STARS AND STRIKES FOREVER . . . and the baseball season starts during spring vacation. Husker hurler Bob Churchich, who may be moved from his success at third base to bolster weak Nebraska pitching, rares back and follows through with a pitch at practice this week. Churchich also led the Cornhusker football team this fall. The baseball team is taking a swing at Texas, with games at Rice March 27 and 28, and games the next four days in Houston.

Zora Folley thinks Cassius Clay's the greatest, Cassius Clay thinks Cassius Clay is the greatest, Cassius Clay's father thinks Cassius Clay is the greatest, and his Uncle Sam thinks a lot about him too.

Folley took a seventh-round knockout from the World's champion Wednesday night on the chin and didn't wake up soon enough to do much about it.

Proved Greatest

Clay, or Muhammad Ali, proved that he is the greatest boxer right now and his father went on national television after the fight to back up the statement.

But there is one other relative who is somewhat crazy about the fighter—Uncle Sam. It seems that Clay keeps getting invitations for the biggest fight he would ever be in. And he keeps refusing to try it.

Into Training

But unless the courts decide that Clay's draft appeal is valid, the champ will have to go into training for the Army, and perhaps the fight in Viet Nam.

Oh, well. It just shows you that not only University students have their troubles.

Winter Wanderland

Now that spring and spring sports are started, shades of winter still appear now and then:

Let's hope Illinois doesn't get anymore snow between warm spells—they've had enough slush trouble already this year.

Colorado Fans

Colorado fans are not ones to criticize the past basketball season. After all, they aren't given to NIT-picking. You can't help but wonder if Nebraska isn't, too.

And if you think football is a fall sport, take a look at the preparations for the spring practice season that's getting underway. Then there's summer recruiting, the season, post-season game (maybe not Alabama, huh)? and so on.

Track Meets On Tap

Two dual meets, one a rematch, dot the Husker spring vacation track schedule. Saturday the Huskers face New Mexico, whom they squeezed by indoors in Lincoln, in a triangular with Iowa State.

Charlie Greene, three times indoor and last year's outdoor NCAA sprint champion, spearheads the 21 men coach Frank Sevigne will take West.

Arizona State

The following Saturday, April 1, the Cornhusker cindermen will tangle with Arizona State at Tempe. Hurdling star Ray Harvey and 440 man Dennis Walker will co-captain the following traveling squad for New Mexico and Arizona State duals:

Sprints — Charlie Greene, Larry Liss, Cliff Forbes;

440 — Forbes, Hugh McGovern, Walker, Ron Lee; Middle Distance — Kent Radke, Les Hellbusch, Neil Knolle;

Distance — Don Bischoff, Greg Young; High Jump — Jack Todd, Steve Krebs;

Broad Jumps — Harlan Metschke of Tome O'Hara; Shot Put—Dennis Hagin; Pole Vault—Ron Fecht; Discus — Hagin;

Javelin — Kent Tarbuton; Hurdles — Harvey, John Lonnie Sherlock.

Tennis Teams' Opener April 7

The University tennis squad will open its season April 7 with a meet against Drake at Des Moines.

Dean Beebe, Roger Galloway, Robert Hurlbutt, Rodney Johnson, Gerald Roberts, William Roehrs and Gary Schovlain are the members of the tennis squad.

Medal Awards Given To Riflers

Four University students were presented with medals Wednesday evening for their performance at the Camp Perry rifle meet last week.

Manfred Wunderlich, Tim Stroh, Alan Anderson and Cliff Beade each received a silver medal for second-place team score at the meet.

Gold Medal Wunderlich was also awarded a gold medal by Col. James F. Bishop, professor of military science, for first place prone with a perfect 100 points and six consecutive bullseyes in shoot-off rounds.

He was also high individual team member with 274 out of a possible 300 points.

UCLA's Alcindor is a fake.

Alcindor greets you with a curt "NO COMMENT". He's a plastic man. He's a cold, methodical, basketball machine.

Don't you believe it. This month's Sport Magazine slices through a maze of UCLA red tape and gets to the heart of the man.
