

NU Relay Team, Greene Score At Drake Relays

Victories in the mile relay and 100-yard dash highlighted Nebraska's performance in the Drake Relays over the weekend.

The Husker mile relay crew of Dave Kudron, Les Hellbusch, Dennis Walker and Dave Crook turned in a 3:09.2 in Friday's qualification run with Crook blazing the anchor leg in :45.7.

In Saturday's finals Crook took the baton in fourth place and then stepped out to a :45.8 giving Nebraska a winning time of 3:09.9. One of the runners Crook had to overtake Saturday was Ohio State's Martin McGrady, the world record holder in the 600-yard run.

Nebraska's other first place came on Saturday when Charlie Greene sped the 100 in 9.3. It was Greene's second straight victory in the Drake century.

The 10-mile-an hour wind that was at Greene's back disqualified his time from becoming a Relays record. Greene loafed to a 9.7 qualifying time on Friday.

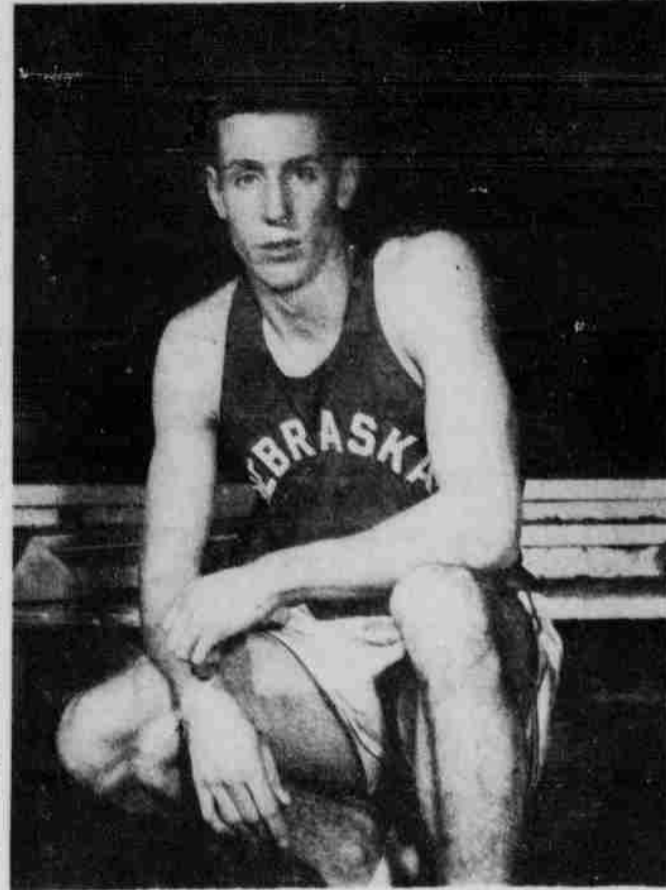

The Husker 440 relay team took second Saturday behind Southern Methodist in the university division. Nebraska's time was :41.3; Southern Methodist was clocked in :40.9. A recurrence of Greene's leg injury at the finish of the 440 relay kept Nebraska from running in the sprint-medley finals.

More trouble came for Nebraska Saturday as Ray Harvey fell to the track after hitting the last hurdle between himself and victory in the finals of the 480-yard shuttle hurdles. Harvey salvaged a third place for Nebraska in that event.

Strong performances from Dave Kudron, Lonnie Sherlock and Lynn Headley had given Harvey the lead going into the finals of the shuttle relay.

A career best of 4:10.3 by Nebraska's Orlando Martinez was fast enough for a fourth place in the mile finals. Jim Ryan of Kansas was the winner in 4:05.6.

Husker weight man Jim Beltzer put the shot 57-1/4 for third place behind George

Dave Crook blazed a 45.8 quarter to bring NU a come-from-behind victory in the mile relay.

Woods of Southern Illinois and Randy Matson, Texas A&M strong man. Matson was the winner with a heave of 65-3/4.

KSU Hits NU Golfers

Ron Schmedemann of Kansas State shot a two-under par 68 to lead his team to three dual golf victories.

Low man on the Nebraska squad was Galen Ullstrom who shot a 78. This score qualified him as the fifth lowest scorer in the competition.

