

3 Seats In Senate Reallotted

Three Student Senate seats have been reapportioned following a Monday meeting of the electoral commission. The three seats were previously allotted to Graduate College, but candidates were not elected to fill them in last Wednesday's ASUN election.

Teachers' College, Professional College and the College of Engineering and Architecture were each allotted another Senate seat.

John Hall was elected from Teachers, Bill Toole from Professional and John (Mike) Jess from Engineering and Architecture.

According to Carol Bischoff, election commissioner, another Graduate College seat had been won by Bob Samuelson, who was also elected ASUN second vice president.

If Samuelson resigns his Senate seat, she said, the seat will be filled as provided in the ASUN constitution by election by the Senate from applications from Graduate College.

She also added that all financial statements have been verified after careful investigation.

Art Gallery To Exhibit 25 Prints

An exhibit of 25 prints by Michael Ponce De Leon of New York City will open at Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery on Tuesday. The exhibit will continue during the month of May.

Collage-intaglio is Ponce De Leon's preferred medium. He selected the print as his field because "if the creative act in the other arts is full of mystery and wonderment, then printmaking—where the image refuses to reveal itself until the final union of paper, ink, and idea takes form—is magic itself."

Ponce De Leon teaches art at Hunter College and Pratt Graphic Art Center. He has studied at several universities and art academies and was awarded two Tiffany fellowships and a Fulbright grant.

He has presented many national and international exhibitions. His works are on display in private collections.

IFC To Choose Rush Book Editor

Nominations will be made for rush book editor at the Wednesday meeting of the Interfraternity Council.

The IFC recently changed the election of the rush book editor from the fall to the spring in order to give the editor a chance to work on the rush book during the summer.

Members will also vote to decide which photograph studio will be awarded a contract for the Rush Book.

Chi Phi's To Drive For Voters

Voters in need of transportation to and from the polls during the May 10 primary elections may obtain free automobile transportation courtesy of Chi Phi fraternity. Fifty fraternity men and 20 to 30 cars will be available to serve the voters, according to Walt Radcliffe, planning chairman.

Although there is no particular political connection with the service, voters may arrange transportation by calling their party headquarters, or by calling the Chi Phi house. The service will continue from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. on the election day.

"We hope to continue this badly needed service in the next November general election, if it is well-received this spring," Radcliffe said. He added that calls to polls and party headquarters requesting transportation in past election indicated the need for instituting the service.

Chimes, Concert To Start 77th Ivy Day Observance

Chimes echoing across the University campus Saturday morning will sound the beginning of the 77th observance of Ivy Day.

The chimes from the carillon tower will begin at 10:45 a.m. followed by a University Band concert at 11 a.m. on the west side of the Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery where all Ivy Day ceremonies will take place.

Highlights of the traditional event include crowning of the May Queen at noon and tapping of Mortar Boards and tacking of Innocents, senior honoraries, in the afternoon.

Men's and women's sings will begin at 12:20 p.m. This year's Ivy Day senior soloist is Carole Peterson. Miss Peterson is president of Mu Phi Epsilon, music sorority, and of the Music Inter-

Sorority Council. She held a lead in "Carmen," was a soloist for the 1965 "Messiah" and was a senior soloist for the University Orchestra.

Frank Hailgren, director of placement, will be the master of ceremonies at Ivy Day this year.

Three children of former members of Mortar Board will take part in the morning festivities. They are Tim Donlan, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Donlan; Julie Overcash, 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Overcash; and Rebecca Sorensen, 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Sorensen.

Finalists for queen of the May are Cheryl Crosier, Susie Cunningham, Lynne Irish, Karen Johnson, Di Kosman, Susie Moore, Linda Muff, Mary Kay Rakow, Susan Stuckey and Susie Young.

Quiz Bowl Team Is 3rd In Big 8

The all-University Quiz Bowl Team placed third in the Big 8 College Quiz Bowl Tournament Saturday.

Members of the team competing in the tournament at Iowa State University at Ames were Nancy Coufal, Linda Marchello, Steve Rosenquist and Larry Watzke.

The team defeated Oklahoma State and Colorado in the preliminary matches. Iowa State won the tournament.

Foreign Students Record Letters

Foreign students at the University will have a chance to "talk" to their family or friends in their native country through the Red Cross "talking letter" project Thursday.

Students may record their letters Thursday in the Small Auditorium of the Union from 9 a.m. until 4:30 p.m.

The letters should take approximately 30 minutes to record. Following the recording of the letters, refreshments will be served in the south conference room.

Letters concerning the project have been sent to all foreign students. Any foreign student who did not receive a letter should contact Dorothy Yost.

Panhellenic Passes 2.0 For Initiation Average

A motion to require a 2.0 initiation grade average in University sororities was passed by Panhellenic Monday, thus defeating an amendment to raise the average to a 2.2.

The motion had been tabled for two weeks to allow further investigation by the council, as part of a general constitutional up-dating.

Before the decision to vote on the amended motion, Helen Snyder, dean of women, gave a report on unofficial University grade averages, as compiled by Lewis Fowles, assistant dean of student affairs.

The unofficial figures, said Dean Snyder, show an all-University average of 2.33. The all-women average is 2.54 according to Fowles, and the all-freshmen average is lowest with a 2.14.

Dean Snyder noted that this year 59 pledges had not been initiated in sororities because they could not meet the required minimum average of 2.0. She said that if the average had been 2.2 some 25 per cent of all pledges would not have been initiated.

"On the basis of this information, I think it would be sorority program to institute a 2.2 grade average," stated Dean Snyder.

After some discussion, a majority of the representatives on the Panhellenic council defeated the 2.2 amendment and installed the 2.0 grade average.

A committee to study a plan for a combined sorority rush book was set up at the suggestion of Bee Perry, head of the Rush Chairman Council. This council sees a combined rush book as a total replacement of individual house rush books. The questionable effectiveness and expense involved in individual sorority books led the council to set up the study committee.

Rush Week (Sept. 4-8) rules will be basically the same next fall as they were this year, according to a statement of rules read by Miss Perry.

One of the changes in rush rules include the requirement that Lincoln girls going through rush reside in dormitories. Also, summer parties for legacies will be discontinued, stated Miss Perry. Madeline Girard, Panhellenic advisor, announced that all salesmen soliciting from sorority houses must first fill out a form in the Panhellenic office.
