Broadcasters Aid High School Grads

Six freshman broadcast scholarships, with a total value of more than $1500, will be available at the University's School of Journalism for qualified 1965 Nebraska high school graduates.

The new broadcast scholarship program was announced jointly in June by A. James Ebel, Lincoln, president of the Nebraska Broadcasters Association, and Dr. William Hall, director of the School of Journalism.

More than $1,000 already has been subscribed toward that goal by 15 member stations of the Nebraska Broadcasters Association. The scholarships will be administered by Robert Spearman of the Journalism School's radio-television faculty through the University of Nebraska Foundation.

"Our goal in broadcasting, as with our advertising and news-editorial programs, will be to offer a program of instruction that will compare favorably with any in the nation," Hall said. "This scholarship aid from Nebraska's broadcasters will help us to attract the caliber of student required to develop such a program."

Responsibility for building the University's program in broadcast education was transferred to the School of Journalism in the fall of 1963. Broadcast staff members include Spearman, a former Nebraska broadcaster and more recently a news producer with Station KPIX-TV, San Francisco; Albert Book, a former New York advertising agency executive, and Dr. M. Scheffel Pierce, whose experience includes 15 years of teaching.

Stations to date participating in the scholarship program include:

KOLN-TV, Lincoln; KGIN-TV, Grand Island; a $250 grant for a student resident within the coverage area of these two stations. KOLN-TV also sponsors a $250 grant for a junior or senior broadcast journalism major.

The Stuart Broadcasting Company, owners of KFQR, Lincoln; KRGI, Grand Island, and KMNS, Sioux City; $264 scholarship for a student residing within the coverage area of these stations.

The Beef Empire Stations, owners of WJAG, Norfolk; KHUB, Fremont; KNEB-AM-FM, Scottsbluff; KTNC, Falls City; KSID, Sidney; KCON, Broken Bow; KNCY, Nebraska City; and KOLT, Scottsbluff.

Other contributors include: KRVN-AM-FM, Lexington; KHUB, Fremont; KNEB-AM-FM, Scottsbluff; KTNC, Falls City; KSID, Sidney; KCON, Broken Bow; KNCY, Nebraska City; and KOLT, Scottsbluff.

Ceramics Show Tomorrow

A ceramics show by Angelo C. Garzio of Manhattan, Kan. opens tomorrow in the Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery.

Garzio, a native of Italy, is associate professor of art at Kansas State University. His work is included in the F.M. Hall Collection at the Sheldon Gallery, according to Norman Geske, director.

His work has been exhibited at the Brussels World's Fair, the Second International Ceramic Exhibition at Ostend, Belgium, the U.S. Information Service Ceramic Traveling Exhibition in Europe, and the first international Congress of Craftsmen in New York City earlier this year.

Garzio holds degrees from Syracuse University and the State University of Iowa and did graduate work at the University of Florence, Italy. He served as an artist-potter at the Arabia Pottery Co., Helsinki, Finland; received a West German research grant to study salt glazing techniques and was a Fulbright lecturer in ceramic design at the College of Arts, Lahore, Pakistan.
