PHOTO BY RICH EISER

the questions. A Honda rider had to come without her

Various comments were dent Union, where a large crowd had gathered. The pushed through the crowd

Janelle Quaring, Tassels

Raily chairman served as audience was reminded to fied."

at the Union.

vote Wednesday.

heard as the girls appeared: Halls.

the Carillon Tower and each sociation for Men.

Another contestant Kappa Gamma;

"The early bird gets the worm, but you've got to get up pretty early to beat the Cornhuskers!" Connie says. Although she was not elected "Miss Gamecock Stomper," at Friday's pep rally, Connie Beal, representing Alpha Chi Omega sorority, stomped out plenty of inspiration for the Huskers to follow Saturday in really stomping Game-

Suzy Bornemeier Stomps To Win

By Marilyn Hoegemeyer

The girl who was "a cleat Honda. from a Husker's feet," Suzy brought barrel and hose Epsilon-Alpha Delta Pi; Sig- ner, Taffy Bloomgren, Carol Pi, was chosen Miss Game- the black and red game- Phi Epsilon-Kappa Alpha The- son, Rae Carter, JoAnn Chriscock Stomper at the Friday cocks. night pep rally.

a white feather tail and game-cock legs dangling at the sides, gave her reason for betting and the sides of Suzy, dressed in white with betting on the red and white stomp she had," and "Ah, gamecock: "Stomp, stom p, stomp is our cry, "We'll see the gamecocks die!" don't stop now." house was picked up and led Towne Club will have a dis-to the south steps of the Stu-play in Magee's window at

The five finalists selected by J. Winston Martin, associate dean of Student Affairs Doyle Kaule, Corn Cob president, and Don Theopolius, yell king, were: Gayle Bozarth, Zeta Tau Alpha; Sue Devereux, Kappa Alpha Theta; Nancy Biere, Gamme Phi Beta; Peggy Blue, Alpha Phi; and Suzy Bornemeier.

The finalists were chosen for their costume, 15 per cent, audience appeal, 5 per cent, and their answer to the question, "Why would you bet on the red and white rather than the black and red gamecock," 10 per cent.

Costumes ranged from red, white orange and yellow feathered gamecocks to several gambling types to a red and white pomporn ("red and white shakes 'em up, Baby!). One of the contestants excused herself while s he hatched, then proceeded with

Kerrey Causes Council Change

The time for Student Council meetings has been changed from 3:30 p.m. Wednesdays to 4 p.m.

The reason for the change, according to JoAnne Strateman. counch is a class connect for Bob Kerrey.

Kerrey, who has a required lab until 4:30 on Wednesdays, is a senior hold-over and elections chairman. Miss Strateman pointed out that Kerrey is important to the council, and asked that the council change its meeting time so Kerrey would not miss so much of each meeting.

Quiz Bowl Blanks Due 5 p.m. Tuesday

Applications for Quiz Bowl must be turned in to the Student Council office by 5 p.m. tomorrow

Application blanks may be obtained from the Student Council office, dorm counsellors, or house presidents.

Daily Mebraskan

Vol. 78, No. 2 13

The Daily Nebraskan

Monday, October 12, 1964

Computer Tabulates Ballots

Results of voting in the homecoming elections will be machine tabulated by IBM machines this year.

The Lincoln Tabulation Cenup the ballots throughout the dent population. day for faster tabulation. At the end of the day when voting ends at 5:30 p.m., the leaders around the state. the center for tabulation.

"We will be able to know the results sooner, and we will be sure the results are absolutely correct," Linda Muff, Tassels Homecoming queen election chairman, em-

Voting booths will also be used, as the lines move fast-

Because the plastic identificaton cards are being used this semester, they will be marked with a red pencil instead of being punched.

coming display competition

In the joint division are: Alpha Gamma-Rho-Alpha

Alpha; Delta Tau Delta-Kap-

Farmhouse-Alpha Xe Delta;

In the divison of men's or-

Sigma Alpha Mu; Delta Sig-

Corn Cobs and band members on the basis of originalty, at row, Wesley Musser, Joan Mc-general relationship to the

According to Swanstrom, dates were introduced and the will be immediately disquali- Ross, Theodore Suhr, Carol

All displays must be com-

ganized houses are:

12th and O Streets.

Homecoming theme,

Kappa Sigma-Delta Gamma;

-To Meet Growth Needs -Regents Plan Bond Sale

The Board met in Omaha last votes will be taken to While there, they toured the College of Medicine campus.

