Ten Named As Finalists For May Queen

Ten University coeds have been named as finalists for the May queen title. The winner will be chosen in an election of all junior and senior women on Wednesday and will reign over the traditional Ivy Day ceremonies May 6.

The finalists were elected from a field of approximately 50 applicants by votes cast by junior and senior women. The elections are held under the auspices of Mortar Board.

The finalists include Barbara Atkinson, Dede Darland, Halle Drake, Natalie Hahn, Ruth Ann Larson, Joan McClymont, Sally

Morrow, Polly Rhynalds, Diane Smith and Karen Westerberg.

Miss Atkinson is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority, Builders, Angel Flight and was vice president of Little Sisters of Minerva. She is a senior in Teachers College.

YWCA vice president and AWS Board member, Miss Darland is scholarship chairman for Alpha Delta Pi sorority and a senior in both Teachers college and Arts and Sciences.

A senior in Teachers college, Miss Drake is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority and Family Project. She is also a former member of Red Cross and Angel Flight.

Miss Hahn is a senior in Home Economics and past president of Phi Mu sorority. She has also served as president of East Union Council, Theta Sigma Phi, journalism honorary, historian and a member of the Dean's Advisory Board for the school of home economics.

A senior in Teachers college, Miss Larson is ACE president, a member of Angel Flight, personnel chairman for Chi Omega sorority, and is Princess Athena.

Miss McClymont is a student senator, chairman of Masters' Week, past president of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and a past member of the Arts and Science Advisory Board. She is a senior in Arts and Sciences and was in Ivy Day court last May.

A Career Scholar and senior in Arts and Science, Miss Morrow is vice president of Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority and a former member of Student Senate and the Arts and Sciences Advisory Board.

Miss Rhynalds is a senior in Teachers College and a member of the AWS Senior Key committee. She has served as copy editor for the Daily Nebraskan, and Blueprint magazine, president of Sigma Kappa sorority and a member of Angel Flight.

Vice president of AWS and Alpha Phi sorority, Miss Smith is a senior in Arts and Sciences and has served as a Builders chairman and a member of 1966 Ivy Day Court.

Miss Westerberg is a senior in Teacher college, student senate associate chairman and U.N.S.E.A. vice president. She is Alpha Xi Delta sorority membership chairman and has served as a Red Cross chairman.

Bill May Replace . . . Tuition Resolution Would Set State Policy

A legislative resolution which would set policy on University tuition rates may be replaced by a bill.

Sen. Terry Carpenter Friday got legislative permission to delay action on LR6 for ten days to give him time to prepare a bill that could replace it.

LR6, now re-scheduled for floor debate Monday March 13, calls for a legislative policy decision that students at state high education institutions pay not more than one-third of the costs of their education. The other two-thirds would be paid by the state tax funds.

Resolution Introduced

The resolution was introduced by Sens. Ross Rasmussen and Richard Marvel and drew support from the University administration and Student Senate at a public hearing a month ago.

Carpenter had earlier criticized the resolution as being too weak and said that a bill should replace it. Rasmussen said he did not submit the resolution as a bill because he felt he could not get legislative approval of a bill. A bill would put the body on record more forcefully than a resolution would.

Under the resolution's terms, it would be advisable for non-residents to pay two-thirds of their educational costs.

Tuition Recommendations

The tuition recommendations offered by Gov. Norbert Tiemann would have students pay 37 per cent of their educational costs. The University figures students now pay 40 to 43 per cent of costs. University officials use a different calculation system than the governor's office does.

Carpenter had criticized Tiemann for his tuition proposals. He said he does not feel University tuition should be raised "a quarter."

Panel To Discuss Housing Issue

A panel discussion on the housing issue will be held next Thursday, according to Kenneth Rawie, who organized the discussion.

The discussion will be held in the Pan American Room of the Nebraska Union at 3:30 p.m. Rawie stated that union Talks and Topics has agreed to cancel Hyde Park Thursday.

He said that the topic of the discussion would be the university housing policy in general "with digressions depending on the housing situation next Thursday. In other words, whatever is the center of interest next week."

The discussion, which will be sponsored by Abel IV, will have as its members Ed Schwarzkopf, a member of the Board of Regents and Robert Ross, dean and vice chancellor for student Affairs.

Also appearing will be Helen Snyder, associate dean of student affairs; and Terry Schaaf, president of ASUN, Dick Schulze, chairman of the Student Conduct committee, will serve as moderator.

Rawie explained that the discussion format calls for initial statements by each member of the panel.

"Schwarzkopf will explain the Regents and University's responsibility to the state in regard to housing, Miss Snyder will explain the history and development of the housing regulations and how she interprets the change in attitudes of the students," Rawie stated.

Teachers College To Vote On Advisory Constitution

A referendum on the constitution of proposed Teachers College Student Advisory Board will be held Monday and Tuesday according to Mel Schlachter, chairman of the ASUN Advisory Board Committee.

Representatives of the ASUN have been visiting education classes this week to inform Teachers College students about the proposed board.

Schlachter said the Teachers College Board would be similar to the Arts and Sciences Advisory Board which is already in operation.

The Board would give interested students a chance to participate in their education, he commented.

He referred to an Arts and Sciences committee studying the Honors program as an example of what such student boards can accomplish.

"By its very definition, Teachers College should be doing the same thing Arts and Sciences is", Schlachter stated.

"Students in Teachers College should be especially concerned with education because they are being trained as teachers," he added. "If they are not working to improve their education, they can't expect to get the kind of education they should."

Schlachter termed the Board a "chance." He said it "could fall miserably if it becomes just another activity for the gunners."

Voting booths will be set up in the main floor of Teachers College and in the Nebraska Union. Students may vote from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

If the Constitution is approved by a majority of those voting, elections for members of the new board will be held concurrently with the ASUN elections.

'Aura Of Fear' Board Hears Claims Of Wayne Teacher

A Wayne State College teacher who charged that Wayne faculty and students live under an aura of fear, will appear before the State Normal Board Monday to state his claims.

19 Grievances

The teacher, Brice Wilkinson, listed 19 grievances against the college administration and called the president, William Brandenburg, a "dictator."

Wilkinson charged there is no academic freedom outside the classroom at Wayne.

Other faculty members disagreed with Wilkinson and the faculty voted to censure him shortly after he spoke to the student body and presented his grievances to them.

1. Now that graduation's getting close, have you given any thought to the kind of work you'd like to do?

2. I want to work for The Good of Mankind!

3. Is it required?

4. I might have suspected. I'll probably grow a beard.

5. I'll be doing much the same thing. I've also lined up a job that affects society in a positive way. And if I do good, I'll move up, and my decisions will be even more important in the scheme of things.

6. You don't need them in Equitable's development program. All you need is an appetite for challenge and responsibility, and the desire to do the best possible job. The pay is tops, too.

7. But where's your beard? What about sandals?

8. All I ask is the satisfaction of knowing I'm helping to Build a Better World.

You know, I'm afraid a beard would itch—could you get me an interview with Equitable?
