

PHOTO BY DeFRAIN

PHOTO BY DeFRAIN

DAY OF IVY HONORS — At left, Bill Buckley, president of Innocents, stands with his successor, John Lonquist, who was tackled at the Saturday ceremonies. Center, the four pages begin the Ivy Day procession. At right, Mortar Board president Maurene Frolik escorts newly tapped president Joan Skinner.

PHOTO BY DeFRAIN

Ivy Day

Cindy Tinan Continues May Queen Tradition

Royalty is the rule rather than the exception in the Fred Tinan home in Mitchell, South Dakota. Their daughter Suzanne (Sukey) was honored as May Queen at the University's 1962 Ivy Day ceremonies. Her sister Diane was tapped into Mortar Boards on the same day.

Another sister, Cindy, was crowned 1964 May Queen Saturday. The queenships came at such a rapid rate that the coronation of a fourth sister, Stephanie (Boogie) as May Queen of her high school in Mitchell, had to be postponed until the next week so the Tinans could attend Cindy's crowning.

Miss Tinan is a senior in Teachers College and has served as chairman of the Tassels homecoming committee, past member of the Associated Women Students (AWS) and Student Council. She was a 1962 Homecoming attendant and 1963 Nebraska Sweetheart. She was also scholarship chairman of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

Her maid of honor was Martha Ann Dubas. Miss Dubas is also a senior in Teachers College and has served as president of Pi Lambda Theta honorary, member of the Dean's Advisory Board, treasurer of Tassels and recording secretary, first vice president and pledge trainer of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority.

The queen and her attendant were selected by a vote of all junior and senior women.

Master of ceremonies was Dr. Donald Olson, associate professor of speech. Music was provided by the University band under the direction of Donald Lentz, conductor of the University band Rosella Lange was senior soloist.

Children in the court whose mothers are all Mortar Board alumnae were: Kit Wadlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wadlow; Janice Wishnow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Wishnow; and Steven Arndt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Arndt.

The 1964 court members were:

Freshmen Pages
Carolyn Freeman is a freshman in the College of Arts and Sciences, chairman of the Union Talks and Topics committee, a member of the All-University Fund publicity committee, member of Alpha Lambda Delta, and member of the activities committee of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Judy Trumble is a freshman in the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, member of Tassels and Alpha Lambda Delta. A member of Chi Omega sorority, she was one of four Nebraska 4-H Club members selected to attend the National 4-H Conference in Washington, D.C.

Jeanne Faus is a freshman in the College of Arts and Sciences. She is an assistant chairman of the All-University Fund, a Nebraska Union assistant chairman, and a member of Tassels. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

Betsy White is a freshman in the College of Arts and Sciences, Red Cross assistant chairman, assistant chairman of Builders and member of Alpha Lambda Delta. She has served as a Junior Panhellenic delegate for her sorority, Alpha Omicron Pi, and is a member of the group's scholarship board.

Sophomores
Patricia Teel is a sophomore in Teachers College, member of the Associated Women Students board, Angel Flight, and past assistant chairman of the All-University Fund. She is first vice president and standards board chairman of her sorority, Kappa Delta.

Barbara Beckman is a sophomore in Teachers College, managing editor of the Cornhusker yearbook, and All-University Fund chairman, member of Alpha Lambda Delta, and member of the executive board of her sorority, Delta Gamma.

Karen Johnson is a sophomore in home economics and Journalism, a chairman of All-University Fund, a Union chairman and was office manager for the Cornhusker yearbook. A 1963 Activities Queen finalist, she is public relations chairman of her sorority, Kappa Alpha Theta.

Janell Gearing, sophomore in home economics, is a member of Tassels junior board, vice president of the Home Economics board, and a Union assistant chairman. She is this year's "Miss Sadie Hawkins" and was named outstanding independent woman in 1963. She is a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority.

