Regents.

By Julie Morris Senior Writer

The voter-approved Student Bill of Rights will be presented to the Board of Regents in June or July. according to ASUN President Dick Schulze.

Schulze said he does not expect quick Regent action on the bill. "You can't expect them to sit down in an hour and agree with you." he said. "But by September I definitely feel they will have to make a comment or have an opinion on the Bill."

Before the Bill of Rights moves to the Regents, however, it faces study by the Faculty Senate Subcommittee on Student Affairs.

Present Rights Bill

Schulze said he hopes to present the Bill of Rights to this group "sometime this week."

The study by the facultystudent committee, under Vice Chancellor G. Robert Ross, dean of student affairs, will be the first offical faculty-administration scrutiny the bill undergoes.

Students Vote Approval

Less than a month ago, students, with over 6,000 voting, approved most of the bill's articles by large majorities. The 16 articles, amendments to the ASUN constitution thereby needing approval of the Regents who approved the ASUN constitution, were okayed a week earlier by the Senate in a six hour and 45 minute session. They will need the approval of the Board of Regents, as did the ASUN constitution.

The final Bill of Rights was the result of six months of deliberation by the ASUN Bill of Rights Committee

State. USHEA is non-profit for students. the Bill of Rights will mean their agreement that some of the present University policies challenged by the bill's statements should be changed, according to Sen. Susie Phelps, a Bill of Rights Committee member.

The Regents rejection of the bill or some parts of it would mean they do not agree that policy changes should be made, Miss Phelps said.

The 16 articles of the Bill of Rights cover areas ranging from housing policy, to student employment unions, to the right of students to determine who may see their academic records.
