Huskers Nip Buffs For First Victories

The Huskers finally tasted victory in the form of Buffalo blood over the weekend, as they won two out of three on the Nebraska diamond.

The Huskers' wins came on Friday as they won both games of the doubleheader 2-1, 3-2. Saturday's game saw Adrian Mohr throw a no-hitter at Nebraska as the Buffs took that one 4-0.

George Landgren, who pitched in relief in both games on Friday, saved one game and gained credit for the win in the other.

Landgren came on in the top of the seventh of the first game to relieve Tom Larsen who had started the game and was doing a good job until Adrian Mohr singled to center and advanced to second when Curt Johnson fumbled the ball. Landgren then came in to strike out Roger Griffith, get Tom Dutcher on a ground ball, and strike out pinch hitter Jack Price to save the win for Larsen.

The Huskers had scored the winning run in this game in the sixth inning when Don Sessions dropped Rich Brenning's line smash, and then Brenning moved to second on John Roux's infield single.

Ron Douglas then smacked a line shot single to left to drive in the winning run and give the Huskers their first conference win of the season.

But that wasn't all for Landgren as he relieved starter Bob Hergenrader in the fifth inning of the nightcap with an out after Hergie had issued two straight walks. Landgren got out of the jam by forcing Ron Brown to hit into an inning-ending double play.

The Huskers were leading at the time 2-0, but Colorado tied it up in the seventh to send the game into overtime.

Curt Johnson singled in the ninth after Dave May, pinch-hitting for Douglas, popped out. He stole second after Larry Borneschiegel fled to right.

With Landgren at the plate and Johnson on second, Coach Tony Sharpe sent Clayton Luther in to pinch hit for Landgren. After throwing one ball to Luther, Orr put him on intentionally.

Randy Harris then drew a base on balls to load the bases and Orr threw four straight balls to Joe Gaughan.

Husker Netters Lose To Wichita

Nebraska met more than its match in the Wheatshockers tennis team. The Wichita club won every match from Ed Higgenbotham's net squad to roll up a score of 7-0.

Ben Anzola (w) def. Dick Gibson 6-1, 6-4; Van Thompson (w) def. Rick Harley 10-6, 6-1; Phil Adrian (w) def. Ted Sankin, 6-0, 6-4; Chester Anderson (w) def. Dick Woods 6-4, 3-6; Lin Harris (w) def. Kille Johnson 6-4, 6-1.

Anzola-Anderson (w) def. Gibson-Harley 6-2, 6-1; Adrian-Thompson def. Sankin-Woods 6-1, 6-4.

HELLO? OH, HELLO, DOCTOR. NO, MY MOTHER ISN'T HOME.

OH, YES... MY ARM FEELS MUCH BETTER. DOES THIS MEAN I'M OVER MY "LITTLE LEAGUER'S ELBOW"? GOOD... WHAT'S THAT?

THE OTHER X-RAY? THE OTHER X-RAY THAT YOU TOOK SHOWS I'VE GOT...

I'VE GOT WHAT?

I'VE GOT WHAT?

I'VE GOT WHAT?

to force Johnson in with the winning run.

Saturday's long 11-inning contest saw Adrian Mohr shut out the Huskers on a no-hitter, as the Big Red used four pitchers to keep the Buffs blanked for ten innings.

In the top of the eleventh the Buffs bunched across four runs off Bob Hergenrader, the losing pitcher.

Mohr, pitched a very fast game, pausing very little between pitches, and mixing his tosses quite well, very rarely giving the Huskers a fat pitch.

He walked two and struck out seven. One man got to third after reaching base on an error and another reached second on a fielder's choice.

Colorado had banded out two doubles and a triple up to the eleventh, but not until then were they able to muster a tally when Catcher Rob Bennett opened the inning with a single to left.

This rattled Hergenrader who walked the next two men and then yielded a single to Tom Dutcher for two runs. In the bottom of the inning Mohr had little difficulty in putting the Huskers down to complete the no-hitter.

Nebraska now stands at 2-10 in the conference and Colorado is 5-7. The Huskers travel to Kansas State next weekend for another three game series.

