

The Phi Mu Alpha music fraternity will present its sixth annual Jazz concert Friday. Featured will be jazz vocalist finalist Karen Workman.

Miss Workman was selected from a campus wide audition held in March. She is a freshman majoring in music.

Miss Workman transferred to the University this semester from Peru State Teacher's College. She has sung professionally with a folk-singing group called the Ethnic Singers which appeared on the Joe Martin Show. Miss Workman also won the state-wide audition which enabled her to appear with Lawrence Welk in Beatrice.

The jazz band is composed of eighteen pieces including a seven piece combo. Their band leader is George Eychner who is a member of the Delta Upsilon fraternity and is a trumpet major.

The concert will be held in the Student Union ballroom at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are on sale at the Student Union.

The proceeds of the concert are used for the presentation of two scholarships to incoming freshman in music. The recipient of the scholarship is selected by the dean of the Music College.
