(Friday Afternoon Column)

BY ED ICENOGLE

There are reports of grumbling at Grambling. A number of students there were kicked out of school for some demonstrations protesting the overemphasis of football to the exclusion of intellectual endeavors. And so the staffs of the University of Nebraska's major publications (Daily Nebraskan and Cornhusker), in a never-ending battle to bring athletics back to the students and away from the ogres of Big Time College Football, have proposed an amazing grid clash.

This spectacle of the football world will pit the Nebraskans and the Cornhuskers in the newly-created Publications Bowl.

'PIT'

And "pit" is exactly the right word: rumor has it that the Cornhuskers have no Right Guard, a deficiency that is said to leave them defenseless. The game, scheduled for 4 p.m. at Pioneer's Park at the foot of the Indian statues has brought up some serious and thought-provoking questions.

The main question being, how are 22 grid mongers going to play on the foot of that Indian?

For those unconcerned with the athletic ramparts of this football structure, consider the social implications of such a game.

First, it will show the Big Redders that there is more than one good football team on campus.

NOT DROPOUTS!

And then, this is proof positive that members of both staffs are no longer complete social dropouts, because they will have something to do on this Friday afternoon.

Now, for you non-publications minded readers, there is yet hope, also. Friday afternoon Column is now accepting membership applications in the Apathetic Students Society's Educational Survey (ASSES).

To join you need to have not voted in Monday's Vietnam war referendum. (That excludes only 952 of you.)

APATHETIC LEADER

The only other requirement for joining ASSES is to send a picture of your favorite Apathetic leader, like Hubert Humphrey or almost any Student Senator.

Weekend In Lincoln Packed With Sports

All Husker squads, except the soccer club, will see action this weekend in Lincoln.

The long four-event schedule begins at 2:30 p.m. Friday when the Husker freshman meet undefeated Iowa State in the lone yearling football battle slated for Memorial Stadium this fall.

Coach Cletus Fischer's first year men have downed Kansas State 24-0 and Missouri 24-14, while Iowa State clobbered the Missourians 40-7 two weeks ago.

FIRST WIN?

Coach Frank Sevigne will send his cross-country crew searching for its first victory at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at Pioneer's Park against Iowa State, Nebraska Wesleyan and the University of South Dakota.

The Cyclones will employ Californian Ernie Lindley, who set a four mile course record of 21:03.4 as Iowa State upended Northern Iowa for its first victory last week.

SOPH TUPPER

Nebraska will counter with sophomore Bob Tupper, who has consistently placed among the first five finishers in the Huskers four outings to date.

Saturday's three-mile race will prelude the Big Eight championships at Boulder Nov. 11 as the Huskers hopefully prepare to better 1966's last place finish.

VARSIITY FOOTBALL

The Nebraska Cornhuskers hope to find the winning path to the Big Eight title when they meet Iowa State Saturday at 2 p.m. in Memorial Stadium.

The Huskers stand 1-2 in league play while the Cyclones slate shows 1-3 as the teams battle in Nebraska's annual Band Day attraction.

featuring more than 60 high school bands.

STIFFEST BATTLE

The University Soccer Club will battle the best the Midwest Soccer League has to offer when they face the Omaha Kickers at 2 p.m. Sunday in Omaha.

The local club, 4-1-1, will face a team that last week blasted John F. Kennedy College 14-1 and defeated the Lincolinites twice in 1966.

The Soccermen have played Des Moines the last two outings losing a 4-1 match and battling the Iowans to a 1-1 tie in Lincoln last Sunday.
