Ticket Sales 'Average' For Yarbrough Show

The number of tickets sold for the Glenn Yarbrough concert on the first day of sales was approximately 1,000.

Richard Scott, Assistant Union program manager, said that this was an average first day's sale. He expects sales to increase when more people become aware of the program.

Plenty of excellent seats are available in all price categories, Scott said, and tickets will be sold until the day of the concert, Oct. 1.

Tickets are on sale for $1.50, $1.75 and $2 in the Nebraska Union.

Coeds Wearing Pins Instead Of Diamonds

Two pinnings were accidentally placed under engagements in the Daily Nebraskan Thursday.

They were: Bev Burrows, Chi Omega junior in Teachers from Omaha, to Don Chase, Sigma Phi Epsilon junior in pre-med.

Bonnie Brown, Chi Omega junior in journalism from Superior, to Skip Abel, Sigma Alpha Epsilon junior in business administration from Fairfax, Va.

AWS Opens Seminar

Associated Women's Students (AWS) will hold a Lincoln Seminar to orientate Lincoln students to the structure and regulations of AWS at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, in the Union ballroom.

"The purpose of the program is to increase the awareness of Lincoln women concerning AWS purposes and functions," stated Kathy Weber, chairman of the event.

This is the first year for the program geared to acquaint new Lincoln women and interested upperclassmen with the campus. Members of Mortar Board will be guests and will speak on campus activities.

Dean Proposes Initiation Average

A University sorority initiation average cannot be determined, it was brought out Monday at the Panhellenic meeting, until some guidelines within the University have been determined.

Helen Snyder, associate dean of Student Affairs, suggested that the average for initiation be set at 2.2, which corresponds to the present 5.0 average.

The decision is a difficult one to reach, she said, because the University has not had a semester under the new four-point grading scale.

Ideas on cutting the cost and work on Homecoming displays were presented and discussed.

Jennifer Marshall and Ann Windle were selected as Panhellenic candidates for Activity Queen.

Marquardt To Sing In Recital Monday

A graduate recital will be presented by Willard Marquardt, baritone from the Department of Music, today at 3:30 p.m. in the Sheldon Art Gallery Auditorium.

Marquardt, who is working toward his Master of Music degree, will be accompanied by Frank Wasko.
