

Miss Voss Miss Whitney

Miss Lester Miss Wood

Miss Holmquist Miss Cleveland

Miss Wild Miss Beckman

Miss Bucklin Miss Guenzel

Miss Coufal Miss Teel

Miss Dowling Miss Michel

Douglas To Speak Wednesday

Justice William Douglas of the U.S. Supreme Court will speak Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. in an all University convocation in the Coliseum.

William Douglas was born in Maine, Minn., Oct. 16, 1898, the son of a Home Missionary of the Presbyterian Church in the United States. He attended grade and high schools in Yakima, Washington, received his AB from Whitman College, Walla Walla, in 1920 and his LL.B. from Columbia Law School in N.Y. in 1925.

His honorary degrees are Whitman (1938), Wesleyan (1940), Washington & Jefferson (1942), William & Mary (1943), Rollins (1957), National University (1949), New School for Social Research (1952), University of Toledo (1956), Bucknell (1958), Dalhousie University (1958).

Justice Douglas was a member of the faculty of the Columbia Law School 1924-28, the Yale Law School 1928-36. From 1929-32 he conducted various studies of bankruptcy for William Donovan, U.S. Department of Commerce, Yale Institute of Human Relations and the National Commission on Law Observance and Enforcement. He was director of the Protective Committee Study, Securities & Exchange Commission, 1937-39.

Justice Douglas was nominated by President Roosevelt to be an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States and took his seat on April 17, 1939. He is the author of more than a dozen books and numerous magazine articles.

In 1918, Justice Douglas served as a private in the U.S. Army (SATC). He is a Presbyterian, a Mason, a member of the Royal Geographical Society of London.

Tears of joy, delighted screams, suspense, sunburn, the rain that held back until the end of the day—this was Ivy Day 1965.

There were many surprises, much pageantry and much beauty displayed throughout the entire day's ceremonies.

Twenty-seven juniors now know for sure, with no guessing and figuring of racing forms, that they are the new Mortar Boards and Innocents for 1965-66.

Shirley Voss of Norfolk, was revealed as the new president of the Black Masque Chapter of Mortar Board at the 76th annual Ivy Day.

Thirteen other coeds were masked as members of the senior women's honorary activity society. Selection is made on the basis of leadership, scholarship, and service to the University.

The other officers are: Vicki Dowling, Omaha, vice president; Jeanette Coufal, Seward, secretary; Patti Teel, Fort Collins, Colo., treasurer; and Barbara Beckman, Lincoln, historian.

The new members and their college activities are:

Miss Voss is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Voss of Norfolk, and is enrolled in the College of Arts and Sciences. She is past president of Alpha Lambda Delta and Little Sisters of Minerva, the 1963 Kosmet Klub Spring Show, a member of Madrigals, and was chairman of the All-University Fund. Miss Voss was a page in the 1963 Ivy Day Court. She is secretary of Student Council, president of Nebraska Union, secretary of the Union Board of Managers, and recording secretary of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

Vicki Dowling is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Dowling of Omaha and is enrolled in the College of Arts and Sciences. She is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, was a 1963 Ivy Day Page, Miss E-Week Finalist, and the 1963 Activities Queen. She was also a Union chairman, Associated Women Students Coed Follies chairman, and the 1965 Ideal Nebraska Coed. Miss Dowling is a member of Student Tribunal, Student Council Constitutional Convention, vice president of AWS, and President of Gamma Phi Beta sorority.

