NEARLY NEW . . . Shop stock everything from "card tables to crockery."

Faculty Wives Plan Sale

By Julie Morris Senior Staff Writer

Everything from dress suits to shoestrings card tables to crockery is going on sale this month at the Nearly New Shop at 1610 R St.

The shop, which is sponsored and maintained by the Faculty Women's Club, is open on Wednesdays from 7-9 p.m. During the March sale, prices on coats, suits and dresses will be cut to below a dollar, according to Mrs. Dave Williams, co-chairman of the shop.

The Nearly New Shop stocks items such as clothing, household furnishings and books, according to Mrs. George Holdren, a member of the shop's board of directors.

Most items for the shop are donated by faculty wives. Mrs. Williams noted. She said Mrs. Clifford Hardin holds a "bundle tea" each fall to which faculty wives bring a bundle of contributions for the shop.

Proceeds from the Nearly New Shop go to the University's Student Loan Fund. The funds are matched on a nine to one basis by the National Defense Education Act Fund, Mrs. Holdren said.

Nickels & Dimes "We sell items for nickels and dimes, and it really adds up," Mrs. Williams said. The shop was able to turn $400 over to the fund last year. The total then going into the loan fund, she said, was $4,000.

The shop is open from September through June. Goods left unsold at the end of the season are turned over to charities, Mrs. Holdren said.

The Nearly New Shop opened for business in 1958. It was patterned after a similar shop opened by the faculty wives at the University's College of Medicine in Omaha.

Union To Cancel Florida Surf Trip

The Nebraska Union's surfing trip to Daytona Beach, Fla., has been cancelled due to lack of student interest, according to the Union.

The Union trips and tours committee, which was sponsoring the trip, said they felt failure was due to the high cost involved, the bowl trip and the "general apathy of students."

The trip was originally planned for spring vacation.

Professor Earns Research Grant

A $127,875 grant for a project entitled "Development of Brain Electrical Activity of Infants" has been awarded to Dr. Robert Ellingson.

Ellingson, professor of neurology and psychiatry at the University College of Medicine, received the grant from the National Institute of Neurological Diseases and Blindness.

Architect To Plan Expansion

With $1.3 million in bonds now approved for Nebraska Union expansion, the University is in the process of hiring an architect to draw up plans for the Union.

Allen Bennett, director of the Union, said a report defining the needs of the Union in the future was presented to the University and the $1.3 million expansion program was approved.

He said that the next step is to secure an architect to draw up several different plans which might meet the Union's future building needs.

It was reported earlier that the expansion will consist of a second floor on the north wing of the Union in addition to an extension of that wing.

Bennet said this statement was a "good general guide, but nothing has been decided for sure."

IFC To Consider Pledging Amendments

Amendments concerning the 30-day waiting period for pledging after Rush Week and automatic waivers will be voted on at Interfraternity Council Wednesday night.

The amendment regarding the 30-day waiting period would mean that men who did not go through Rush Week or who failed to pledge by the official end of Rush Week would not be required to wait 30 days after Rush Week before pledging.

The section of the by-laws which excludes any man who broke a pledge at any time or who violated any of the Rush Week rules from pledging for 30 days would remain in effect.

The amendment would add the following section: "No fraternity shall contact a rushee from midnight on the last day of Rush Week until the following Friday noon and no fraternity shall pledge a rushee until the following Saturday noon."

The amendment on automatic waivers provides that each house be granted two automatic waivers allowing them to pledge two heretofore ineligible men. This would include those who did not have a 2.0 average or who did not graduate.

Play For Voices To Be Presented

A staged reading of Dylan Thomas' play for voices, "Under Milkwood," will be presented Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in Room 201, Temple Building.

The production will be presented by eight graduate and undergraduate students from the speech department.

There is no admission charge.

uate in the upper half of their class.

Men could not be pledged any earlier than the first day of classes in the fall.

Also on the agenda for the Wednesday night meeting is a discussion on Rush Week for next fall and the statement issued last semester by the Executive Committee on drinking.

Panhel Officers Discuss Meeting

Three of the new Panhellenic officers who will be installed next week reported on the Big 8 Panhellenic IFC conference at the Panhellenic meeting Monday afternoon.

Erma Winterer, new Panhellenic president, presented ideas that were discussed at the conference at Oklahoma State University in Stillwater, Okla. Nebraska is the only campus in the Big 8 without a composite rush booklet for sororities, she said.

On some campuses, a member from each house stays in the dorm during rush week and acts as an adviser to rushees.

Grade averages for initiation ranged as high as 2.7.

Other Panhellenic groups require that the range between the number of members in the largest and smallest houses be no more than 20, she said.

The new Panhellenic vice-president and secretary, Shyri Mueller and Lynn Stingley, also attended the conference.

Conferences between the new Panhellenic officers and house delegates for committee positions will be held this week.

Dr. Russell Brown, assistant to the Vice Chancellor, explained a new process for compiling grade rosters for individual houses. He distributed forms which will be used in data processing machines.
