Coeds Picket For Privacy; Grads, For Women's Dorm

About 50 coeds from UCLA's Mira Hershey Hall picketed the dean of students' office recently while the dean met with other administrators to consider converting the women's residence hall into a co-educational dormitory for graduate students.

The "UCLA Daily Bruin" reports that the pickets carried signs saying, "We love men but not for breakfast!" and "Mira is here in spirit." Another sign, "Don't make our nursery a brewery," referred to the possibility that regulations on drinking might be changed if the dorm went to grads.

Jan Bierley, senior in geology, was the sole counter-picket—her sign read "UCLA needs a grad dorm, not a convent."

Dean Byron Atkinson met with the Hershey Hall cabinet later and said: "It was an unmitigated pleasure to deal with pickets that look like these—for a change."

But he told the coeds that the decision to convert Hershey wasn't final and that another dorm was also being considered.

Deans of the graduate division and professional schools had been pushing for a graduate commons which would allow law and medical students to live and work together, he said.

He promised a final decision in a few days. While Atkinson was briefing the Hershey women, men of Hedrick Hall's graduate floor were planning a counterpicket.

Several hours later the air was filled with male voices singing "We shall come over," a variation of the civil rights song. Phil Kees, senior in life science, led 20 graduates in chanting demonstration in front of the "convent."

"What's wrong?" a coed yelled from behind Hershey's now-bolted doors. "Can't you guys get dates anywhere else?"

"We don't want dates; we want your building," the grads yelled back.

The demonstration dispersed within 20 minutes with the grads offering to take the Hershey coeds to a local drinking spot. Only a few accepted.

Adaptations of the civil rights sit-in are mushrooming into a campus fad.

Students are still using the sit-in to protest anything from discrimination in housing to restricted political activity.

But all kinds of new "ins" are being discovered.

University of Minnesota students held several sip-ins at a local ice-cream store when they thought the store was responsible for the eviction of the bearded and well-liked book seller in the unusual shop next door.

Two University of California, Berkeley, fraternities staged a new type of sit-in to see who could sit in a chair the longest following rigorous rules—no lying down, standing up, or leaning on elbows.

The latest thing at Michigan State University is a teach-in, organized by the faculty committee for Peace in Viet Nam to provide information on U.S. policy in Southeast Asia. Folk-singers were featured at intermissions of the 8 p.m. to

2:30 a.m. teaching marathon. Mulford Sibley, political science professor at the University of Minnesota, was recently denied entrance into Canada by immigration authorities (who later reversed their decision) because of his "subversive" views. The woman mayor of Ottawa suggested that if the women of Canada staged a strip-in when Sibley landed, he would have gone back to Minnesota "a lot quicker than he did."
