University of Nebraska Student Education Association is conducting its annual membership drive, according to Susie Diffenderfer, president in charge of programs.

The pre-professional organization is a student group of the National Education Association, Miss Diffenderfer explained, and any University student interested in education may join.

To become a member of the organization must pay an annual membership fee of $3.50. Membership cards may be purchased from Dr. Loren Bonneau, from house representatives or at a booth on the first floor of Teachers College, added Miss Diffenderfer.

Kris Bitner, vice president in charge of programs, said

UNSEA holds monthly meetings every second Tuesday.

A picnic Oct. 12 heads the group's program schedule and features Dr. Walter Beggs, Dean of Teachers College, speaker. House representatives are selling tickets for $7.75, Miss Bitner noted.

UNSEA is composed mainly of three committees, Miss Bitner pointed out.

One group is engaged with the Dean's Advisory Board to examine and evaluate the curriculum in the Teachers College, while tutoring high school students in various academic subjects is the function of another committee.

Acquainting high school students with Teachers College is the primary purpose of a third committee, Miss Bitner added.

'U.S. Fear Image Encourages Reds'

By Julie Morris Senior Staff Writer

The wife of the president of Nationalist China said in Lincoln Thursday that the United States presents "an image of fear to the Chinese Communists which encourages their planned military world expansionism."

Madame Chiang Kai-Shek said, "It is unfortunate that on matters of foreign policy, the United States conveys to neutrals, skeptics, fence-sitters, as well as the Chinese Communists, an image of fear through using what might be described as timidity and a technique of push, pull, . . . in dealing with the Chinese Communists."

In an hour-long address at the all-student convocation, Madame Chiang said the present terrorist activities within Red China and the purge of "hard-core Communist Party members" is evidence of Communist China's plan to enslave the world. She indicated that the purge of the party's own members may mean the regime may be destroyed from within.

"I think this is the beginning of the end" for the Mao regime, Madame Chiang said at a press conference following the convocation. She referred to Mao Tse-tung, the leader of Communist China.

Madame Chiang, on the last lap of a year long visit in the country, said the answer to the problem of Red China is to "bash in the door with

Changes In Electing Proposed By AWS

Communication between AWS Board and University women will be strengthened if constitutional changes are approved in the AWS ratification election Oct. 19, according to Candy May, chairman of the constitution committee.

Election preparations will include orientations presented by AWS Board members and representatives to every campus living unit Oct. 10-14, Miss May explained.

Women will be informed of the philosophy behind the constitutional changes and the contents of the revised bylaws. Miss May added that the Board members will also stress to coeds the importance of participating in the election.

The ballot will be comprised of four main sections of changes to be voted upon. They include election procedures, initiative and referendum, recall and structure changes, Miss May stated.

"The change in election procedure is the most important revision which was made," Miss May stressed, "because formerly the main criticism which University women made about AWS was that the Board was untouchable."

Miss May noted that if the constitution election changes are approved, either a nomination by AWS Board members or a petition signed by three per cent of the University women will enable a coed to be slated for a position on AWS Board.

"Previously only the AWS Board members had the authority to slate candidates for election," Miss May said. Utilizing initiative and referendum changes, women obtaining a petition signed by three per cent of the University coeds, would be able to bring an item before AWS Board to be reconsidered or to be adopted, Miss May continued.

An approval of recall revisions would give women authority to remove an AWS

Odd Bodkins

Don't just sit there, Wallace Middendorp. Make a noise. Or drink Sprite, the noisy soft drink.

What did you do when Joe (Boxcar) Brkczpluj was kicked off the football team just because he flunked six out of four of his majors? What did you do, Wallace Middendorp?

And when the school newspaper's editors resigned in protest because the Chancellor wouldn't allow the publication of certain salacious portions of "Night in a Girl's Dormitory" you just sat, didn't you? You've made a mockery of your life, Wallace Middendorp! You're a vegetable. Protest, Wallace Middendorp. Take a stand. Make a noise! Or drink Sprite, the noisy soft drink. Open a bottle of Sprite at the next campus speak-out. Let it fizz and bubble to the masses. Let its lusty carbonation echo through the halls of ivy. Let its tart, tingling exuberance infect the crowd with excitement. Do these things, Wallace Middendorp. Do these things, and what big corporation is going to hire you?
