

Monday, May 8, 1967

University of Nebraska

CROWNING THE QUEEN . . . Natalie Hahn crowns May Queen Joan McClymont at Ivy Day Saturday. Miss McClymont and Miss Hahn were elected by a vote of all the junior and senior women in this year's AWS election.

Darryl Gless, Pam Wood Head Innocents And Mortar Boards

Eighteen coeds were tapped as Mortar Boards during Saturday's Ivy Day ceremonies making a total of 19 new Mortar Boards. Lynn Von Seggern, a student at the University's School of Nursing in Omaha had previously been tapped.

The new president of Mortar Boards is PAM WOOD of Omaha. She is a Nebraska Career Scholar and a member of Alpha Lambda Delta and Pi Lambda Theta honoraries.

Miss Wood has served as president of Delta Gamma and president of the Nebraska Union. She was selected as the Ideal Nebraska Coed and has been active in Student Senate, Builders and Kernels.

The new vice president of Mortar Boards is JOANN CHRISTENSEN of Lincoln. She is a member of Pi Lambda Theta and Sigma Alpha Eta honoraries and has served as vice president of the Nebraska Union.

She has also served as chairman and vice president of the All-University Fund and as a moderator of the Presbyterian Youth Synod. In addition she has been Gamma Phi Beta's rush chairman and social chairman.

The new secretary of Mortar Boards is KRIS BITNER of Sidney, who is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, Rho Alpha and Pi Lambda Theta honoraries.

Miss Bitner has served as vice president of Kappa Alpha Theta, first vice president of UNSEA, several committees for Student Senate and has been active in Quiz Bowl, YWCA, Red Cross and the Nebraska Union.

The new treasurer of Mortar Boards is ANN WINDLE of Lincoln, a Regents' scholar and a member of Alpha Lambda Delta.

Miss Windle has served as president of AWS, Panhellenic scholarship council committee chairman, vice president of Tassels, a member of the Dental College Student Council and president of Alpha Chi Omega.

The new historian of Mortar Boards is NANCY COUFAL of Seward. She is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta and Delta Sigma Rho-Tau Kappa Alpha honoraries and is a Regents' scholar.

Miss Coufal is an AWS board member, a member of the senior debate team, activities chairman of Chi Omega, a member of a Quiz Bowl team and a Student Senate associate.

LIZ AITKEN, of Lincoln, is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, a Regents' scholar and secretary of the Arts and Sciences Advisory Board.

Miss Aitken has served on the Student Senate, has been secretary of Kappa Alpha Theta and has been a two-year columnist for the Daily Nebraskan.

BARB AHLSECHWEDE of Malcolm is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta.

She has served on the YWCA as Christmas bazaar chairman and president of Freshmen Weekend. She has also served as rush chairman of Alpha Xi Delta.

DOROTHY DERING of Lincoln is vice president of Phi Upsilon Omicron honorary and has received Luther Drake and Grace Morton scholarships.

She has served as program

chairman for Hospitality Day and has been a president and vice president of Towne Club.

SUSAN DIFFENDERFER, of Lincoln, is a Career Scholar and a member of the Teachers College Advisory Board. She also received the Kiwanis leadership scholarship.

She has served as vice president and president of UNSEA and director of the Lincoln Youth Employment Service and received honorable mention in the American Academy of Poets contest. She has served as secretary of Chi Omega.

LYNN GROSSCUP, of Lincoln is a junior board member of Tassels and member of Kernels.

She has served as a Student Council Senate Associate, is a member of Little Sisters of Minerva and standards chairman of Gamma Phi Beta.

KAREN JONES of Lincoln is a member of Builders, Nebraska Union trips and tours committee chairman and YWCA juvenile court.

She has also served on the AWS key committee and Angel Flight and as rush chairman and vice president of Alpha Phi.

ELAINE KALLOS of Hastings has served for three years on AWS board and has been president of Pound Hall.

She has also been chairman of the ASUN centennial committee and is a member of UNSEA.