Cheryl Crozier is a sophomore in the College of Arts and Sciences, member of the Tassels junior board, a chairman in Builders, and assistant publicity chairman for the Quiz Bowl Committee. She is public relations chairman of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

Jean Holmquist, sophomore in Teachers College, is a chairman in Builders, member of Tassels junior board, and All-University Fund assistant chairman. She is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta honorary and activities chairman of Delta Gamma sorority.

Judy Bucklin, sophomore in the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, is treasurer of the Ag Union program council, a chairman in the People-to-People organization, member of the Home Economics Club and a finalist for Activities Queen. She was awarded Regents' and Grace Martin scholarships and is a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority.

Virginia Gustaf is a sophomore in the College of Arts and Sciences, an assistant chairman in Builders, publicity chairman of Quiz Bowl and a member of the Publications Board. She was awarded a Gold Key by the School of Journalism and is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta honorary. She is public relations chairman of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

Juniors
Mary Morrow, junior in Teachers College, is vice president of the Nebraska Union, secretary of Panhellenic, and a member of Tassels and Student Council. She also is a member of the Teachers College Advisory Board and is rush chairman of her sorority, Kappa Alpha Theta.

Martha Petersen, junior in the College of Arts and Sciences, is secretary of Builders and treasurer of Panhellenic. She is president of her sorority, Alpha Xi Delta.

Susan Ayres is a junior in Teachers College, vice president of the Associated Women Students Board, member of Student Council, and member of the executive board of Orpheus. She is standards board chairman of her sorority, Alpha Phi.

Ann Shuman, junior in the College of Arts and Sciences, is associate editor of the 1963 Cornhusker yearbook, and treasurer of her sorority, Alpha Phi. Bonnie Kusden is a junior in Teachers College, member of the Nebraska Union program council, member of the Associated Women Students senior board, and was this year's chairman of Good Willies. She was a finalist for 1963 Homecoming Queen and was honored as a page in the 1963 Ivy Day Court.

Peggy Bienen, a junior in Teachers College and the College of Arts and Sciences, is a member of the Union and social chairman of People-to-People and an area director on the Nebraska Union program council. She is president of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

Betty Wilson, a junior in Teachers College, is currently serving as president of Tassels and business manager of the Cornhusker yearbook. She was an attendant to the 1963 Homecoming Queen and served as rush chairman of her sorority, Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Seniors
Judy Keys, a senior in Teachers College, has served as vice president of YWCA, member of the Red Cross Board, Union Board and Orpheus. She was a finalist for honorary commandant and Cornhusker Beauty Queen. She is a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority.

Carol Lee Klein, a senior in Teachers College and was the 1963 Homecoming Queen. She is past president of the Independent Women Association, member of Angel Flight, and Alpha Lambda Delta and Pi Lambda Theta honoraries.

Marilyn Keyes, a senior in Teachers College, is secretary of Tassels, past chairman of YWCA, finalist for Ideal Nebraska Good in 1963, and past president of her sorority, Alpha Chi Omega.

Susan Pierce is a senior in Teachers College, dormitory counselor, and has served as vice president of Student Council. She is a past Nebraska Union chairman, member of Tassels, Women's Athletic Association board, and Spring Day executive board. She also has been activities chairman of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

Mary Alice Crabb, a senior in Teachers College and the College of Arts and Sciences, is past president of Aquanettes, and member of French Club, Tassels and Pi Lambda Theta, honorary. She is captain of her sorority, Kappa Alpha Theta.

Barbara Fricke, a senior in Teachers College, was a member of the Associated Women Students senior board, member of the Independent Women Association board, and was recognized as the outstanding junior independent woman. She was a finalist for the 1963 Spring Ball Queen and is a member of Towne Club.

Mary Sue Hinker, a senior in Teachers College, is a past chairman of All-University Fund, past Nebraska Union assistant chairman, was a finalist for 1962 and 1963 Nebraska Sweetheart. She is a member of Pi Lambda Theta honorary and past president of her sorority, Chi Omega.