A preliminary offering cir- enrollments. cular calling for proposals to purchase $15,990,000 in bonds will be distributed later this er limiting enrollments on the ceived on a competitive basis from investment bankers in mid-November and will be acted upon by the Regents at that time.

the new bonds will be used to retire all outstanding indebtedness relating to dormi-

The route for the display follow 16th to Vine Street, where it will go to 14th.

Associate members of the Student Council were selected from approximately 200 appli-

Those who were selected are to meet with the Student son, Jan Binger, Kristin Bitt-

Jay Lefko, Candy May, Gary

Miller, John Miller, Rich Mil-

Laura Olenberger, Tom Phil-

Homecoming Queen candi- than the $200 or $300 limits Pfeifer, Ron Psota, Jane Young Democrats (YD's) to to Mr. Callan and to his cam-

Drake and John Dzerk.

Display Groups Set

For Homecoming

The entrants in the Home- from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m.

have been announced, accord- parade, will start at 17th and ing to Dennis Swanstrom, In- R, follow R to 14th, then go nocents Homecoming Chair- down S Street to 16th. It will

Chi Omega; Alpha Tau Student Council Omega-Alpha Phi; Beta Theta Pi-Pi Beta Phi; Burr-West-Burr-East; Chi Phi-Zeta Tau Delta Upsilon-Gamma Phi cants during interviews Fri-Beta; Ag Men-Fedde Hall; day, Saturday, and Sunday.

Phi Gamma Delta-Kappa lows Janie Agee, Judy Apperday took the first step toward ducing student facilities on cilities and accelerating fu- authorizing additional parity ter, with whom the Universi- ture construction to meet the bonds which will enable the ty has a contract, will pick needs of an expanding stu- Board to satisfy the acceler-Soshnik, vice-chancellor for business and finance.

the possibility of restricting

Val Peterson asked whethmonth. Proposals will be re- basis of quality would save the taxpayers' money and improve the University.

Richard Adkins said that "the first thing you would do is take a crack at rural Ne-braska." He pointed out that Proceeds from the sale of classrooms could be made of church basements if neces-

He added that there must site for the proposed build-be some provisions made for ing for the College of Dentistated demand for additional the students not admitted, rv. facilities." said Dr. Joseph "Because if a quality factor is put in, you will eliminate a considerable number of stu-The Regents also discussed ing college work."

in eliminating the "drones" en by the 1961 legislature to who are a "detriment to tax- sell 20 acres.

He continued, "I want the replied: "It is."

The Board of Regents Fri- tories and other revenue-pro- University than ever before, the East Campus. It was felt He specifically pointed out that the term East Campus that only 150 freshman stu-would better describe the day took the first step toward queing student that only 150 freshman stuproviding more flexibility in the campuses.

that only 150 freshman stuprovided as poor campus which now includes the Nebraska Center for Control of the N tinuing Education and is the > Authorized the sale of approximately 3.6 acres of the South Farm at Genoa. This represents the remaining ac-Peterson said his interest is reage of an authorization giv-

Approved a supplemental agreement to the Peace Corps Colombia contract to provide academic institution in the in educational television. Jack University to be the toughest for training eight volunteers Brown, project coordinator, said the volunteers will assist Regent Clarence Swanson Colombian teachers in making more efficient use of edu-In other actions, the Re- cational television programs.

Last year 18 Americans and 16 Colombians trained as ETV Chancellor Clifford Hardin noted that fewer unqualified college of Agriculture and students are coming to the Home Economics campus to University.

PHOTO BY RICH EISER Sportsorama display . . . shows Cornhusker Athletic past.

Phi Delta Theta-Delta Delta Council at 4 p.m. Wednesday. Those selected are as follows Janie Ages Judy Apper-

A quick look into the past | in each of the sports is on dis- | particular year of the past, now on display in the main lobby of the Student Union.

ta; Theta Xi-Alpha Omicron tiansen, Tom Cunningham, Pi and Women's Residence Sue Devereux, Susie Diffen-The Cornhusker Sportsoderfer, John Drodow, Ben rama will be on display all Donna Edwards, Ann Evans, brief history of all the sports ma Phi; Acacia; Beta Sigma Sandy Foss, John Fryar, Lynn in which the University com-Psi; Sigma Chi; Alpha Gam- Grosscup, Barry Hansen, Dan petes. The rally started at ma Sigma and Residence As- Iseman, Bruce Jensen, Jim ociation for Men.

Towne Club will have a disKunyarn, Vic Kuklin, Jana Kmamerlahr, Carol Logmann, It contains pictures dating coming football game. back to 1912 of events relata trophy which has been won honor Husker sports in one

Santek, Marcia Sims, Candy Sasso, Richard Schulz, Anne tion of Clair Callan to Conthe privilege and honor of this

YD Head Resigns To Boost Callan

The YD Central Committee of remaining a student."