TRUDY LIEBERMAN of Scottsbluff is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, Theta Sigma Phi and Phi Upsilon Omicron honoraries.

She has received a journal ism gold key award and has been publicity chairman for Home Economics Hospitality Day and president of Sigma Delta Tau.

JUDY MAHAR is the newly appointed editor of the Cornhusker for next year.

She has served on the Student Senate publicity committee and as information officer and commander of Angel Flight. She has also served as activities chairman and vice-president of Gamma Phi Beta and is a staff member and columnist of the Daily Nebraskan.

SUSIE PHELPS of Lincoln is a member of Theta Sigma Phi and the Arts and Sciences Advisory Board.

She has served the Student Senate as a worker, senator and on the student conduct and academic research committees. She is also editorial page editor of the Daily Nebraskan.

SUSIE SITORJUS of Gothenburg is a Nebraska Career Scholar who has served as public relations chairman of the Nebraska Union and information officer for Angel Flight.

Tassels, Red Cross and AWS and president of Alpha Delta Pi sorority.

GEORGIA STEVENS of Lexington is a Nebraska Career Scholar, and chaplain of Phi Upsilon Omicron honorary.

She has served as chairman of Senior Information Days for the Nebraska Human Research Foundation, secretary of East Nebraska Union, historian of University 4-H Club and education chairman for Home Economics Hospitality Days.

STEPH TINAN of Mitchell S.D. is president of Tassels, president of Little Sisters of Minerva and Coed Follies chairman.

She has also been active in Nebraska Union, Builders, People-to-People and Newman Club. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

LYNN VON SEGGERN of Craig is enrolled in the School of Nursing. She is a member of the Nebraska and National Student Nurses Association, state chairman of special projects for the Nebraska Association and delegate to the national convention.

She has also been elected as a candidate for national office in the Student Nurses' Association.

Joan McClymont Voted Queen; Reigns Over 27 Court Members

A Holdrege coed, Joan McClymont, was crowned May Queen at the 78th observance of the Ivy Day festivities.

Natalie Hahn of Hartington was revealed as Miss McClymont's maid of honor.

Miss McClymont is a senior in the College of Arts and Sciences. She is past president of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, a student senator, chairman of the 1967 Masters Committee and piano winner of the Lincoln Symphony auditions.

Home Ec. Senior
Miss Hahn is a senior in the College of Agriculture and Home Economics. She was an Ak-Sar-Ben Countess last year, a member of the Deans' Advisory Board in the School of Home Economics and Phi Mu sorority.

The May Queen and her maid of honor were chosen by a vote of all junior and senior women.

Twenty-two women were chosen by the Mortar Boards to serve as members of the May Day Court. Four freshmen coeds were also chosen as pages.

Court Members

Members of the Court included: ANN BLACKSTONE, a senior from Bridgeport; she has served on the regional board of the United Campus Christian Fellowship and the Independent Women's Association Board; she has been co-president of Pound Hall.

DELETTA DARLAND, a senior from North Platte, has served as vice-president of YWCA, is a Regents' scholar, a member of Alpha Lambda Delta and Phi Beta Kappa scholastic honoraries and Alpha Delta Pi.

POLLY RHYNALDS of Western, a senior, has served as president of Sigma Kappa, a member of the AWS key committee, a copy editor for the Daily Nebraskan and the Nebraska Blue Print Magazine.

KATHY SHATTUCK, a senior from Hastings, has been a member of the varsity Debate team, president of Young Republicans, recording secretary for Student Senate, president of Delta Sigma Rho-Tau Kappa Alpha honoraries, and has been a columnist for the Daily Nebraskan.

LUCY COMSTOCK, a senior from Fremont, directed the Kosmet Klub Fall Revue, did the choreography for the University Theater production of "As You Like It," is a member of Pi Lambda Theta honorary and Delta Gamma.

JUDY TRUMBLE, is a senior from Papillion, has served as president of 4-H Club, president of Omicron Nu honorary and vice-president of Chi Omega.

