Antulov Wins Headliner

Husker pivotman Bob Antulov has been selected as Husker Headliner for his superb performances in the first four contests this season.

The 6'7" New York City native has shown scoring punch, rebounding prowess, and desire. These three assets have made him an invaluable asset to the team, and have enabled him to lead the Nebraska squad to three wins out of four tries.

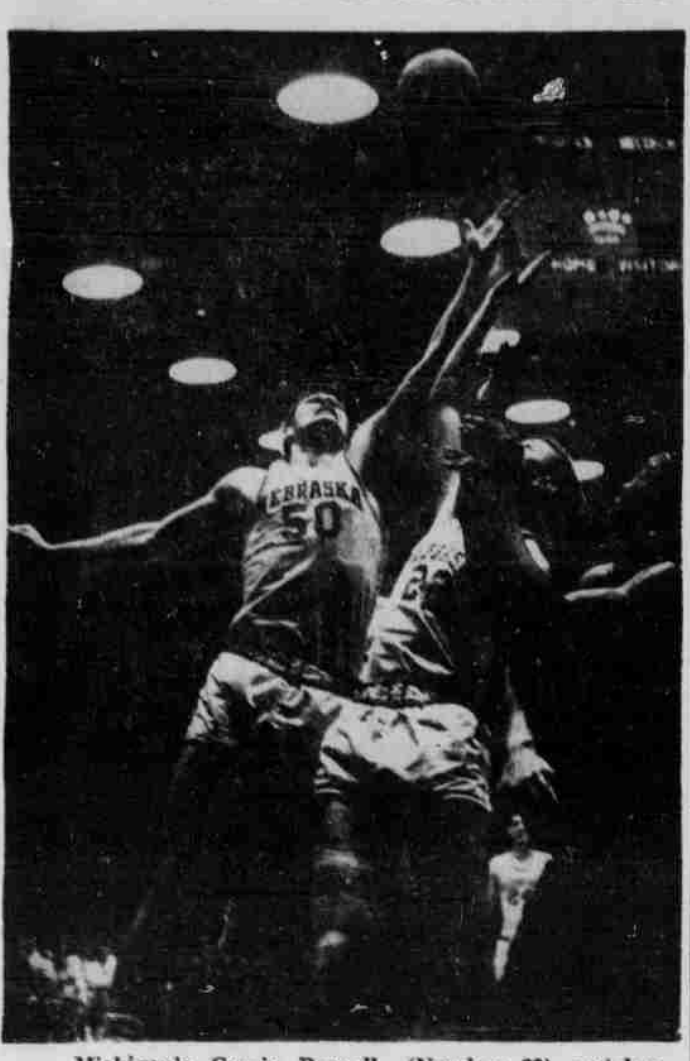

Antulov has hit on twenty-six shots in only forty-one tries for a shooting mark of 63 per cent—not bad in any language by anyone, but the fact that this feat was attained by a Nebraska center makes it all the more impressive. It's no secret that the Cornhuskers have had center problems for years.

Big Bob has been scoring at a 16.25 points-per-game clip and has garnered forty-three rebounds to lead the team.

Anyone who witnessed the play of Antulov during the 74-73 victory over Michigan can attest to just how valuable he was to the team.

Along with Coley Webb and Fred Hare, Antulov did what SPORTS ILLUSTRATED Magazine had said no teams all year would do—out-rebound Michigan.

The trio of Webb, Hare and Antulov garnered thirty-two rebounds which is only five less than the entire Michigan team. Grant Simmons should be accredited with a good deal of praise when it came to rebounding, for although he only grabbed two rebounds himself, Michigan's great Cazzie Russell got only five.

It was Simmons who kept forcing Russell to the outside away from the boards which was one of the decisive factors in the great win.

Antulov has gained much confidence since last year, and no one in the Big Eight is going to push him very far this year.

If Antulov can keep up the pace he has set for himself thus far in the early season, the Huskers could be a definite contender for the first division, and in the process, even the highest rungs of the Big Eight ladder should feel some reverberations as Big Bob carries his team upward.

Forty Gridders Letter

Nebraska football coach Bob Devaney Saturday announced 40 members of his Cotton-Bowl-bound Big Eight champions will receive varsity letters.

Seven Cornhuskers earned a third letter—All-America tackle Larry Kramer, guard John Dervin, center Lyle Sittler, halfbacks Kent McCloughan and Willie Paschall, quarterback Doug Tucker and fullback Bruce Smith.

Fourteen of those who will receive letters are seniors. Of the 26 lettermen who will return, 11 will be shooting for their third letter.

Following are the 1964 lettermen by position:

Ends—Freeman White, Bill Haug, Mike Grace, John Koinzan, Tony Jeter, Langston Coleman, Chuck Doepke, Preston Love.