Bornemeier, Alpha Omicron ready to wet the feathers of ma Nu-Chi Omega; Sigma Boyd, Bill Cannon, Paul Carl- of Cornhusker athletics is play, including last year's Miss Crosier said. Orange Bowl tropy.

This is the first Sportsorama, but it is hoped that it this week. Sponsored by Tas- will become an annual dis- ture is one of the 1912 Uni-Other are: Bruce Eickhoff, sels, the Sportsorama gives a play. According to Cheryl versity Crosier, chairman of the disbe presented each year during the week preceding the Home-

> In the future, the display ing to the sports. In addition, will probably be geared to

> > Callan is running against Beermann for the seat in the

"I felt it was my responsibility to get the organization

(YD's) off to a good start

this year," Miss Nelsen said, day's) Eexecutive Council

still be working in an advisory

As her last official act, Miss

Nelsen released a list of officers appointed and confirmed by the executive com-

YD officers are Bob Cherny,

Jim DeMars, Dan Goodman

and Bob Haws, Central Committee: Steve Davis, assistant to the president; Jim DeMars, coordinator of committees;

Sam Thomas, recording secretary: Sabra McCall, corres-

bership chairman; Lynn Me-

Cown, program chairman;

jects chairman; Dr. Steve

Ross, faculty adviser and Dr.

Jeffrey, treasurer.

adviser.

been accomplished."

capacity," she said.

House of Representatives.

There are several items of special interest in this year's Sportsorama. The oldest picbasketball te a m, which was champion of the play, the Sportsorama will Missouri Valley. A tennis racket used by the team of 1900 with the titles won by the team carved into it is also present.

> The Orange Bowl and Gotham Bowl trophies highlight the football section of the dis-

In conjunction with the Karen Nelsen this weekend | Announcing her resignation display, pictures of all the lips, Tom Pickering, Bob Pet- announced her resignation as with "deep regret," Miss Nel-Homecoming Queen candi-Mistress of Ceremonies. The "Those displays costing more erson, Connie Peterson, Ron president of the University sen said "I feel my obligation dates are also present.

devote her efforts to the elec- paign for Congress outweights Council To Study As the judges made their pleted by 6:30 p.m. Friday Tudor, Michael Wagner, Gary gress from the First District. office and the responsibilities Daily Nebraskan

The Student Council student opinion poll concerning the Republican incumbent Ralph financial situation of the Daily Nebraskan will be held in conjunction with the Homecoming election on Wednesday.

Four choices will be offered to the students.

1. Would you favor a fifty cent increase in your tuition and after yesterday's (Thurs- to aid the paper?

According to Mike Jeffrey, meeting, I feel this goal has Daily Nebraskan business manager, this alternative would allow the Daily Nebras-Miss Nelsen is also First kan to further increase circu-District YD Committeewom- lation to all undergraduates. an, "In that position I will This would be possible because the paper would have more income with which to work, Jeffrey said.)

2. Would you favor reducing the number of papers printed each week from four to three?

(This would, according to Jeffrey, cut down printing costs and give the Daily Nebraskan more money to work with.)

3. Would you favor having only half as many papers printed daily?

(This alternative would entail cutting the number back from 8,500 to about 3,300. ponding secretary and Mike Jeffrey said this would allow the Daily Nebraskan to hold Dan Goodman, fund raising printing expenses down and chairman; Tom Booth, mem- continue to operate at the same rate of income.)

4. Would you favor doing away with a University news-Bob Haws, publicity chair-man; Bob Cherny, special pro-paper?

(To this alternative, Jeffrey said, "It is hard for me David Trask, second faculty to conceive of the University without a school paper.")

Can Can.' Mum's The Word-Buy 'em Here

decision the band played and must be in operation from Walgren, Gary Watzke, Erma The YD Central Committee "Days of Glory" and "The 6:30 until 10 p.m. They should Winterer, and Pam Wood are will choose a replacement

All entries will be judged ler, Wayne Molis, Sally Mortractiveness, construction and Clymont, Bruce McMullen and

Carol Nelson.

be in operation on Saturday also new associate members. | Wednesday.

Selling Homecoming Mums are smiling Mortar Boards Betsy Nore, Lynette Loescher, and Roberta Kriz. The senior woman's honorary sells the flowers annually to finance its scholarship program. More than 2,800 wives, sisters, and sweethearts are expected to wear the mums Saturday for the Homecoming game against Kansas State University and the Homecoming dance afterward. Price is $1 each.