

—Students Favor Morrison—

Poll Gives Johnson 52%

By Mick Rood
Senior Staff Writer

University students gave President Lyndon Johnson 52 percent of the votes in a poll taken last weekend while Governor Frank Morrison furthered the Democratic trend by carrying an 81 percent margin in that race.

Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, who appears to have a growing support from University students, gained two-thirds of the Republican vote. Pennsylvania Governor William Scranton ran second to Lodge and Sen. Barry Goldwater and New York Governor Nelson Rockefeller managed only 5 percent of the Republican vote.

At least 10 percent of Johnson's vote came from Republicans crossing party lines. Jerry Anderson put it this way, "Due to the lack of Republican candidates, Johnson gets my vote."

Jim Moore, a "sometimes Republican" said "Johnson would get votes because he knows Washington while Lodge, Goldwater and Scranton don't." Lodge supporters cited his United Nations performance as the main reason for their support. His defense of United States policy against Russian accusations, especially during the U-2 incident were often referred to.

Many of the polled voters first said, "anyone but Goldwater" in answer to the Presidential race. A recent POST Magazine article revealing alleged ambiguities in the Senator's statements and the assassination of President Kennedy were the strongest reasons given against Goldwater's nomination.

Eta Kappa Nu Elects Twelve New Members

The new members are Gilbert Brown, Theron, Carlson, Stephen Davis, Roger Giggins, Roger Holling, Bernard Johnson, Ronald Klein, Robert Lott, Brian Peterson, Donald Peterson, Norman Prigge and Monwell Westphal. Tri Deltas Give Grants

For the twenty-first year Tri Delta has awarded two $132 scholarships. This year these awards went to Carol Hall and Karen Woodward, Delta Delta Delta.

Miss Hall is a sophomore from Falls City majoring in French.

Miss Woodward is a junior from Lincoln also majoring in French.

These scholarship awards were based on leadership ability, service to the university campus, and scholarship.

"Goldwater offers more state rights and individualism," to citizens said Bob Curry, who did vote for the Arizona Senator.

Attorney General Robert Kennedy was the students' favorite second half of the Democratic ticket. Kennedy received nearly half of the votes tallied while United Nations Ambassador Adlai Stevenson ran second. Many figured that Kennedy "won't get along with Johnson" but saw his candidacy because of his brother's image impact on the Democratic party.

Glori Houser sees the Democratic Convention as a "long, drawn-out memorandum to former President Kennedy."

Other Vice Presidential candidates receiving votes were majority leader Hubert Humphrey, Peace Corp head Sargeant Shriver, Secretary of Defense, Robert McNamara, Senator Stuart Symington and one vote for Governor Morrison.

Many students voiced little interest in the Nebraska races or little knowledge of them. Only about half "cast a vote" in the Lt. Governor race. Democrat Phillip Sorenson garnered over half the votes while Republican Charles Thone had about one fourth of the votes.
