Chem Major Wins National Prize

A University senior is one of twelve collegians selected nationally to receive the 1966 Chemical and Engineering New award of merit for outstanding scholastic and extracurricular achievement. A plaque in token of his honor was presented to Robert M. Bell, 22, before a University chemistry seminar Tuesday afternoon by Dr. Norman E. Cromwell, chairman of the department, and Professor James H. Looker, coordinator of undergraduate advising in chemistry. Bell is the first Nebraskan to receive the award, which according to Dr. Cromwell, is recognized as one of the most select of its kind in the nation. Scholastic honors, however, are not new for Bell; since his graduation from Lincoln Northeast high school in 1962 he has received 16 scholarships and awards including the Elks Most Valuable Student, a national honor. Both he and his wife, the former Barbara Miller of Lincoln, are nominees for graduation with honors from the University this June. Mrs. Bell is a senior in Teachers College.

With Dr. H. W. Knoche, University biochemist, Bell is co-author of a research paper published last year by Analytical Biochemistry, a ranking professional journal — an achievement unusual for an undergraduate. After graduation this spring, Mr. and Mrs. Bell will go to the University of California at Berkeley, where Bell will pursue graduate study on a U.S. Public Health Service traineeship. Mrs. Bell will teach in the Richmond schools. Bell is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and an associate member of Sigma Xi, the major scholastic honorary societies in the sciences and arts. His activity record at the University includes the vice presidency of Beta Theta Pi; roles in Kosmet Klub stage shows; work with the Nebraska Human Relations Foundation Teenage Project; intramural athletics; and a variety of campus campaigns.

Sheldon Art Gallery To Have Paul Newman Film Festival

A Paul Newman film festival Saturday will feature Newman as the love interest in two of his earlier films. "The Long, Hot Summer" and "From the Terrace" will be shown at the Sheldon Art Gallery auditorium beginning at 7 p.m. Admission to the films is 50 cents and is open only to University students, faculty and staff with identification. The movies are basically entertainment dramas and Newman's performance has been described as excellent—deeply dramatic and showing good characterization.

PTP President Seeks Aid For Foreign Housing

The need for housing for foreign students arriving at the University was presented to UNICORNS by Joel Swanson, People-to-People president. Swanson asked that UNICORNS join in the PTP program to provide Lincoln homes for new foreign students from the time they arrive in Lincoln until the University dormitories open. He said that this would enable foreign students to come a few days earlier in the fall. People-to-People will give orientation sessions to the foreign students to acquaint them with the American students before classes begin. People-to-People will also be helping the foreign students to find off campus housing, Swanson said.

The bookish among us can stay home and enjoy the full-enjoyment boom that the war has created." The Examination of Conscience asks, "What about all the guys our age who don't even get this chance (to take the test)? Those whose parents didn't have enough money to send them to college didn't even teach them they should want to go?" "Do we smell a little old-fashioned 'class privilege' here?" The information also says that "a lot of the guys who will take this test think the Viet Nam war is the right kind of war, necessary and just and patriot."

Applications Due For Exchanges

Applications are being accepted until Thursday for participants in the Stillman College Exchange Program. Stillman is a predominantly Negro College located in Tuscaloosa, Ala. The acting president is Dr. Knute O. Broady, formerly of the University. The University YWCA, in conjunction with ASUN, has set up a semester exchange program which will bring two Stillman students to Nebraska and in turn, send two Nebraskans to Stillman. Any student in good standing with the University is eligible to apply. Applications may be obtained at the YWCA office on the third floor of the Nebraska Union.

No Formations At NU Stadium On '66 Band Day

There will be some changes in the annual Band Day at the University of Nebraska Sept. 24 when the Cornhuskers host Utah State. There will be no halftime formations on the football field, but the combined bands will play in the stadium. The halftime formations will be eliminated because of possible damage to the field by some 3,500 marching bandmen during the rehearsal and performance.

THE COLLEGE PRESIDENT: HIS CAUSE AND CURE

Oh, sure, you've been busy, what with going to classes, doing your homework, catching night crawlers, getting married, picketing—but can't you pause for just a moment and give thought to that dear, dedicated, lonely man in the big white house on the hill? I refer, of course, to Prexy. (It is interesting to note that college presidents are always called "Prexy." Similarly, trustees are always called "Trixie." Associate professors are always called "Axy-Fixy." Bursars are called "Foxy-Woxy." Students are called "Algae.") But I digress. We were speaking of Prexy, a personage at once august and pathetic. Why pathetic? Well, sir, consider how Prexy spends his days. He is busy, busy, busy. He talks to deans, he talks to professors, he talks to trustees, he talks to alumni. In fact, he talks to everybody except the one group who could lift his heart and rally his spirits. I mean, of course, the appealing, endearing, winsomest group in the entire college—delightful you, the students. It is Prexy's sad fate to be forever a stranger to your laughing, golden selves. He can only gaze wistfully out the window of his big white house on the hill and watch you at your games and sports and yearn with all his tormented heart to bask in your warmth. But how? It would hardly be fitting for Prexy to appear one day at the Union, clad in an old rowing blazer, and cry gaily, "Heigh-ho, chaps! Who's for sculling?" No, friends, Prexy can't get to you. It is up to you to get to him. Call on him at home. Just drop in unannounced. He will naturally be a little shy at first, so you must put him at his ease. Shout, "Howdy-doo, sir! I have come to bring a little sunshine into your drear and blighted life!" Then yank his necktie out of his vest and scamper goatlike around him until he is laughing merrily along with you. Then hand him a package and say, "A little gift for you, sir." "For me?" he will say, lowering his lids. "You shouldn't have."

"Yes, I should," you will say, "because this is a pack of Personna Super Stainless Steel Blades, and whenever I think of Personna Super Stainless Steel Blades, I think of you." "Why, hey?" he will ask curiously. "Because, sir," you will say, "though you are no longer a young blade, still you gleam and function. Full though you are of years and lumps, rheumy though your endocrines and flaccid your hamstrings, still you remain sharp, incisive, efficacious." "Thank you," he will say, sobbing. "So it is with Personna," you will continue. "Naturally you expect a brand-new blade to give a close, speedy shave. But how about a blade that's had hard and frequent use? Do you still expect a close, speedy shave? Well, sir, if it's a Personna, that's what you'll get. Because, sir, like you, sir, Personna is no flash-in-the-pan. Like you, sir, Personna abides." He will clasp your hand then, not trusting himself to speak. "But away with gloom!" you will cry jollily. "For I have still more good news to tell you of Personna!" "How is that possible?" he will say. "Hearken to me," you will say. "Personna, in all its enduring splendor, is available not only in Double Edge style but also in Injector style!" He will join you then in the Personna rouser, and then he will bring you a steaming cup of cocoa with a marshmallow on top. Then you will say, "Good-bye, sir. I will return soon again to brighten your dank, miasmic life." "Please do," he will say. "But next time, if you can possibly manage it, try not to come at four in the morning."

Prexy and undergrad, late and soon, fair weather and foul—the perfect shaving companion is Personna® Blades in Burma Shave.® It comes in regular and menthol; it soaks rings around any other lather. Be kind to your kisser; try Personna and Burma Shave.