SIDELINERS WATCH SCRIMMAGE — Husker footballers wait their turn to go into the scrimmage held last Saturday. The Red team has the ball at this point in the game.

Devaney Dissatisfied; Whites Defeat Reds

The Husker football team will undoubtedly be working long and hard this week in preparation for the final scrimmage if they expect to improve over last Saturday's showing.

Coach Devaney termed the scrimmage "the most disappointing day we've had," after the Whites beat the Reds 32-12. "There was very little out there today that was encouraging," he said.

He did admit that Bob Churchich had done a good job running his backfield behind the first team line. The freshman from Omaha threw touchdown passes to Ends Chuck Doepke and Ron Kirkland to set the scoring pace for the Whites.

Devaney followed through with his plan to hold another scrimmage Sunday to work the units which did not see much action in Saturday's tilt. Churchich quarterbacked a team made up of Ron Kirkland and Harry Wilson at halfbacks, Pete Tatman at fullback plus the No. 1 varsity line.

This was the unit that scored three of the four White touchdowns. The fourth White tally came on a pass from Doug Tucker to Ron Poggemeyer that covered 23 yards.

Tucker's unit was composed of the second varsity backfield with the No. 2 freshman line. Duda headed a team consisting of the No. 1 varsity backfield with the No. 1 freshman line. Wayne Weber, Hastings freshman was in charge of the second backfield with the No. 2 varsity line.

HEADLEY "BREEZES" — Husker Lynn Headley (far right) literally breezed to a .09.4 clocking in the 100-yard dash as a strong wind blew at his back. The time was a new record but had to be disallowed due to the wind. Kent McCloughan is shown finishing second for Nebraska.

Tracksters Slaughter Buffaloes; Records Blitzed By Breezes

The Huskers came back to avenge their only dual loss of the indoor campaign as they beat the Colorado Buffaloes 82 1/2-62 1/2 on the Memorial Stadium track Saturday afternoon.

Several meet records were set but disallowed because of a strong wind which blew from the south throughout the afternoon.

However, Jack Cramer's high jump record was good as the Husker soared 6-5 1/4 to better the former meet record of 6-4 set way back in 1947 by Colorado's Harold McAfferty.

Sophomore Lynn Headley hurried through the 100-yard dash in :09.4 time but the wind was at his back and the record will remain at :09.6 which Keith Gardner of Nebraska set in 1958.

The wind also robbed Victor Brooks of a record as he leaped 49-10 in the triple jump. This mark would have bettered his own varsity record. Brooks had a good day as he also went 24-1 in the broad jump for a first place effort.

Big Kent McCloughan raced to :21.3 first place clocking in the 220 yard dash. The Nebraskan, who is a football halfback in the fall, was nearly the victim of an injury by an errant javelin. A shouted warning gave McCloughan enough time to jump out of the way. McCloughan placed second in the century.

The three-mile run saw Husker Larry Toothaker stride out the last 220 yards to handily beat CU's Mike McCoy. The junior distance man hung back, letting the Colorado runners set the pace until the almost end. Toothaker's time was 15:03.2.

Winning the pole vault was Nebraska's Juris Jesifers. He went 13-6 as did the Buffaloes' Bill Grimes, but Jesifers had fewer misses at the height.

Dave Crook gave the Nebraskans another first in the 440 yard dash. Crook breezed to a :47.9 time with apparently little effort. Behind him for second place was Husker Dick Strand.

By the final event, the mile relay, the Scarlet and Cream were far enough ahead that Coach Frank Seignie elected not to run his best mile relay team which owns the second best time in the nation. The Coloradoans took the mile relay in a time of 3:16.6 for a new meet record.

The Huskers also came out on the short end of the 440 relay although anchor man McCloughan gave it all he could in trying to overtake the Colorado man on the last leg. The time was :41.

Two Nebraska freshmen events were run during the meet. Ray Harvey won the 120-yard high in :14.6 and Charles Greene took the 220 in :21.4.

Track Events
440 relay—1. Colorado (Cheskin, Morton, Burns, Miller) 4:0 (new event)
1 mile—1. Dave Wighton, C; 2. Peter Scott, N; 3. Bill Sprout, C. T—4:18.7