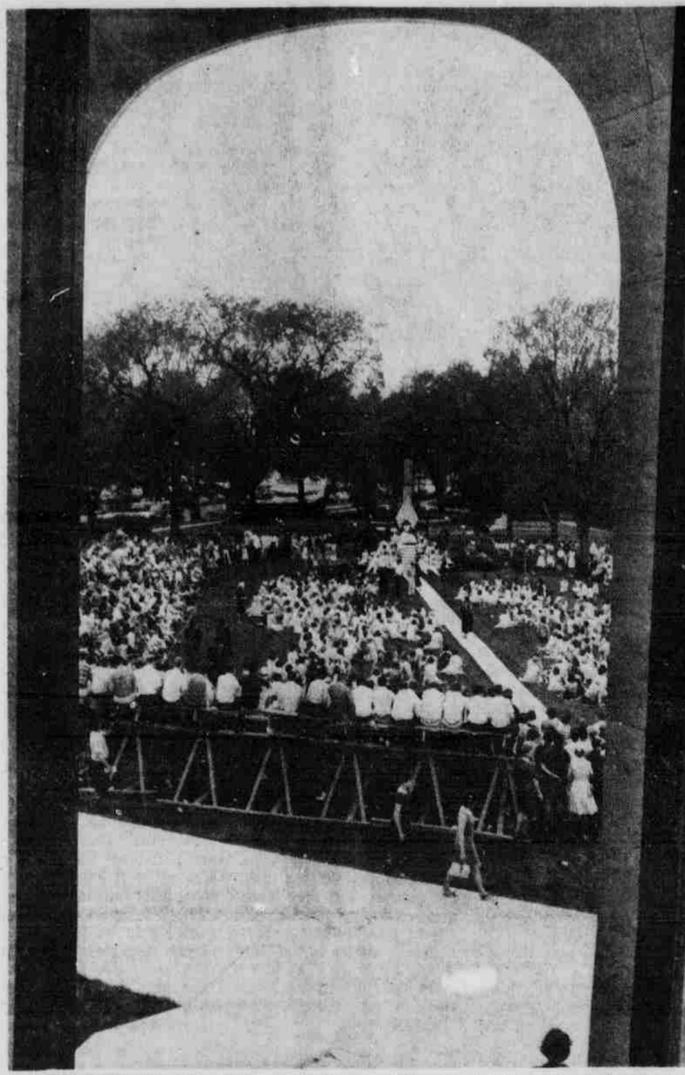

Jeanette Coufal is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Coufal of Seward and is a junior in the College of Agriculture and Home Economics. She is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, and was a 1963 Ivy Day Page. Miss Coufal also was a member of Phi Upsilon Omicron, Miss Block and Bridle, and National Shorthorn Lassie Queen. She is vice president of Chi Omega sorority, Ag Union president, and Builders vice president and was a 1964 Homecoming Queen attendant.

Patti Teel is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Teel of Fort Collins, Colo., and a junior in Teachers College. She is a past All-University Fund assistant, Angel Flight member, and was a member of the 1964 Ivy Day Court. Miss Teel is a member of Pi Lambda Theta, secretary of Associated Women Students, and president of Kappa Delta sorority.

Barbara Beckman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Beckman of Lincoln and is a junior in Teachers College. She is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, Pi Lambda Theta, was honored in the 1964 Ivy Day Court, and is serving as president of All-University Fund, managing editor of the Cornhusker yearbook and is recording secretary of Delta Gamma sorority.

Cuz Guenzel is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Guenzel of Lincoln and is a junior in

Continued on page 3

IVY DAY 1965—Framed by the majestic marble and bronze arch of Sheldon Art Gallery, the Mortar Boards stalk among prospective members as part of Saturday's Ivy Day ceremonies.

Governors To Discuss Politics As Profession

Kansas governor William Avery and Gov. Frank Morrison of Nebraska will speak on "Politics-An Honorable Profession" today at 10:30 a.m. in the Nebraska Union Ballroom.

There is no admission charge.

Avery, governor-elect of Kansas, is a Republican member of Congress, representing the Second Congressional District of Kansas. He received an A.B. degree from the University of Kansas in 1934.

During his tenure as a member of Congress, Avery has served on the Veterans Affairs Committee, the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee and the Rules Committee from which he resigned June, 1964. He presently serves on the Select Committee on Small Business and is ranking minority member of the Private Calendar Committee. Morrison was graduated from Kansas State University in 1927, receiving a B.S. degree. Upon graduation he entered the University of Nebraska College of Law at Lincoln, where he received his Bachelor of Laws degree in 1931.

During his career as a lawyer in McCook and in southwest Nebraska, he was active in the rural electrification movement and in soil and water conservation programs in the vast flood control, electrification and recreation development on the Republican River and its tributaries. He organized the first REA co-op in the state at Cambridge.

In 1955 he opened an office in Lincoln and became active in Lincoln Rotary Club and served on the Agricultural Committee of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce. He was engaged in the active trial practice at the time he was elected governor in 1960. He is a member of the Lincoln-Lancaster County Bar Association, the Nebraska State Bar Association and the American Bar Association.

In the area of politics he has served as president and national committeeman of the Young Democrats, was an alternate to the Democratic National Convention in 1940, and a delegate to the Democratic National Conventions of 1952, 1956, and 1960. In 1952 and 1956 he was Nebraska campaign director for the late Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee in his presidential bid, who was successful in the Nebraska primaries in both years.

College Chairmen Named

Two department chairmen were named by the Regents for Teachers College and the College of Medicine.

Dr. Howard Hunt was named chairman of the department of radiology, and Dr. Royce Ronning was named chairman of the department of educational psychology and measurements.

Hunt has been on the staff of the Nebraska Methodist Hospital as director of the department of radiology. He had served as chairman of the department of radiology at the College of Medicine from 1930-63.

Ronning had been on the staff of the University of Buffalo.

Both appointments are effective Aug. 1.

The Regents also named Kenneth Baker as superintendent of the Curtis School of Agriculture.

In other action, the Regents made public a letter to the Legislature's Budget Committee, requesting that an additional $934,557 be appropriated during the next biennium.

Signed by Dr. Joseph Soshnik, corporation secretary and vice chancellor for business and finance, the letter said the additional funds are needed if the experiment station work is to be carried out according to the program outlined by the committee.