Kansas State defeated Kansas 13 to 2; Nebraska 12 to 3 and Missouri, 13 to 2. Nebraska defeated Missouri 8 1/2 to 6 1/2 and tied Kansas 7 1/2 to 7 1/2. Missouri edged Kansas 8 to 7.

Results:
Nebraska—Bob Lau, 79; Chuck Sweetman, 84; Nick West, 82; Galen Ullstrom, 78; Bill Messick, 81.

Kansas State—Ron Schmedemann, 68; Shelly Shellenberger, 78; Dennis Burkholzt, 80; Joey Athey, 76; John Graham, 76.

NU Suffers Two Losses

Nebraska's baseball record nose-dived to 6-6 over the weekend after the Huskers dropped two of three games to Missouri at Columbia.

Nebraska won the first of the three game series Friday 8-4, but then dropped a double-header Saturday, 3-0 and 1-0.

Gary Neibauer, now 3-1, struck out 11 in Friday's victory. Nebraska power hitters Clayton Luther and Alex Walter each got home runs. Luther's blast in the fifth inning scored two runs and Walter's in the eight scored three.

Saturday's losses went to Bob Stickle and Bob Hergenrader. The Husker hurlers now post records of 3-2 and 1-3 respectively. Stickle pitched only 1-1/3 innings of the opener on Friday before being replaced by Charlie Green.

Hergenrader went all the way in the series finale allowing Missouri only five hits.

Rifle Meet

The Nebraska Rifle Team Invitational will be held this weekend on the NU campus. The three day event, lasting from April 29 to May 1, will feature 30 different teams from 15 universities and colleges in the Midwest.

Six women's teams will be competing among the 30 entries. Over 120 shooters have filed applications for the 13th annual competition. Each school is allowed to enter up to three teams. All shooting will take place in the Military and Naval Science Building rifle range.

'Same Old Story' For Huskers In Spring Football Practice

By BOB FLASNICK

Spring football is a time when coaches can go about their work in a relaxed manner. The pressure of the weekly game hasn't yet arrived and the coaches actually seem to enjoy the job of grooming their team for next fall's grid. There's a little more time for having fun on the job.

For the players, however, it's the same old story, beat the man across from you or you might not get the chance tomorrow.

If you play for Nebraska the man across the line doesn't wear the colors of a Kansas Jayhawk, a Missouri Tiger, or a Sooner from the South. He wears the same red and white you do, but you hit him just as hard anyway in the proverbial survival of the fittest.

That seemed to be the attitude the Huskers had in Sunday's scrimmage which pitted opposing units of Coach Bob Devaney's club against each other in 15 minute scrimmages.

Defense Ahead

The defensive teams still appear to be ahead of the offense in Sunday's workout. Brichacek, Bob Taucher tackled; Pete Tatman, Dennis

Some of the best running of the afternoon was demonstrated by right halfback "Lighthorse" Harry Wilson. Wilson had good success getting through and around the left side of the defensive "black shirts."

Omaha sophomore - to - be Dick Davis blocked and ran well from his fullback position on the second team offense. Davis broke around right end and went all the way against the third defensive club with the help of a well-timed block thrown by right end Sherwin Jarmon.

A recent change in the first offensive unit had Ben Gregory running from a fullback position. Converted fullback Pete Tatman alternated with Dennis Morrison at left end.

The longest pass completion of the afternoon was from quarterback Wayne Weber to right end Dennis Richnaffsky for a gain of about 40 yards against the second team defense.

Weber had only mild success with his passing later in the afternoon with many of his passes being overthrown or dropped.

Sunday's lineups:

First offense—LaVerne Albers, Jim Osberg, guards; Kelly Peterson center, Gary Brichacek, Bob Taucher tackles; Pete Tatman, Dennis Morrison, Dennis Richnaffsky ends; Wayne Weber quarterback; Charlie Winters, Harry Wilson halfbacks; Ben Gregory fullback.

First defense—Wayne Meylan middle guard, Carel Stith, Jim McCord tackles; Langston Colman, Jerry Patton ends; Rick Colman, Al Kuehl linebackers; Mary Mueller, Jim Hawkins, Ron Poggenmeyer halfbacks; Larry Wachholtz safety.

Second defense—Bob Weinman, Bob Liggett ends; Steve Zemko middle guard; Lou Narish, Tom Casbeer tackles; Barry Alvarez, Len Janik linebackers; Dennis Thorell, Adrian Flala, Bob Best halfbacks; Bill Nettelman safety.
