

By George!

By George Kaufman

One of Nebraska's finest athletes started out his NU career sitting on the bench three years ago, and he's going to finish it sitting on the bench.

But in-between he's set several records and given Husker fans some of the finest moments in the school's history while proving that football can be more than a muscle contest.

Bob Churchich, all-Big Eight quarterback and baseball player, was thrown out of the NU spotlight by a sudden accident.

It was an early-season game at Ames. Front-line pilot Fred Duda rolled out to the right, was pursued by several Cyclone defenders and was thrown onto the sidelines by a jarring tackle. He didn't get up.

Duda was out for the season with a broken leg, a loss which would break the back of almost any contending team in the nation.

Led Huskers

But Bob Churchich was called in and not only led the Huskers back to a victory against Iowa State in what he calls one of his greatest thrills, but guided NU to another Big Eight title and post-season session.

Bob is somewhat soft-spoken about his accomplishments, but admits that he would like to enter professional football or baseball next year, preferably baseball.

And his chances were darn good, especially baseball. That is they were until he was sent right back to the bench by another sudden accident. He broke his hand while diving back into first base last week-end.

Past Performance

This means that any team which hires him will have to take him on past performance, which, considering it's Bob Churchich isn't such a large request.

Last year Bob led the league in hitting and turned in a respectable pitching job.

More Than Prowess

But the Omaha athlete has more than just prowess on the field. He has a good attitude about himself and NU, and had the dignity to offer no excuses after the Sugar Bowl game against Alabama.

It would have been easy to argue, as many off the field that day did, that post-season games are not a true test of any team, that Nebraska was playing a southern team in the South, to point to "breaks," of which there were many real ones, etc.

Didn't Use Them

I offered these out to Bob when discussing that game with him, but he didn't use any of them.

"Alabama was a real good team," he says of the Tide. "They are real quick and didn't make any mistakes—which we did—and any good team should take advantage of the opponent's mistakes."

Quarterback For '67 May Show Up In Tilt

The Cornhuskers' quarterback to pilot next season's football team may show up in the Nebraska spring football game at Seacrest Field this Saturday at 2 p.m.

Husker Golfers Host 2 Foes

Kansas State, the only Big Eight team to beat Nebraska this season, and South Dakota tee off against Nebraska Saturday at Holmes Park to cap a busy week's work, a feature of this year's All Sports Day.

Nebraska entertained braska split last weekend Omaha University and the Huskers have already defeated this season.

Kansas State and Nebraska dominated the Friday affair, 9-6, and the Wildcats nudged Nebraska 8-7 on Saturday.

Coach Harry Good's team has now compiled a 15-2 record this season.

Tennis Meets

Two tennis matches are scheduled for this week at the University courts.

Defending Big Eight champion Oklahoma and Kansas State, a contender for this year's title, will play Nebraska twice this weekend. Triple duals will be played on Friday and Saturday, as part of All Sports Day.

Diamond, Oval Action On Tap

The Nebraska track and baseball squads invade Boulder this weekend for diamond and oval action against Colorado's Buffaloes.

Originally scheduled as a Saturday meet, the Husker-Buff track dual has been advanced to Friday afternoon. Nebraska Coach Frank Sevine was elated over his team's showing at the Drake Relays, particularly the great performance of premier sprinter Charlie Greene.

Greene won the special 100-meter race with a tremendous 10.1, his fastest clocking at the Olympic distance, and anchored the Husker 440-yard relay team to a blistering 40.5 record-tying victory. Charlie was credited with a .09.9 last leg over the 110-yard route.

"Come around now," Sevine said. "We've had an exceptionally tough spring—the toughest outdoor schedule in my 12 years at Nebraska with teams like Arizona State, New Mexico and Wisconsin."

The exhibition will include interpretation of rules and a scrimmage. Representatives from living units with intramural water polo teams are encouraged to attend.

Polo Exhibit

A water polo exhibition open to the public will be held Saturday from 8 to 11 a.m. at the Coliseum Pool, according to John Reta, swimming coach.

The exhibition will include interpretation of rules and a scrimmage. Representatives from living units with intramural water polo teams are encouraged to attend.

Nebraska's hard-luck baseball team, with only four conference victories in twelve starts, is now without the services of all Big Eight and all-America star Bob Churchich. He had two fingers broken against Missouri last week and will be out for the season.

Allen Furby, the first Nebraska pitcher to complete a full game this season (defeating Missouri 4-1) will start the first of Friday's doubleheader. Bob Sticksels or Keith Winter will start the second game, according to Coach Tony Sharpe.

Mick Zangari, whose almost flawless effort against ended in a 1-1 darkness deadlock, will start Saturday's nine inning game. Nebraska's season record stands at 5-12.
