

'Bang! She Shot Me Down'

Many couples this week got lavaliered, pinned or engaged. Rumor has it, they really didn't want to because of all the recent faculty resignations — but they all had to. As one coed put it, "Well, we had to get pinned and meanwhile back at the University another faculty member resigned."

LAVALIERINGS
Enemy Tricksey, Theta Sig graduate student in journalism from Lincoln, to Nail Couple, Sigma Delta Chi freshman in department headmanship, from Lincoln.

Babe Beckin, Mu Beta senior in cornhusking from Lincoln, to Jim Innocent DeMush, Pi Xi senior in mixology from Lincoln.

Icky Darling, Alpha Upsilon Sigma senior in spooking from Omaha, to Larri Frantric, Alpha Nu Upsilon Sigma senior in agriculture from Lincoln.

Carolyn Towers, sophomore in music from Chimesville, to Andrew Hall, Epsilon Nu Gamma junior in languages from Lincoln.

Willia Crummy, Gamma Alpha Chi junior in journalism from Lincoln, to Miles Creekman, Rho Alpha Gamma junior in business management from North Platte.

Susie Cross-over, Upsilon Nu sophomore in programming from Cambridge, to Rick Scotch, Nu Upsilon senior in fun and games from Mount Vernon, Ia.

Florence Nightingale, Slappa Thi sophomore in pre-med from Bellevue, to Laddie Longlust, Rho Chi junior in evaluations and bandage rolling from Lincoln.

ENGAGEMENTS
Ardit Warrents sophomore in budget balancing from Hastings, to Doger Roar, junior in gavel pounding from Hastings.

Merry Lynn Hoggmaster, Slappa Welt senior in journalism from Hooper, to Karl Dabblesome, Sigma Delta Sigma graduate student in revolutions from Philadelphia, Pa.

and that might get sticky," he said. "On the other hand, what would the people of the state think if the boys could run wild till all hours of the night?"

"It is very complicated," he continued, "but we will think of some solution that will make everybody happy. I hope."

Dabblesome To Serve In Marines

Karl Dabblesome, former president of Sigma Delta Sigma, has enlisted in the Marine Corps and volunteered for duty in Viet Nam.

Dabblesome, known for his support of LBJ's Administration and the war in Viet Nam, made the announcement of his enlistment at a Rear End Park session Thursday.

"My country needs me and the poor people in Asia need me and besides my student draft deferment expires in June," he said.

Queen Exams

Alpha Sigma Sigma, a protology honorary, took the occasion of the last faculty resignation to announce examination for their annual Sweetheart of Alpha Sigma.

Errorless Directory Gets Award

The University's 300th Hearst Award was won by Builders Thursday for its 1965-66 student directory.

The award read, "For providing your school with a directory that never makes an error and a cover worthy of art, you deserve our highest honor."

The award specifically went on to describe the cover of this year's Builder's directory as being modern, colorful and showing excellent planning.

Furthermore, the award stressed that not one student or telephone number omitted has been found.

The award said the Builder's directory shows excellence as compared with other University problems such as "meanwhile back at the University another faculty member was resigning."

Complaint Is Lodged

A petition protesting the ANUS election last week because of campaigning by Kent Newmaster has been filed with the ANUS Student Court.

The petition, submitted by Mike Square and Steve Church, said that Newmaster was prejudiced during the campaign for his sister Nasty Newmaster.

Newmaster handed out campaign cards for Nasty, his sister, told his personal friends to vote for her and voted for her himself, the petition asserted.

Square noted that Newmaster had been caught once this week supporting his roommate for JAM president and that supporting his sister was "the last square."

When asked for his reaction, Newmaster said—"Nasty should have been president of both JAM and ANUS as far as I'm concerned."

He added, "What could I do when meanwhile back at the University another faculty member was resigning..."

No Dates For Mates

All is not daisies for members of the Guiltys' Mates (alias, Pink Dots), said Ene-ma Summerer speaking of dating discrimination.

Miss Summerer was pondering the advantages and disadvantages of being a member of the Mates and has decided that the honorary is indeed good training for wall-flowers and future old maids.

"I'm afraid that my social life would be ruined if I were a member of the Mates," stated Miss Summerer.

She continued to say that no man in his right mind would date a Mate, except that is, the Guiltys themselves.

"And who wants to go out with bookified types like the Guiltys?" she asked.

Miss Summerer is still giving the subject more thought, but has intimated to Pink

Filibuster Goes On At IPC

Inebriated Paternity Club held a special meeting Saturday night, but was unable to come to any decisions when Chuckle Buxter threatened to continue his filibuster from the previous 99 meetings.

However, the club did manage to slip in a few decisions when Buxter slipped out to get his personally autographed Robert's Rules of Order.

Eta Beta Tau was granted approval to colonize on the campus when it was learned they were willing to confine themselves to the basement of the Xi Chi paternity house and Xi Chi could utilize all the staterooms on the poop deck of their porch.

Sigma Iota Nu abstained from voting when Stew Ford got tangled up in his abacus trying to determine whether SIN would be able to attract enough men for a pledge class. However, he noted they would not need too large a pledge class for there were only two graduating seniors this year—the others were still waiting to make the Guiltys'.

IPC also turned down a request by Alca Alca (AA) to become members of the IPF.

Gag Anders, paternity affairs chairman, reported that he had contacted New York City about obtaining the Statue of Liberty to present to the next Princess Athena during Weak Greek. He also noted that next year's Weak Greek convocation would be restricted to maternities.

Gary No-Sin, IPC president, blushing, asked if Duck Scat, had a report. Scat, however, said he had none as he was too busy because meanwhile back at the University another faculty member resigned.

Maternity Addition Planned

A new building addition is being added to the Student Health Center. Dr. Samson Funsey, health director, said that the new addition is a maternity ward.

"The Health Center's purpose is to meet the needs of the students," Funsey said.

The maternity ward will triple the capacity of the hospital. Included in the plans are a solarium, nursery and entertainment rooms.

The addition was contracted after hundreds of petitions had been sent from Hellpan and Inebriated Paternity Club (IPC).

Funsey exclaimed that at least the students are helping the campus to expand even though "meanwhile back at the University another faculty member was resigning."