Cecily Wald, a senior in the College of Arts and Sciences majoring in music, is a member of Mu Phi Epsilon. She played the lead role in the Union Production "Music Man" and has the title role in "Madame Butterfly." She is president of her sorority, Sigma Kappa.

Ivy Chain Leaders included: Patricia Hamilton, Shirley Numa, Jane Hobbs Peterson, Penny Purcell, Sue Vandecar and Charlotte Walker.

Ivy Chain Leaders were: Elaine Anderson, Carol Blech, Connie Hoy, Judy Johnson, Nancy White and Barbara Lawrence.

Sees Fun, Tradition

Lonquist President, Kauk Vice President, Barton Secretary, Thom Treasurer, Oye Sgt.-at-Arms, Swanstrom

Korff, Kittams, Schwenke, Brewster, Fick, Kort

Kerrey, Miss Skinner, Miss Holmquist, Miss Loescher, Miss King, Miss Nore

Miss Strateman, Miss Probasco, Miss McGuire, Miss Pandzik, Miss Benting, Miss Benda

Miss Kriz, Miss McDowell, Miss Walburn

Honorary Innocents: Dr. Olson and Dr. Hough.

MB's, Innocents Tap, Tackle New Members

Outgoing Innocents started a new tradition at the Ivy Day activities. In addition to the traditional bowing to the Queen before tackling the new members of Innocents, they not only began kissing the Queen but also kissing of all the new Mortar Board members. There is speculation to whether this will become part of the formal ceremony.

Innocents almost entered the Ivy Day sing when they paraded onto the field with the red-cloaked Sigma Alpha Epsilon group. Candidates for new Innocents who were singing in the various groups were somewhat unnerved from being surrounded by Innocents while they sang.

For a while some thought the Innocents were going to tackle girls and members of the Mortar Board. This feeling came about when they began following girls around instead of boys. Maybe they were only trying to get dates.

The Innocents received tips on their tackling techniques this year from the Cornhusker football team. The new Innocents are still recovering from the bruises incurred by the old members of the society resulting from this intensive practice.

John Lonquist Jr. was revealed as the new president of Innocents Society.

Joan Skinner of Wisner, a junior in the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, was revealed Saturday as the new president of Black Masque Chapter of Mortar Board.

In addition to the 12 other new Innocents, two honorary members were named. They are:

—Dr. Donald Olson, associate professor of speech at the University, who has coached the University debate squad for 18 years. Dr. Olson is advisor to Delta Sigma Rho, Tau Kappa Alpha honorary, was coach of the G.E. College Quiz Bowl Team in 1961 and received the Outstanding Nebraskan Award in 1954 and the Cornhusker yearbook award in 1961.

—Dr. Robert Hough, associate professor of English who was faculty advisor of Scrip, student literary publication. He is a member of the faculty subcommittee on Student Publications, Student Council advisor, past outstanding Nebraskan award winner and the author of a number of scholarly articles and critical works.

The new society president, Lonquist, is a junior in the College of Arts and Sciences, he is president of the All-University Fund, chairman of the Interfraternity Council Expansion committee, was named outstanding collegiate man, a Prince Kosmet finalist, a DAILY NEBRASKAN columnist and president of Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

Other new officers are: Doyle Kauk, vice president. A junior in the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, he is president of Corn Cobs, chairman of the Interfraternity Council's Fraternity Managers' Association, president of Ag Economics Club, holds a Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben scholarship, and is vice president of Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity.

Michael Barton, secretary. A junior in Teachers College, he is Student Council public relations chairman, member of the Interfraternity Council's Rush and Expansion committees, holds a LaVern P. Noyes scholarship, and is recording secretary of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

Douglas Thom, treasurer. A junior in Teachers College, he is corresponding secretary of Student Council, past

Cont. On Page 5

Palm Beach® knows no age limit—is equally partial to father and son—handsome examples: sports jackets in new plaids of Dacron® polyester and cotton.

Galey & Lord

1407 BROADWAY, NEW YORK 18, N. Y.
A Division of Burlington Industries

GROUP T.M.