Chancellor's Week

Editor's note:
"Chancellor's Week" is a new weekly feature designed to inform students of their chancellor's activities. It will be printed every Friday and contain a summary of the activities of the past week.

This week Chancellor Clifford Hardin attended the fifth in a series of informal Board of Regents Seminars which are designed to inform citizens and help them better understand the educational program of the University.

After the Seminar Hardin flew to San Francisco to attend a meeting of the American Council of Education. He is a member of the Board. The chancellor was accompanied by Vice-Chancellors Roy Holly and Adam Breckenridge and State Sen. Marvin Stromer.

AUF Fall Drive, AUFul Night Set

The All University Fund's (AUF) annual fall student drive will be held Nov. 2-21.

Of the ten non-profit organizations appearing on the AUF poll, five will be chosen to benefit from collections.

Students will vote in a student poll Monday through Wednesday for the five charities to which they would like to contribute.

The ten charities appearing on the student poll are: International — Orphan's Foundation Fund, Inc. (Holt), Thomas Dooley Foundation, Inc., American Medical Center for Burma.

National — United Cerebral Palsy Assoc., Inc., National Multiple Sclerosis, Inc., March of Dimes; state — American Cancer Society of Nebraska, Nebraska Heart Association.

Local — Lancaster School for Retarded Children (LARC), and the University of Nebraska Speech and Hearing Clinic.

The third annual "AUFul Night", a highlight of the drive, will be held November 13.
