Footballers Will Learn Today Of Promotions

By Lee Marshall
Assistant Sports Editor

Nebraska footballers find out today just where they stand as the individual promotions are posted in preparation for the upcoming Saturday scrimmage.

After a rather windy scrimmage last Saturday, there was some shuffling in the various units. Two frosh teams received promotions. The unit directed by Hasting's Wayne Weber and composed chiefly of out of state players was moved to No. 3 rank, while the unit quarterbacked by Bob Churchich of Omaha edged out Henry Wood's boys for the No. 4 spot, with the latter dropping to spot 5.

Supporting Churchich at fullback are Ted Wright and Bill Brown, Kaye Carstens and Len Janik at halfbacks, Tom Smith and Langston Coleman at ends, Roger Kudrna and Carel Stith at tackles, George Blankenship, Stan Grell, Lynn Senkbeil and Ed Sypulski at guards, and Bob Placek at center.

Larry Wachholtz was replaced by Janik at right halfback after he injured his ankle in the Saturday scrimmage. The North Platte star was joined on the sidelines by Ken Brunk, a fullback on the No. 6 unit, who suffered a kidney injury Saturday.

Devaney and the staff spent part of Monday's practice bolstering their offense, and the Husker coach indicated that they would start on the team defense later this week.

After this Saturday's scrimmage there will be 13 more practice sessions until the climactic intra-squad scrimmage.

Six Huskers On All Star Swim Team

Six University varsity swimmers top the list of selections for the Nebraska Swim Team which will meet a Kansas all-star squad on April 18.

This event will be the first annual Kansas-Nebraska All-Star Swim Meet and will be held at the Hastings high school swimming pool.

Those selected from the Nebraska swim squad which placed third in the Big Eight meet last month are Keeffe Ludwig, Dave Frank, Charlie Flansberg, J. Lindstromberg and Bob Frisch. They will join 55 other outstanding swimmers from Nebraska for the meet.

Coaching the team will be Cal Bentz, Jr., Omaha Athletic Club swimming coach. Assisting him will be Colleen Gillette of Hastings, Bob Davis of Fremont, and Bernie Bryan of Lincoln.

Bowlers Win Big Eight

Nebraska's bowling team brought home the traveling trophy awarded to the Big Eight Tournament team champions this week. The tournament was held at Iowa State University over the weekend.

The Huskers won the tourney by the narrowest of margins over Kansas University and Iowa State. The team standings were determined by awarding one point for each team victory and one point for each 200 pins knocked down. Nebraska scored 82.1 points; Kansas had 81.78 and Iowa had 80.61.

Keith Van Velkinburgh of the Husker team received top individual honors by being named the outstanding bowler of the tournament. He is captain of the Nebraska bowlers.

Van Velkinburgh and Bob Gant, also of the Huskers, finished first and second, respectively, for the individual scoring in the tourney. Van Velkinburgh's 15-game average was 205 and Gant's 204.

The 1964 tourney produced the highest scores in the history of the Big Eight Tourney Van Velkinburgh reported. There were three individuals with averages over 200, which represented a new record. A high individual series of 689 by Kansas' Dave Rybolt set a new mark.

Nebraska's Ralph DeLong set a new record as he bowled 279 for the highest individual game of the tourney. Another record was set by the Nebraska team with a 962 average.

Only five teams of the usual six participated this year. Oklahoma State was unable to get to the tourney. Missouri and Colorado do not participate in the tourney.

Next on the agenda for the bowlers are the national team championships to be held in Illinois May 1-3.

Weigh-ins Due For IM Wrestling Bout

Final weigh-ins for the intramural Wrestling Tournament which will begin competition on April 20 have to be completed by 5:00 Friday afternoon.

The scales will be available today from 3:30 to 6:00, tomorrow from 4:00 to 6:00, and Friday from 4 to 5:00.

Husker Netters Defeat Drake U. For 6th Straight

Winning their sixth straight match, Nebraska tennis men thrashed Drake 6-1 in a dual Monday afternoon. The games were forced indoors due to the windy weather.

The Huskers now own a 7-2 record for the season.

Nebraska won all the singles matches from the Bulldogs but split in the doubles competition.

Dick Gibson, the Huskers No. 1 player, did not play Monday due to a bout with the flu.
