

Baseball Team Has 2-4 Mark

The Husker baseballers returned from their Southern swing with two wins and four losses.

Leading off the trip was a win over Tulsa by a 7-3 score. Nebraska took advantage of four errors to give Husker pitcher Bob Hergenrader a win in his first college start.

Hergenrader held Tulsa to two hits during the first five innings before retiring.

Texas Lutheran defeated Nebraska 5-2 in the second game of the season.

Starting and losing pitcher was Jim Kahrhoff who tied the game up with a homer in the fifth inning but the Texans came back with three runs in the sixth.

Pacing the Huskers in the hitting department were Joe Gaughan and Gary Tunison who collected two singles apiece.

Stan Hartmann was the winning pitcher for Texas Lutheran.

April 1-4 found the Huskers at Houston University for a four game stand to wind up the southern trek.

Nebraska lost the first game 10-1 as Houston gathered 11 hits altogether and pushed a cross five runs in the second inning.

The Huskers were hitless until Curt Johnson left off the fifth with a dribbler down the third base line.

Hergenrader was given the loss after going three innings.

In the second game, Nebraska came back to tie the series with an 11-9 win.

The Huskers exploded for seven runs in the seventh inning to beat Houston.

The game saw 11 pitchers—six of them for Houston—take the mound, Pat Gorham got credit for the win.

The Huskers had to come from behind as the score stood 8-4 in favor of Houston after the sixth inning.

Dave May and Tunison collected three hits each to lead Husker hitting.

The third game saw the Huskers take an 11-2 defeat. Nebraska pitchers allowed eight walks and nine hits. Kahrhoff took the loss as six NU pitchers saw action.

The series ended with another loss as Houston won by a 3-1 score.

The Huskers got only three hits and made six errors. Hergenrader was the losing pitcher.

Next weekend finds the Huskers taking up Big Eight action with a trip to Oklahoma.

Claridge Gets Trophy, Picked Most Valuable

Dennis Claridge, Nebraska's All-Big Eight quarterback, has won the Tom Novak Trophy, awarded each year to the most valuable senior player on the Cornhusker squad by J. Gordon Roberts.

Claridge gained the honor by a vote of the sports writers and sportscasters who followed the Huskers through their 10-1 season.

The award will be presented at halftime of the Nebraska Intra-Squad Scrimmage, May 9 at Seacrest Field.

During the season Claridge completed 31 of 66 passes for 440 yards and rushed for a net gain of 179 yards to give him 619 total offensive yards. He scored 36 points for Big Eight champion Huskers.

In the 13-7 Orange Bowl win over Auburn, Denny got the ball rolling with an electrifying 68-yard gallop on the second play from scrimmage for a touchdown.

Next football stop for Claridge is the Green Bay Packers of the National Football League. He is now attending Dental School at the University.

Runners Win Dual; Compete In Relays

PEGGY SPEECE—Sports Editor

Husker track teams ran in three meets over the Spring vacation, winning a dual with Oklahoma, taking two firsts in the Arkansas Relays and running into bad luck in the Texas Relays.

This is the first year the tracksters have competed in the Arkansas Relays and the Huskers took two firsts.

Lynn Headley won the 100-yard dash with a .09.7 and Victor Brooks won the broad jump with a leap of 24-6 1/2.

Other Nebraska results included a fourth place for the two-mile relay and Jim Beltzer placed fifth in the shot. Jack Cramer was fifth in the high jump and Juris Jesifers took a fourth in the triple jump.

The Oklahoma State dual at Stillwater proved to be easy sailing for the Huskers as they won 82-63.

Kent McCloughan raced to .09.6 100-yard dash clocking while sophomore flash Dave Crook beat Indoor 440 champ Jack Miller in the quarter with a time of .48.6.

The mile relay lost to the O-Staters again as the Cowboys won in a time of 3:17.9.

Other first places for the Huskers were collected by Preston Love in the high hurdles, Larry Toothaker in the two-mile run, Jim Beltzer in the shot, and the 440 relay.

Victor Brooks took both the broad jump and triple jump and Roland Johnson won the discus to give Nebraska firsts.

The Texas Relays saw the Huskers win their heats of the preliminaries in the sprint medley and the mile relay with the best qualifying times.

Bryant Selected To Head Centennial Sports Board

University Sports Information director Don Bryant has been named chairman of the Nebraska Centennial Commission's all sports committee.

"We are expecting athletics to play a very large part in the promotion of our state and enjoyment of Nebraska citizens during the 1967 celebration," Commission Chairm an A. James Ebel of Lincoln commented.

Bryant has announced the appointment of Committee Vice Chairmen: Robert Pinkerton, Kimball, publisher of WESTERN NEBRASKA OBSERVER; Denny Fuehrer, sports editor of the NORFOLK DAILY NEWS; Al Riddington, sports editor of the BEATRICE SUN; Doyle Smith, sports editor of the HASTINGS TRIBUNE; Jimmy Kirkman, sports columnist of the NORTH PLATTE TELEGRAPH-BULLETIN; Walli Provost, sports editor of the OMAHA WORLD-HERALD, and Bob Zenner, sports director of KOLN-TV and KLIN radio.

Bryant said, "It is an honor and an exciting challenge to join with the leaders from all phases of athletics, whether it be competitive, participation or spectator, to help plan a tremendous sports year for 1967. Athletics have always held a special spot in the hearts of Nebraskans, continually serving as a unifying force for good in small ham-
