

Pageant To Crown First 'Miss U of N'

Fourteen coeds will compete in the first Miss University of Nebraska Pageant Sunday for the honor of representing the University in the Miss Nebraska contest in York June 17-20.

Mary Lee Jepsen, the 1963 Miss Nebraska, is in charge of the pageant which will be held at 8 p.m. Sunday in the Nebraska Union ballroom.

Contestants will be judged on the basis of personality, talent and beauty. The winner will compete in the state contest next month for the honor of representing Nebraska in the Miss America contest at Atlantic City.

The University pageant is being sponsored by the University of Nebraska Miss America Association composed of coeds who have competed in previous Miss America contests at various levels.

Students Laying Plans

A group of students at the University are considering the formation of a new honorary club, to be known as the NU Jessies.

Curtis Is Honored For State Service

Last night at Pershing Auditorium, Sen. Carl Curtis was honored for his meritorious service to the people of Nebraska.

Former Vice-president Richard M. Nixon and scores of Congressmen from other states joined in the plaudits.

The underlying theme in the greater majority of the short speeches was that our founding fathers intended to have a government of checks and balances, so it is imperative that more Republicans be elected to Congress. Most of the non-partisan audience was noted to smile at the suggestion.