Social Worker To Talk At Red Cross Dessert

Mrs. Ralph Johnson will speak at the Spring Awards Dessert for Red Cross at 7 tonight in the Pan American room of the Nebraska Union.

Mrs. Johnson is a social worker at the State Hospital. Awards will be presented to all outstanding workers on the various committees.

With a beaming smile on her face, Sally Wilson of Lincoln was crowned May Queen at Ivy Day ceremonies Saturday.

She was crowned by her maid of honor, Nancy Anderson of Hastings.

Miss Wilson is the daughter of Mrs. Allen Wilson of Lincoln. A senior in Teachers College, she is president of Tassels, member of the Teenage Project, Nebraska Career Scholars Program, YWCA freshman camp counselor, and member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. She was a member of the 1964 Ivy Day Court, Homecoming Queen attendant in 1963, and Nebraska Sweetheart.

Miss Anderson is also a senior in Teachers and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Anderson of Hastings. She is chairman of the Dean's Advisory Council in Teachers College, member of the Orthopedic Project, Red Cross, president of the Association for Childhood Education and house chairman for Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

The 1964 Court members were: Elizabeth Aitken, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Aitken of Lincoln. She is a freshman in the College of Arts and Sciences, chairman of the Union Talks and Topics Committee, member of the Orthopedic Project and Rodeo Club. She is pledge class scholarship chairman for Kappa Alpha Theta.

Pam Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Wood of Omaha. She is a freshman in Teachers College and has been active in Builders, Nebraska Union activities, All-University Fund, Kernels, and Junior Interfraternity Queen. She is a Student Council chairman of Delta Gamma sorority.

Jeanie Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Howard of Lincoln. A freshman in the College of Arts and Sciences and Teachers, she is a Union assistant chairman and a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, French Club and Aquettes. She is assistant treasurer of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

Jennifer Marshall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Marshall of Lincoln. A freshman in Teachers College, she is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, a past AWS worker, a Union Chairman, and an AUF assistant chairman. She was pledge president of Gamma Phi Beta sorority.

Carol Bischoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Bischoff of Tecumseh, and a sophomore in Teachers College. She is a member of Associated Women Students, Tassels, Sigma Alpha Eta, and UNSEA. She is office manager of Builders and historian of Alpha Xi Delta sorority.

Barbara Beckmann, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Milton Beckmann of Lincoln, and a sophomore in Arts and Sciences and Teachers Colleges. She is a Union chairman, a Red Cross chairman, a member of Associated Women Students, an All-University Fund assistant chairman, and treasurer of Alpha Lambda Delta. She is activities chairman of Chi Omega sorority.

Joan McClymont, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McClymont of Holdrege, and a sophomore in the College of Arts and Sciences. She is president of the Student Council Associates, an All-University Fund chairman, and a recent piano soloist with the Omaha Symphony. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

Candy Sasso, daughter of Mrs. Lois Sasso of Lincoln, and a sophomore in Teachers College. She is treasurer of Angel Flight, a Builders chairman, and a delegate to Panhellenic. She was an Activities Queen finalist and is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority.

Linda Mahoney, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Mahoney of Lincoln, and a sophomore in the College of Arts and Sciences. She is vice-president of YWCA.

Haug Baldwin

Wilburn Neumeister

Costler Pont

Luckasen Harding

Madson Snyder

Frolik Patsch

Preparation Of Last Play Nears Finish

Preparations are continuing for the final University Theatre production of the season Shakespeare's "Antony and Cleopatra," May 20-23.

The set and costumes are nearly completed. While hardly a 40 million dollar extravaganza, the play's director, Dr. William Morgan, does promise "a production that will be true to the playwrighting of William Shakespeare. Charles Howard, technical director, has designed a set that is equal in impressiveness to last year's "Hamlet" set.

At this point in preparation for the production, Morgan reports only one problem: he has yet to find a suitable asp. Anyone having an asp with theatrical experience is invited to contact Morgan.

Reservations for "Antony and Cleopatra" can be made by phoning University Ext. 2072, or at the box office, Room 108, Temple Building.

Language Department Awards Scholarships

Linda Davidson and Robert Sader have been named recipients of the new Agnes Gordon Simons Romance Language Scholarships for freshmen at the University.

The $250 scholarships were presented by Dr. Roberto Esquenazi-Mayo, chairman of the Romance languages department.

Honorable mention for the scholarship went to Barbara Haskins and Margaret Austin.

The scholarship for freshmen in Romance languages was established in the University Foundation by Daniel Simons in memory of his wife, Agnes Gordon Simons, class of 1906, who taught Romance languages for 35 years at the University.

Miss Davidson is majoring in French. Sader is majoring in Spanish.

University Singers To Hold Auditions

Auditions for the 1965-66 University Singers will be held Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, according to Earl Jenkins, director.

An audition appointment schedule is posted outside room 104 of the music building.

Interested students are required to sign the appointment schedule prior to the day their audition is to be held.

Continued on page 3