Trackmen Blast Iowa State 103-41 As Meet Records, Varsity Mark Fall

A variety record and four meet marks fell by the wayside as Husker thinclads raced to a smashing 103-41 win over the Iowa State Cyclones on the Memorial Stadium track Saturday afternoon.

Nebraska won 13 events while allowing the Cyclones just four first places.

Victor Brooks turned in a new varsity mark in the triple jump with an outstanding leap of 47-4 1/2. Brooks also won the broad jump erasing a 23-year-old meet record.

On his first jump Saturday, Brooks went 25-2, but he scratched by one-half inch so that jump was not counted.

Establishing a new meet record in the high jump, junior Jack Cramer went 6-5. The old record was 6-4 set by Dale Knotek of Nebraska in 1957.

Another meet record fell in the 100-yard dash as Lynn Headley raced to :09.8 clocking. Second in the event was Dave Crook.

The Husker mile relay team also turned a meet record. The quartet of Dick Strand, Tucker Lillis, Gil Gebo and Crook were timed in 3:16.9, beating the old record of 3:20.9.

Tying a record was Gebo who ran 1:55 in the 800 to tie Joe Mullin's meet record set in 1958. Lillis of the University was second.

Sophomore Crook was one of the busier Huskers. Crook, best known for his running of the 440 did not perform in that event Saturday. Instead he ran the 100 and 220 in place of Kent McCloughan who was withheld from the meet due to a muscle injury.

Crook won the 220 with a :21.6 time and was second in the 100.

Crook also ran on two relays—the 440 and the mile. Nebraska won the 440 relay with a time of :42.4. Running were Strand, Brooks, Crook and Headley.

Strand was another lad who had a busy day. Besides running both relays, he came in first in the 220 and won the 440 with a :48.5 time.

Nebraska distance men took the first two places in both the mile and two-mile. Peter Scott won the mile in 4:24.1 and Larry Toothaker was second. Scott and Toothaker both came back to tie for first in the two-mile in 9:50.5.

The shot put saw Jim Beltzer win with a 50-2 1/2 toss. Beltzer was dismissed from Student Health only Friday night after a bout with the measles.

Roland Johnson, held out of the shot put because of a back injury came on to win the discus with a throw of 153-11.

Iowa State's only first places came in the hurdle events and the javelin and pole vault.

Norm Johnston of the Cyclones edged Preston Love in the hurdles for the closest race of the afternoon. Johnston also won the 330-yard intermediate hurdles. Dave Chipman took the pole vault and Byron Johnston won the javelin.

Two Nebraska freshmen events were added to the regular program. Sprinter Charles Greene won the 220 with ease in a clocking of :21.4 while Jim Ryan ran 1:59.1 to win the 800.

Passing Dominates Scrimmage

A passing attack by both squads dominates coach Bob Devaney's first football scrimmage for the Spring drills Saturday.

A Fred Duda-to-Tony Jeter combination resulted in two touchdowns. Both scores came against Henry Wood's unit.

Joe McNulty was the standout of the day as he scored twice. He sprinted 30 yards on a draw play from the full-back slot and a little later went 90 yards to score on a screen pass from the left half position.

Devaney explained that the large amount of passing was due to the fact that there has only been a short time to put in plays and he hasn't introduced many running plans. Other scoring saw Bruce Smith score with Duda's unit on a three yard run. Freshman Bob Churchich fired a pass to Langston Coleman for a 25 yard touchdown and another frosh, Ron Kirkland, ran 50 yards to score after intercepting a pass from Steve Gunther. Frosh Wayne Weber passed to Harry Wilson for another tally.

Devaney had praise for lineman Gary Brichacek, Rich

Czap, who sat our last season, and Tom Shoja. The mentor also liked the pass catching of Jeter and Freeman White. Devaney did a lot of juggling throughout the scrimmage as he watched various combinations. Although the White unit outscored the Red unit, there were some switching of jerseys at times. Basically the Whites were the first, second, sixth and seventh units and the Reds were the third, fourth and fifth.

Netmen Win Triple Dual; Season Record Now 6-2

Nebraska's tennis team caught fire this past week and now hold a 6-2 season record. This record includes wins over Iowa State and Kansas State in a triple dual held at Manhattan, Kan. Friday and Saturday.

Rich Gibson, senior, and Ted Sanko, sophomore, notched two wins apiece in the singles to lead the Husker attack in Manhattan.

A doubles team of Gibson and Rick Harley won both matches with ISU and K-State.

On last Thursday, the Netters defeated St. Cloud (Minn.) in a dual here in Lincoln.

Friday's results: Nebraska vs. Iowa State, Dick Gibson, N. defeated Dave Scheiding 6-2, 6-2; Ted Sanko, NU, def. Roger Funk, 6-2, 6-1; Dick Woods, NU, def. Mike Sunday, 3-6, 6-3, 6-0; Kile Johnson, NU, def. Jim Lomire, 6-2, 6-1; Russ Daub, NU, def. Jim Koenig, 7-5, 6-0.

Baseball Team Loses Series To Oklahoma

The Husker baseballers lost a three-game series to Oklahoma University in Norman Friday and Saturday.

A double header played Friday saw the Sooners gain excellent pitching from a pair of sophomore hurlers as the Huskers lost 6-1 and 7-0.

Nebraska could manage but four hits — two in each game — the entire afternoon.

On Saturday, Oklahoma won the third game of the series by a score of 12-2.

Nebraska opened the game with a run in the first inning and held the edge until the fourth when Oklahoma pushed three runs across the plate. From there on OU was in complete command of the game.

Tom Larsen, Bob Herganrader and George Langren were charged with Nebraska's losses.

Deposits Due For Flight To Europe This Summer

The $75 deposit for holding space on the Big Eight group flight to Europe must be paid this week, according to Perry Weddle, flight coordinator.

The flights, which leave New York June 16 and return Sept. 9, are open to anyone connected with the University and their dependents. The rates are reduced, under the group flight plan, from $541 to $361 for the round trip.

The program is sponsored by Student Council and the Big Eight Travel office.

Weddle said that the deposits are fully refundable. He encouraged any interested student, teacher or employee to talk to him in B3 Burnett, University extension 2824, if they desire more information about the plan or wish to sign up and pay the deposit.

Participation has been "fairly good," he said, and expressed hope that the group flight idea will grow during the next few years.

The program has developed at Iowa State to the point that five planes are going this summer," he said.
