SPORTS

Cornhuskers Sign More Prep Stars

One of the most outstanding high school football stars in the nation has signed a letter of intent to attend the University of Nebraska next fall, Coach Devaney has announced.

Devaney said Nester (Buster) Yannon, 5-10½, 205-pound high school All American from Central Catholic High School in Steubenville, Ohio has signed with the Cornhuskers.

"We couldn't be happier," Coach Devaney said upon learning that Yannon had made his decision to attend Nebraska. "Buster is a fine boy and a great football player. We are elated that he has decided to become a Cornhusker football player, and gain his college education at the University of Nebraska."

Yannon carried the ball 212 times and averaged 8 yards per carry last fall. He also punted for a 35-yard average.

The husky Steubenville star made a host of honors during his senior campaign. Among them: Prep All America by New York Times, Prep All-American and Scholastic Magazine; Ohio All State by United Press International and Associated Press; honorary captain of the All Eastern Ohio District team; "Back of the Year" and the "Mr. Touchdown" award in Steubenville.

Yannon, in gaining "Back of the Year" honors in Ohio, followed in the footsteps of Harry Wilson, also a Steubenville product who now is starting for the Cornhuskers.

In selecting Nebraska, Yannon will also be joining three other Huskers, in addition to Wilson, who hail from the Steubenville area. They are center Steve Schaefer, full-back Bob Weinman and All Big 8 end Tony Jeter, who is from nearby Weirton, W. Va.

Yannon gained over 1,600 yards rushing last fall to eclipse the ground-gaining record set by Wilson in 1962.

The Cornhuskers this weekend added Sam Buda, 245-pound tackle from Creighton Prep, to the growing list of outstanding high school material from Nebraska who have signed letters of intent with the Huskers. The Huskers have now garnered all the Nebraska prep stars that they sought.

Wrestling Letters Presented To 7

Five sophomores, a junior and a senior have earned varsity wrestling letters for the 1964-65 season, first-year Coach Orval Borgialli announced this weekend.

All will return except 167-pound senior Ken Fox, who was awarded his third letter.

The Huskers wound up with a 5-11-1 dual record for the season and finished sixth in the Big Eight Conference Championships. LaVerne Allers, 191-pounder, was second in the meet and heavyweight Carel Smith placed third. Both are sophomores.

Allers also won a football letter as a guard on the 1964 Big Eight championship squad.

The lettermen: LaVerne Allers, soph., Davenport, Ia.; Rick Allgood, jr., Lincoln; Ben Barends, soph., Washington, N.J.; Ken Fox, sr., Lincoln; Dale Huff, soph., Fremont; Richie Kerr, soph., Washington, N.J.; Carel Smith, soph., Lincoln.

Sports Cancelled This Weekend

"Old man winter, that old man winter he jus . . ." The song may be mixed up, but then so is the weatherman.

Baseball, football, and picnicking succumbed to the winter-like weather again this weekend, but hopes for the "spring" activities are optimistically held by die-hard Nebraska sports fans.

Football practice should begin today, but Coach Tony Sharpe must feel the fates are against him as he looks outside and thinks about seven straight cancelled games with the Missouri Tigers invading this weekend.
