

Cagers To Debut Tonight Against Tall Fresh Team

Nebraska's basketball season debuts Friday night at 7:35 p.m. when the Cornhusker varsity tangles with the Freshmen at the NU Coliseum.

Proceeds from the gate will be presented to the Basketball Hall of Fame project, a building fund for a permanent cage museum at Springfield, Ill., similar to Baseball's Cooperstown and Football's Canton.

Biggest chore for NU coach Joe Cipriano is picking a starting five.

"We're set for the game with one exception," Joe said. "We can start only five players and we've got six qualified starters."

Joe was referring to sophomore Stuart Lantz who has had a fine practice season, and is pressing to become the second soph in the lineup. Right now, Cipriano is going with Nate Branch, forward; Willie Campbell, center; Fred Hare and Grant Simmons, guards; as the veteran lineup. Only soph Tom Baack, a 6-5 forward, has crashed the top quintet.

"We may start Lantz yet," Joe said. "He's done a great job and deserves to be considered a starter whether he does or not. One thing is certain—Lantz will do a lot of playing, regardless of who starts. We will use him at either guard or forward."

Freshman Coach Glenn Potter noted that the annual game provides the frosh with good experience. "The freshmen are always able to pretty much hold their own about the first quarter," he said, "but after that, the difference in game experience begins to tell."

Potter said that this year's team compares favorably against last year's freshman team, they are taller, stronger in rebounding and on defense.

"However," he said, "we probably will not have as good of shooters this year."

Potter listed Roger Leitner as the frosh leader on offense and Dan Shaver on defense. He included Bob Wagner and Shaver as possibilities for future floor leaders for the Huskers.

Betas, Delts Lead Swimmers

With intramural swimming under way, Beta Theta Pi and Delta Tau Delta are dominating the top places in total individual competition so far.

To eliminate unfair competition, the intramural department has put freshman and varsity swimmers in a separate class this year.

In division I, (freshman- varsity), Bill Kathrien took first place in 50 yard free style. Bill Kenagy and Walt Brzezinski took second and

DU's Win Semi-Finals; To Meet Misfits Today

Fraternity "A" champions Delta Upsilon charged to a 25-13 victory over dorm champs Fairfield-Benton (Selleck) in intramural football tournament action yesterday. The win qualifies the DU's for a chance at the all-university football championship against the Misfits, an independent team, today.

Jack Gugenmos accounted for three of four touchdowns for the DU's and, according to Intramural Director Joel Meier, "played an outstanding game. He is an fine athlete."

With about 150 spectators on hand, the DU's piloted a devastating aerial game, all of their scoring coming on passes. In the first quarter, Gugenmos gathered in a pass and scampered 15 yards for the DU's first touchdown. Rich Rockwell tallied for the extra point. The DU's closed the quarter with a 13-0 lead as Rockwell crossed the goal on a four-man pass play.

Fairfield-Benton entered the scoring column in the second quarter when Dick Wasinger connected with Bob Sall for the TD. Selleck's Lindsay Miller made the extra point on a pass from Dale Sall. Coming back strong in a good team effort, the DU's put together a four-man pass play, with Gugenmos on the scoring end once again.

In third quarter action, Selleck held the DU's scoreless. Dick Wasinger intercepted a DU pass on the DU's own one yard line and charged the length of the field for Fairfield-Benton's second and final touchdown.

The DU's came back to dominate the game in the fourth quarter, scoring one more touchdown. Gugenmos pulled in another pass and ground out almost 40 yards to the end zone, putting the DU's on top, 25-13.

The DU's will meet the Misfits today at 4:30 for the all-university intramural football championship. The match will be on the IM field behind University High School.

Huskers To Train In Arizona, Season Finale Thanksgiving

Nebraska football players will be able to spend Christmas at home. The gridders are slated to go to Phoenix, Arizona Dec. 14 to train for the Orange Bowl game, New Year's Eve.

In making the announcement Coach Bob Devaney noted that the team will have two-a-day drills the 15-20 with one drill planned for the 21 before they return to Lincoln.

The team will regroup the morning after Christmas to fly to Miami for the Orange Bowl classic. Coach Devaney is also planning a trip this weekend to Miami to find a practice site there, one preferably with lights since the game is going to be played at night.

Nebraska will face Oklahoma in their last conference game and close the season before a sellout crowd of 54,000 and a national television audience on Thanksgiving day.

Oklahoma has been without the services of their top star, Carl McAdams, and All-America linebacker. McAdams missed the Missouri game, which Oklahoma lost 30-0, and is currently sporting a cast on his bad ankle.

"Playing without Carl McAdams is like a hockey team playing without a goalie," says Sooner Coach Gomer Jones. Reports from the Sooner camp indicate, however, that McAdams will be ready for the Nebraska game.