DONNI MACLAY, a senior from Norfolk, has been vice-president of Tassels, a member of Alpha Lambda Delta honorary, secretary of AUF and a member of Delta Gamma.

DIENE McDONALD, a junior from Arlington Heights, Ill., served as this year's chairman of Greek Week, past secretary of Panhellenic, and is a member of Pi Beta Phi.

ANN BOYLES, a junior from Omaha, is treasurer of Builders, secretary of AUF, AWS board and vice-president of Delta Gamma.

ANDREA WARREN, a junior from Superior, has served as treasurer of AWS and ASUN, a member of Young Republicans, and student assistant of Sandoz Hall.

JENNIFER MARSHALL, a junior from Lincoln, is a Nebraska Union committee chairman, a Regents' scholar and a member of Gamma Phi Beta.

LUCINDA PAULEY, a junior from Harlan, Ia., serves as vice-president of Tassels, secretary of Builders, and president of Gamma Phi Beta.

JAN ITKIN, a junior from Omaha, has served as news editor of the Daily Nebraskan, a member of Theta Sigma Phi honorary, and vice-president of Sigma Delta Tau.

PEGGY BLUE, a junior from Lincoln, is vice-president of YWCA, a Spring Day chairman, past president of Aquaettes, and belongs to Pi Lambda Theta and is president of Alpha Phi.

ROBERTA KIERSTEAD, a junior from Lincoln, has played major role in the University Theater productions, is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta and Masquers.

KATHY KUESTER, a sophomore from Norfolk, is a member of Tassels, program

Three Honorary Innocents Chosen

Thirteen juniors were tackled as new members in the Innocents Society, senior men's honorary, Saturday afternoon during the Ivy Day observance. Membership is based on leadership, scholarship and service to the University.

Three honorary members were announced. They are: A. V. Sorenson, mayor of Omaha and a recent winner of a Builders Award from the University; Bob Devaney, athletic director and head football coach; Dr. John Lonquist, internationally known corn breeder and veteran professor of agronomy at the University.

Tackled as the new president is DARRYL GLESS, from Schuyler. Gless is a Career Scholar and has won the General Motors, LaVerne Noyes, Kunz Memorial and Regents' scholarships.

He has served as vice-president of Sigma Phi Epsilon, has been a student senate associate, and secretary of IFC. MIKE NERUD of Dorchester was named vice-president of Innocents. He has served as president of Alpha Gamma Rho, past president of East Union, and has been a student senator.

He has received the Builders outstanding worker award for two semesters, and has won Sears-Roebuck, Ak-Sar-Ben, Frisbie and Lincoln Junior Chamber of Commerce scholarships.

GENE POKORNY of Howells was tackled as secretary. He is a Regents' scholar, and has received the Haskell scholarship. He has served as chairman of the Arts and Sciences Advisory Board.

He has been active in the YMCA, a member of the varsity Debate squad and is next year's ASUN vice-president. He has also been a Daily Nebraskan columnist.

Last Nebraskan

Today's is the last Daily Nebraskan of the semester. Because of an early Dead Week and Finals Week no more Nebraskans will be published this year.

The Nebraskan will resume publication in the fall with the start of next semester.

Darryl Gless

Innocents

Mike Nerud

Gene Pokorny

Joel Swanson

Claude Bolton

Carl Hellbusch

Gene Hohensee

John Jorgensen

Wayne Kreuzscher

Charlie Langhoff

Jerry Olson

Ron Pfeiffer

Dick Schulze

Jump To Page 6, Col. 4

Mortar Boards

JoAnn Christensen

Kris Bitner

Ann Windle

Nancy Coufal

Liz Aitken

Barb Ahlschwede

Pam Wood

Dorothy Dering

Susie Diffenderfer

Lynn Grosscup

Karen Jones

Elaine Kallos

Trudy Lieberman

Judy Mahar

Susie Phelps

Susie Sitorius

Georgia Stevens

Steph Tinan

Lynn Von Seggern