

Nebraskan Pinned

Getting pinned or engaged sometimes can be a serious error and in this case Wednesday's list was the Daily Nebraskan's mistake. Due to the fact that the title "Engagements" was left out of Wednesday's list, the Nebraskan is now running both new and old engagements and pinnings for the last few days.

Eileen Bray, Kappa Alpha Theta sophomore in Teachers from Omaha, to Jim Huff, Phi Delta Theta junior in Arts & Sciences from Omaha.

Susie Wagner, Pi Beta Phi junior in Arts & Sciences from Lincoln, to Tom Tinsman, Phi Delta Theta in pre-med from Lincoln.

Kathleen Place, in Teachers from Omaha, to Mark Brian Frasier, Kappa Sigma in pre-vet from Omaha.

Judy Anderson, junior in Home Economics from Hartington, to Douglas Hofeldt, Delta Sigma Phi junior in Business Administration from Coleridge.

Alice Dale, Chi Omega sophomore in dental hygiene from Lincoln, to Rich Hilsabeck, Sigma Alpha Epsilon sophomore in pre-dentistry from Holdrege.

Barb Haskins, Delta Delta Delta in Teachers from Lincoln, to Nile Vernon, graduate student in Spanish from Des Moines, Ia.

ENGAGEMENTS

Karen Prack of Miami, Fla., to Robert Palmer, junior in engineering and architecture from Burlington, Ontario, Canada.

Jan Martin, Pound Hall sophomore in Teachers, to Doug Lowe, graduate in accounting.

Ginny Bollman, Delta Gamma senior in Teachers from Sioux City, Ia., to Bill Mowbray, Sigma Nu senior in Business Administration from Lincoln.

Mary Wiltse, Chi Omega

junior in Teachers from Falls City, to Peter Gilles, graduate student in math from Fond du Lac, Wis.

Pat Becker, junior in Business Administration from Lincoln, to Jerry Ernisse, sophomore in Business Administration from Lincoln.

Mary Linda Slie, Kappa Delta sophomore in Arts & Sciences from Scottsbluff, to Mike Voris, freshman in Teachers from Morrill.

Jeanette Nedrow, Kappa Delta senior in Teachers from Shickley, to Danny Stengel, graduate student in Business Administration from Shickley.

PARTY . . . leaders discuss a verdict on the murder of a comrade in the German play "Die Massnahme" (The Measures taken).

Drama And German Departments Cooperate To Present Production

The University laboratory theatre will present "Die Massnahme" or "The Measures Taken", a play entirely in German Sunday and Monday at 8 p.m.

Being presented in cooperation with the German Department, the play by Bertolt Brecht will be performed in typical Brechtian manner with an orchestra and chorus. The director, Dean Tschetter, said the play deals with the moral dilemma in the Soviet Communist Party and the "tragic consequences facing the adherents of a creed that demands the subordination of human feeling to a dry and abstract ideal."

Cast members for the play are Friedemann Bender, JoAnn Bennett, Everett Lawton and Robert Fischer.

The play will be presented in the Arena Theatre of the Temple Building. No admission will be charged.

Ross Graham, a University student, will direct another laboratory play, "Mrs. Dally Has a Lover" also on Sunday and Monday at 8 p.m.

The play, according to Graham, is a two-character portrait dealing with the environment of New York and the effect of its loneliness on two people, ultimately leading to a relationship between an older woman and a much younger man.

Appearing in the play will be Karma Ibsen and Filip Zinga.

The play will be presented in Room 201 of the Temple Building. Admission is free.

Ivy, Daisy Chains Chosen

More than 150 coeds have been named members of the Ivy and Daisy Chains which will line the path of the May Queen and her court during the University's Ivy Day ceremonies Saturday.

Members of the chains are chosen by their living units on the basis of service. The number of women named is determined by the size of the living unit as follows: 50 or less, four women; 50 to 100, five women; 100 to 200, 10 women; 200 and over, 15 women.

Senior women form the Ivy Chain and underclasswomen form the Daisy Chain.

Ivy Day festivities will begin at 10:45 a.m. Saturday west of the Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery. The Daisy and Ivy Chains will enter at 11:30 a.m.