Tackles—Kramer, John Strohmeyer, Jim Brown, Dennis Carlson, Dick Zap, Gary Brichacek.

Guards—Dervin, Mike Kennedy, LaVerne Allers, Ron Griesse, Bernie McGinn, Lynn Senkbeil.

Centers—Sittler, Walt Barnes, Duncan Drum.

Quarterbacks—Fred Duda, Bob Churchich, Larry Wachholtz, Tucker.

Halfbacks—McCloughan, Bill Johnson, Ron Kirkland, Maynard Smidt, Bob Hohn, Ted Vactor, Harry Wilson, Kaye Karstens, Paschall.

Fullbacks—Frank Solich,

Joe McNulty, Smith, Pete Tatman.

Student Manager—Edward Johnson.

Coach John Melton announced that 50 members of the NU freshman squad will receive freshman letters.

The Cornhusker yearlings chalked up their third consecutive unbeaten season with a sweep of Kansas State and Iowa State.

Freshman letter winners, by position:

Ends—Don Delaney, Iowa City, Ia.; Ivan Zimmer, Hammond, Ind.; Dennis Richnaffsky, Clairton, Pa.; Tom Rudeno, Cleveland, Ohio.

IM Weight-Lifting Continues Tonight

The second day of intra-mural weight-lifting begins at 7 p.m. tonight in the Coliseum weight room.

The lifts to be contested are the bench press, squat, and dead lift. For further information, interested persons can contact their living unit intra-mural chairman.

Varsity Swimmers Top Frosh

Varsity swimmers were forced to the last event to rescue a 53-42 victory over the freshmen last Friday night.

"I figured this one might go all the way down to the wire," varsity captain Tom Chambers observed. "We knew they had some sure firsts, but since no one knew the opposing line-up until just before the meet we couldn't concentrate on any event."

Chambers and Mike Waldron were the coaches for the varsity and Bob Stern and Ken Glasser set up the frosh line-up. Coach Dick Klass remained on the sidelines to observe objectively as possible the mettle of his two teams under fire.

Several weak points showed up for the varsity as the frosh's Rich Gordon won both the 50 and 100-yard freestyle. The freshmen also placed first and second in the 500-yard freestyle.

However these weak points will reverse their position in a year when the yearlings move up to the varsity.

This plus the fact that last year's record-setter Keeffe Ludwig is sitting this season out with one more year of eligibility left could bring a winning team to Coach Klass in the near future.

400-yd. medley relay—1. Varsity (Frank, Burchill, Jackson, Steele), T—4:04.2.
200-yd. freestyle—1. Nickerson, Varsity; 2. Stern, Frosh; 3. Guth, Varsity, T—1:57.9.
500-yd. freestyle—1. Gordon, Frosh; 2. Gabrielson, Varsity; 3. Neebe, Varsity, T—25.5.
200-yd. individual medley—1. Glasser, Frosh; 2. Goetz, Frosh; 3. Chambers, Varsity, T—2:12.4.

Husker Statistics Finish Near Top

Nebraska's football team placed high in both offense and defense categories in the final listing by the NCAA statistical bureau Saturday.

The Huskers were sixth in total offense with an average of 348.5 yards a game. Tulsa was the leader with 461.8.

Nebraska also was sixth in place Syracuse. Oklahoma rushing offense with a 226.5 average, against 251 for first-was fifth at 227.6.

Nebraska's average give-up of 167 yards a game was second to Auburn in total defense. Auburn allowed 164.7 per game.

In forward pass defense, Nebraska was third at 66.5 a game, compared to 53.6 for Kent State and 64 for Florida.

I see where the UPI rates us seventeenth in the nation, mainly on the strength of our defeats of Michigan and Purdue.

Yes, I talked to Coach Cipriano today and laughingly mentioned that now he'd be favored in the rest of his games. Luckily I stopped him before he could get his hands on the razor blades.

You're kidding!!
Yes.

Seriously, I wonder if the game was an early season peak only to climaxed by premature press ratings.

That's always the danger of an early season upset. Everyone will probably be expecting too much of the Cornhuskers for the rest of the year.

Yes, I think we'll be lucky to finish in the first division of the Big Eight.

That's speaking realistically. Coach Cipriano is concerned over our ability to win away from home, and we have to win three or four away to make the first division.

Winning on the road will really show some hair for a young team like ours.

I know what you're trying to do. You want to change the subject to Fred Hare. Always punning. Do you think that the Michigan game will have a good or bad effect on him?

Offensively speaking that remains to be seen, but as far as his defense is concerned we'll just have to sit on it (d'fence, that is).

Does the almighty other-half of the sports desk have a prediction to make?
All right, Nebraska's ends will stop their vaunted outside game, and offensively we'll slaughter the hogs through the air. A wild and woolly 28-24, Nebraska. How about you?
No thanks, I'll pun(t).
