AUF-Beat Dance Takes In $1,100 For Fund Drive

AUF has begun their charity drive successfully by taking in $1,100 at the AUF-Beat dance, according to Bev Armstrong, AUF treasurer.

The dance was more successful than last year, according to Miss Armstrong. The increased profit was attributed to the fact that the dance was held in the Union instead of the coliseum, and that this year's combos were not as expensive as those in previous years.

The All University Fund is currently conducting their student drive which will continue until Thanksgiving vacation. The AUF goal for this year has been set at $6,000.

The sorority and fraternity drives are being conducted by house representatives.

AUF Vice-President Linda Mahoney reported that the Gamma Phi Beta and Theta Xi pledge classes are selling their tickets to the Oklahoma game and will give the money to the AUF drive.

SDS Films To Feature Vietnam, Newark Group

Two films about community organizing and the Vietnam war will be shown throughout the week in University dormitories and classes. The films are sponsored by Students for a Democratic Society (SDS).

The films, "Time of the Locusts" and "The Troublemakers", were shown Sunday in the Nebraska Union small auditorium to an audience of SDS members.

They decided that because of the relevance of the subjects to students, private showings would be set-up at living units.

The films were brought to campus by Carl Davidson, national vice president of SDS and formerly a graduate assistant at the University, who is visiting the University SDS chapter for a week.

"Locusts" is a film that "tries to bring the reality of war home," according to Davidson. It was produced by the American Friends Service Committee and the Inter-University Committee for Debate on Foreign Policy.

The film was spliced together from American and

YWCA Cabinet Endorses Civil Rights Non-Violence

The University YWCA has voted to support a national Y policy endorsing a statement of Negro Civil Rights leaders that pledges a continuance of the non-violent tradition in the Civil Rights movement.

The action was taken by the YWCA senior cabinet at their Thursday meeting. Cabinet members said their move is part of a nationwide movement among local student and community YWCA organizations to take a definite stand on the Civil Rights movement with focus on the upcoming elections.

The national "Y" statement, printed in the New York Times Oct. 24, called upon "women who care" to support the spirit of the Crisis and Commitment paper also printed in the Times Oct. 14 and signed by Negro Civil Rights leaders.

"We repudiate any strategies of violence, reprisal or vigilantism, and we condemn both rioting and the demagoguery that feeds it, for these are the final resort of despair, and we have not yielded to despair," the statement reads.

The statement includes a strong note supporting the concept of attainment of the courts and legislation.

"We cannot ignore the signs of retreat by white America from the national commitment to racial justice," the statement continues.

"We have seen the appeal of bigotry elevated to a major political instrument with votes being won and won across the nation by exploiting the so-called 'white backlash.'"

The leaders warn that America may be in the same position now, in abandoning the Civil Rights movement, as was the nation in the days after the Emancipation Proclamation, when action failed to follow the liberation of the Negro slaves.

"Then, as now the voice of temporary liberalism sounded discouragement and disillusionment with the capacity of the freedom for full citizenship," the statement reads.

Houses Flip Pancakes To Aid LARC

A Gourmet Pancake Feed sponsored by Phi Kappa Psi fraternity and Gamma Phi Beta sorority will be held Nov. 13 from 4:30 to 7:30 p.m. at the Gamma Phi house.

Proceeds from the charity pancake feed will be contributed to the Lancaster Association for Retarded Children (LARC).

Last year this philanthropic project raised $400 to the State Hospital for children's equipment.

Tickets may be purchased this week for $1 per person or $1.75 per couple at a booth in the Nebraska Union or from members of both houses. Tickets will also be sold at the door.

The final selection for the Outstanding Professorship Award will be made Dec. 10 and the award recipient will be announced at the Spring Honors Convocation.

Call
To Women Who Care

We, as members of the Cabinet of the University of Nebraska YWCA, support the National Board of the YWCA of the United States of America in their call upon women who care* to take affirmative action to further the realization of the human dignity of all people. "Women must not hide behind reports of so-called backlash. Women dare not retreat from the faith that, we, in America, are capable of building a nation in which goodwill, justice and freedom are the controlling forces."

WE JOIN IN THE call upon women who care to "VOTE and get others to exercise their responsibility as citizens in the forthcoming elections."

"JOIN US to work for open occupancy in housing—so basic to an open society."