The May queen, members of her court and the chain leaders will not be revealed until Saturday.

Members of the Ivy Chain are: Carol Peterson, Nelda Keller, Marilyn Jelik, Sandra Heybrock, Evelyn Jacobs, Jackie Alber, Pam Stevenson, Marilyn Hoegemeyer and Jean Anthony.

Religion Resolution

specific statute. He said the resolution has only recently reached his desk and that nobody is working on it. Any action on the resolution, he said, would come through his office.

A Lincoln attorney said the question of legality of a department of religion at a state supported institution would be, at the least, a "tricky" question. Decision one way or another, he added, would depend largely on a matter of interpretation of state law.

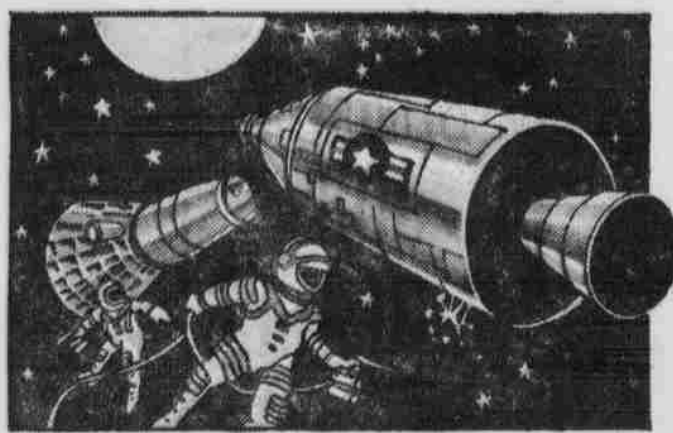

The Rev. Bruce McSpadden, campus pastor adviser to COR, said he doesn't feel the department would be illegal. The campus pastors have taken the legality of the matter into consideration, he said, and the consensus is that the program would not constitute a combination of church and state.

1. Repairs in space. If something goes wrong with a vehicle in orbit, how can it be fixed? Answers must be found, if large-scale space operations are to become a reality. For this and other assignments Air Force scientists and engineers will be called on to answer in the next few years, we need the best brains available.

2. Lunar landing. The exact composition of the lunar surface, as well as structural and propulsion characteristics of the space vehicle, enter into this problem. Important study remains to be done—and, as an Air Force officer, you could be the one to do it!

3. Life-support biology. The filling of metabolic needs over very extended periods of time in space is one of the most fascinating subjects that Air Force scientists are investigating. The results promise to have vital ramifications for our life on earth, as well as in outer space.

4. Space orientation. The orbital problems of a spacecraft, including its ability to maneuver over selected points on the earth, are of vital importance to the military utilization of space. There are plenty of assignments for young Air Force physicists in this area.

5. Synergistic plans changing. The ability of a spacecraft to change altitude can also be crucial to space operations. Where but in the Air Force could S.C.B.'s get the chance to work on such fascinating projects right at the start of their careers?

6. Space propulsion. As our space flights cover greater and greater distances, propulsion—more than anything else—will become the limiting factor. New fuels and new propulsion techniques must be found, if we are to keep on exploring the mysteries of space. And it may well be an Air Force scientist on his first assignment who makes the big breakthrough!

7. Pilot performance. Important tests must still be made to determine how the pilots of manned spacecraft will react to long periods away from the earth. Of course not every new Air Force officer becomes involved in research and development right away. But where the most exciting advances are taking place, young Air Force scientists, administrators, pilots, and engineers are on the scene.

Want to go 50/50 on a TWA jet?

If you're under 22, join the TWA 50/50 Club and fly for half fare.

You can get 50% off the regular Jet Coach fare when you fly TWA in the U.S. If you're between 12 and 22, fill out the form below and take it with proof of age to any TWA office. Buy your membership card for $3—and the sky's the limit. You fly on a stand-by basis—except for the few days listed below. Note: if you have an ID card from another airline, we'll honor that, too.

And remember, even though you're going for half fare, you always get full service—meals and all. Questions? Call your nearest TWA office. We're your kind of airline.

TWA 50/50 CLUB Present this application to any TWA office. Or mail to: P. O. Box 700, Times Square Station, New York, N.Y. 10036
