With Cinder Titles In Sight . . . Cornhusker Track Opens Saturday

By Mike Babeck
Sports Writer

With visions of a near championship in last year's Big Eight indoor track finals still lingering in their heads, members of the Nebraska track team open their 1967 indoor season by hosting Kansas State Saturday afternoon.

The Wildcats from Manhattan, led by Big Eight mile champion, Conrad Nightingale, are the first step in a series of four home meets prior to the Big Eight indoor meet, March 3 and 4 in Kansas City.

Football fans will probably recognize Kansas State hurdler Cornelius Davis. Davis was a first team halfback selection on last season's All Big Eight Conference football team.

Referring to last year's team Coach Frank Sevigne says, "It'll be hard to duplicate what was perhaps the best track team this University ever had, which was, in fact, the best team I've ever coached."

Last year's impressive record included a second place finish in the Big Eight indoor meet, first place in the outdoor conference finals, third nationally indoors and fourth place in the NCAA outdoor championships.

Despite the graduation of stars Dave Crook, Peter Scott, Lynn Headley and school shotput record holder Jim Beltzer, the Huskers should make a strong showing in the conference.

Charlie Greene, the Nebraska sprint star who has made a habit of winning will not compete against Kansas State due to an injury, but will undoubtedly be around when the medals are awarded at the Big Eight Indoor Championships.

Along with Greene, the Huskers have last season's hurdles champ Ray Harvey and the outdoor champ Dave Kudron. Harvey, who has equalled the world's record in the 60-yard low hurdles with a time of 6.7 seconds, will probably also see duty in the 60-yard dash.

Kudron, who is only a junior, may also compete on the mile relay team.

These men and several others cause Coach Sevigne to look on the Huskers as being strong contenders for conference laurels again this season.

Teamwork, Orduna Bring IM Titles

Teamwork was the word for Farm House and Orduna the word for Seaton II in the intramural indoor track finals Wednesday

Farm House tallied 55.2 points without a single first place finish in capturing the fraternity portion of competition over runnerup Delta Tau Delta.

Victories in the 60 yd. high and low hurdles, broad jump and high jump by Orduna, a freshman of Omaha Central fame, led Seaton II to the Independent championship over Abel IV and Fairfield.

Joel Meier, Superintendent of intramural sports for men said the standings of the teams below Farm House and Seaton II may be subject to change because the pole vault due to the absence of poles, has been postponed, pending their arrival.

Don Sidle of Oklahoma State and Don Smith of Iowa State are the leaders in the scoring columns. Sidle's 27-point average is the best in the conference. Smith is just behind him with a 25.7 average.
