

University Summer Activities

Students voice opinions in candlelit atmosphere of the Hungry Id.

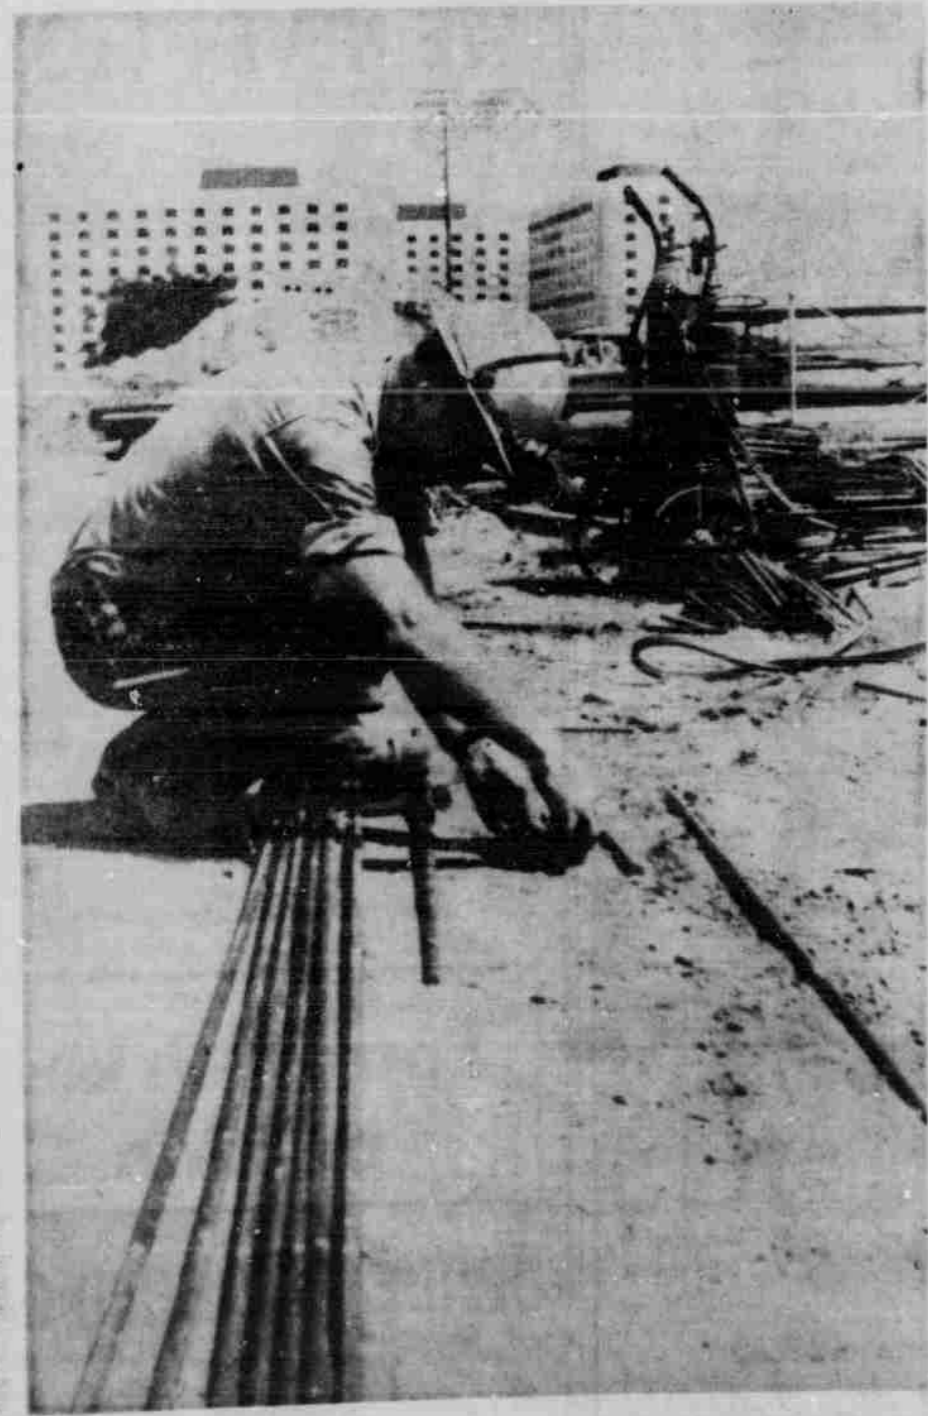

Future freshmen try out dorm meals during campus orientation.

Dr. Joseph Baldwin, author of "Loosebough the First," writes plays in spare time.

With a few moments between classes, students find time to watch television.

Amidst dust raising confusion, the University expands to erect room for increasing enrollment and football press coverage.

