

AWS Plans Programs For 'Focus'

AWS will present an expanded Standards Week beginning Oct. 20 with a "Focus on Coeds" kick-off desert, according to Ann Boyles, AWS Board member.

Miss Boyles said the purpose of the desert is to acquaint AWS workers, representatives and advisers with the programs planned for "Focus on Coeds".

Displays, emphasizing various aspects of women's standards, will be viewed in the Nebraska Union Pan American room Oct. 25.

A contest will be sponsored by AWS to select the ten best dressed University coeds. The winners will be featured as models at a style show Oct. 25 in the Nebraska Union ballroom, Miss Boyles said.

Mortar Board members will conduct a Graduate Seminar for University women Oct. 26. Dr. Joyce Brothers, a noted psychiatrist and author of several books in the field of psychoanalysis, will address students Oct. 27 in the Union ballroom, Miss Boyles stated.

AWS has also scheduled a Vocational Seminar for Nov. 1. Concluding "Focus on Coeds" will be "Challenge of Creativity," a fine arts show Nov. 3 at 7 p.m. in Sheldon Art Gallery.

Talent Mart To Judge Acts In Publicity Book

Friday is the registration deadline for the Talent Mart to be sponsored Saturday morning by the Nebraska Union Music Committee.

Groups wishing to perform in the Talent Mart should sign up in the Nebraska Union program office and pay a $1 registration fee which will cover the cost of printing a publicity brochure. They may also include a picture to be printed in the brochure.

A panel of judges will rate the performers on their act, ability, presentation and audience appeal. The ratings will be kept confidential, said Jennifer Marshall, committee chairman but will be available for people interested in hiring the groups to perform.

Judges are Dr. Stephen Cole, assistant professor of Raymond Miller, of the music department; Harold McCord, manager of the Inter-Com Club; Richard Scott, Nebraska Union program manager; Miss Marshall; and Kathy Augustin, assistant committee chairman.

Groups Must Buy Space By Friday

Organizations wishing to purchase space in the 1967 Cornhusker should contact the Cornhusker business office between 1 and 4 p.m. before Friday, according to Bob Beckman, Cornhusker assistant business manager.

He added that groups can not have Cornhusker space unless the staff is notified by Friday.

A brochure will be printed listing the names of the performers and a description of their acts and will be distributed in Lincoln and surrounding areas.

"This is a great opportunity for combos, folk singers, comedians and pianists to advertise their talents," Miss Marshall said.

The talent mart will be held in the small auditorium of the Nebraska Union from 9 to 12 a.m. Saturday.

Miss Marshall also announced that Take Five, the musical program fashioned after the Hyde Park Forum, will begin Oct. 18.

Driver's Licenses Due For Renewal

University students under 21 must renew their Nebraska driver's licenses by Oct. 31. The old licenses expired Sept. 1. Previously called probationary licenses, the new licenses have the word "minor" printed on them.

Licenses cost two dollars and can either be renewed at the Nebraska county of the student's residence or at the Lancaster County Courthouse, showing the student's Lincoln address.

When the student becomes 21 he may turn in his "minor" license for an "adult" variety that is renewed every two years.

If minors do not renew their licenses by Oct. 31, they must pay five dollars and take the licenses examination.

Shanks To Speak On Brutality

A Round-cut or Marquise?

Which diamond shall it be? It's a matter of preference plus your own personality! Each has as much flashing fire as the other. Each has an aura of femininity. From there on, however, these sets go separate ways: the marquise tailored, glittering and effectively simple - the round beautifully curved and graceful.

This is your chance, Student #7026941. Drink Sprite and be somebody.

MR. BIG

Take heart. Take a drink. Then take a bottle of Sprite from the nearest pop machine.

Suddenly it's in your hand. Cold. Biting. Tart and tingling. You cackle fiendishly and rub your hands together. (You should; they're probably chilled to the bone by now.) You tear off to a corner, alone, but within earshot of your fellows.

And then? And then? And then you unleash it. SPRITE! It fizzes! It roars! It bubbles with good cheer!

Heads turn. Whisperings. "Who's that strangely fascinating student with the arch smile. And what's in that curious green bottle that's making such a racket?"

And you've arrived! The distinctive taste and ebullient character of Sprite has set you apart. You're somebody, uh...uh, whoever-you-are.

SPRITE. SO TART AND TINGLING. WE JUST COULDN'T KEEP IT QUIET.

DEAR REB:

Art student keeps getting the brush-off.

DEAR REB:
I'm a regular Renoir on the canvas, but on campus I just don't seem to make the scene. There was one campus curie that used to admire my paintings, but now she's too busy admiring some guy's new Dodge Dart. She says riding in this guy's Dart is like art; every time they go out, they draw a crowd. What can I do? I just have to see this girl again. It's not that I'm in love with her, I haven't finished her portrait yet.

COLOR ME BLUE

DEAR COLOR ME BLUE:
Make your next sitting at your Dodge Dealer's. After you find out how easy it is to own a Dart, you'll be out painting the town. And don't worry about finishing the portrait. With Dart, you'll find you have many models to choose from. Get the picture?

Sincerely,
Reb

Here's the picture that's worth a thousand ah's. '67 Dodge Dart GT. Dart gives you more show and go than ever before, and it still has that nice low price. Plus a long list of standard equipment. Like padded instrument panel, padded sun visors, outside rearview mirror, carpeting and so much more.
