

Look Sharpe, Team!

By Lee Marshall

Where's that team that got smashed by Morningside last week? Or more appropriately, whence cometh this team that tripped national runner-up Missouri twice last weekend?

If it's possible to make a change of more than 180 degrees, then Tony Sharpe's batsmen did it against the Tigers not in one, but two brilliantly played games.

After hearing so much during the abbreviated, "spring training" season about the fabulous new pitching coming up from last year's freshman team and the maturation of last year's sophomores, and then seeing the Morningside fiasco I thought I had been the dupe of the ever optimistic propaganda of the press.

Taking the field against the peppy Iowa team, there were nine INDIVIDUAL Huskers who were either living on last year's press clippings or the absence of any clippings about Morningside. Lacking spirit, teamwork or whatever you want to call it, it was hard to conceive of a first division finish in the Big Eight as predicted by many sportswriters after those two games.

Then came the magic. "Merlin Sharpe said a few words to the team. The transformation was complete from individual hustle after foul pop-ups all the way down to the bench jockeys who did more than their share of riding. It was a team effort all the way and the whole squad should be proud of their work.

BUT, this brings to mind a similar victory registered by the basketball team earlier this year over top-rated Michigan. Going into the game as rather definite underdogs, a real team effort pulled it out. But the team record after that could hardly be said to have improved.

Overconfidence? Not necessarily, but it is awfully hard to get keyed up the very next weekend after such a triumph. This could just as easily be the situation for Sharpe's men as they take to the road for a series with Colorado this weekend.

Maybe Missouri isn't going to be so tough this year, but still there can't help but be a bit of cockiness . . . It doesn't win ball games.

Nebraska Baseball Goes To Colorado This Week Seeking More Loop Wins

Don't look for Nebraska to make any alterations in its baseball lineup for a three-game series at Colorado Friday and Saturday.

After the Huskers took two from defending Big Eight champion Missouri, there's just not much evidence to substantiate any switching around.

"We're not going to make any changes," Coach Tony Sharpe said. "We'll have the same pitching assignments, same batting order, same everything."

(That last "everything" presumably doesn't include his troops grooming the diamond. They did last Saturday morning after the MU series was abbreviated from three games to two by Friday rains.)

Thus Stan Bahnsen, who threw a two-hitter at the Tigers for a 4-0 victory, will handle the first game against the Buffs. The right-handed sophomore pitched brilliantly in his first assignment, getting out of the few distressing situations he was in with a senior's poise.

Bob Hergenrader, a lefty, will toss the nightcap. He gave up only four hits to Missouri in the 5-2 victory of the second game.

The only questionable item about the whole trip is Saturday's starter. Sharpe will choose Gary Neibauer, Mickey Zangari or Bob Stickels in Boulder. Neibauer and Stickels, both right-handed sophomores took the losses in Morningside's double victory Wednesday.

And Sharpe's untampered with lineup will read: 1. Frank Solich, rf; 2. Randy Harris, 2b; 3. Larry Bornschlegel, c; 4. Rich Brenning, lb; 5. Gary Tunnison, lf; 6. John Roux, ss; 7. Joe Gaughan, 3b; and 8. Curt Johnson, cf.

Colorado is 1-8 for the year after suffering a three-game setback at Kansas last weekend. The Buffs won only one of a six-game spin through Arizona in late March.

The Huskers stand in second place of the conference with an 2-0 conference record, 2-2 overall. Kansas is on top after the CU series.

Creighton Tennis Tests Huskers

Nebraska's tennis team continued the pace it began last week, by defeating Hastings College in Lincoln on Monday 5 to 2.

The Huskers copped the victory by winning four of five singles matches and one of the two doubles contests.

Ted Sanko opened the afternoon for Nebraska by defeating Chris Kersting of Hastings in consecutive sets, 6-0, 6-3.

Ray Yost then pulled off the only Hastings singles win by dumping Kile Johnson 6-3, 6-2.

Dean Beebe, Tom Tipton, and Bob Cochrane finished collecting the singles victories for Nebraska as they all took their duels in consecutive sets.

Tipton and Beebe captured the lone doubles win for Nebraska. The two Huskers disposed of Doug Usher and Terry Peterson, the two men they defeated in singles, in sets of 6-3, 6-3.

Today Nebraska goes after its third straight win and winds up its pre-vacation matches by journeying to Creighton University in Omaha.

During the spring break the Huskers will be toiling at Omaha University, Drake University, and then come home for Emporia State, and a three team meet in Lincoln on April 23 and 24 with Iowa State and Kansas State visiting.

Sophomore Scott Nelson, who was out of Monday's match due to illness, is expected to be ready for action today.

Phi Delta Theta Sweeps To Both IM Volleyball Crowns

Intramural football and softball resumes today, and intramurals director Joel Meier asked that all intramurals managers check the bulletin board in the P.E. Building daily. The schedules are tentative and subject to change.

Phi Delta Theta is All-University volleyball champion. The Phi Delt defeated Navy ROTC 15-7, 15-11, for the trophy.

The winners of the brackets of the tournament were: Phi Delta Theta, Alpha Gamma Rho, Benton, Navy ROTC, and Smith.

Navy ROTC was the independent champion. Phi Delta Theta made it a clean sweep taking the "B" league title, as well.

Sophomores Lead NU Golf Team

Off to its best start in years, Nebraska's golf team will visit other courses for the first time this season, starting with a dual at Creighton Thursday.

The golfers go on a four-match spring vacation swing. It starts Monday at Iowa State, then Washburn Tuesday, Kansas Wednesday and Kansas State Thursday.

On Friday of next week, Nebraska will host Oklahoma State, Kansas and Oklahoma at Lincoln's Holmes Park Golf Course.

NU started last weekend with three-dual victories—over South Dakota (15½-2½), Omaha U. (15-3) and Iowa State (11½-3½). To do it Coach Harry Good got plenty out of his sophomores, who accounted for nine match victories without defeat. Upperclassmen dropped the only three matches lost.

A MESSAGE TO ROTC COLLEGE MEN

IF YOU'VE GOT WHAT IT TAKES TO BE AN ARMY OFFICER, STAY IN THE ROTC

Being an Army officer is a challenge. Officers must be leaders . . . able to take responsibility . . . get important jobs done.

It isn't easy to win a commission as an Army officer. But if you are taking the Basic Course in ROTC you're well on your way—provided you can measure up to the high standards required for admission to the Advanced Course.

As a student in one of the 247 colleges and universities offering senior ROTC training, you are in a privileged group. There's no better way for any college man to get the training and skills needed to be an Army officer than through the on-campus program created specifically for that purpose—ROTC. Here you learn to be a leader . . . to develop the qualities that add a vital plus to your academic training . . . qualities that will pay off for the rest of your life in whatever career you choose to follow.

There are other advantages too. Pay, at the rate of $40 per month during the Advanced Course plus allowances for summer training and travel. Fellowship and social activity. The chance to work with modern Army equipment, and perhaps to qualify for Army flight training if it is offered at your school. And then gold bars and a commission as an Army officer.

Why not talk to your Professor of Military Science now. Let him know you're interested in signing up for the Advanced Course. Then if you are offered an opportunity to join, don't pass it up. It's the program that's best for you . . . and best for your country.

If you're good enough to be an Army officer, don't settle for less.
