

Homecoming 1967...

LET'S FACE IT . . . NU band performs superbly at Homecoming halftime.

Photo by Mike Hayman.

NEBRASKA FANS . . . react in varied ways to the action on the football field.

Gail Skinner Reigns Over Husker Win Alpha Xi's 'Railroad' Cowboys For First

The crowning of the University of Nebraska's 1967 Homecoming Queen, Gail Skinner, highlighted the Homecoming dance Friday evening at the Coliseum.

Miss Skinner represented Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Her activities include East Campus Student Union treasurer, chairman of Builders Student Foundation Committee and Phi Upsilon Omicron home economics honorary. She is also second vice president of her sorority.

Barb Boczar, who represented Pound Hall was named first attendant.

A voting tie resulted in two second attendants. Maggie Evenson represented Alpha Omicron P. and Joleen Phillips represented Sandoz Hall.

Tommy James and the Shondells saw close to 5800 people pack the coliseum in sardine-like fashion for the Homecoming dance.

Also announced at the dance were the winners of the Homecoming displays. Delta Upsilon and Gamma Phi Beta teamed up for their winning display, "Cowboys, Breakfast of Champions."

Second place was awarded to Chi Phi and Alpha Xi Delta for their display, "Railroad the Cowboys."

Five displays received honorable mention. They were, Phi Kappa Psi and Alpha Phi, "Can Can the Cowboys"; Alpha Gamma Rho and Alpha Chi Omega, "Hottest Brand Going";

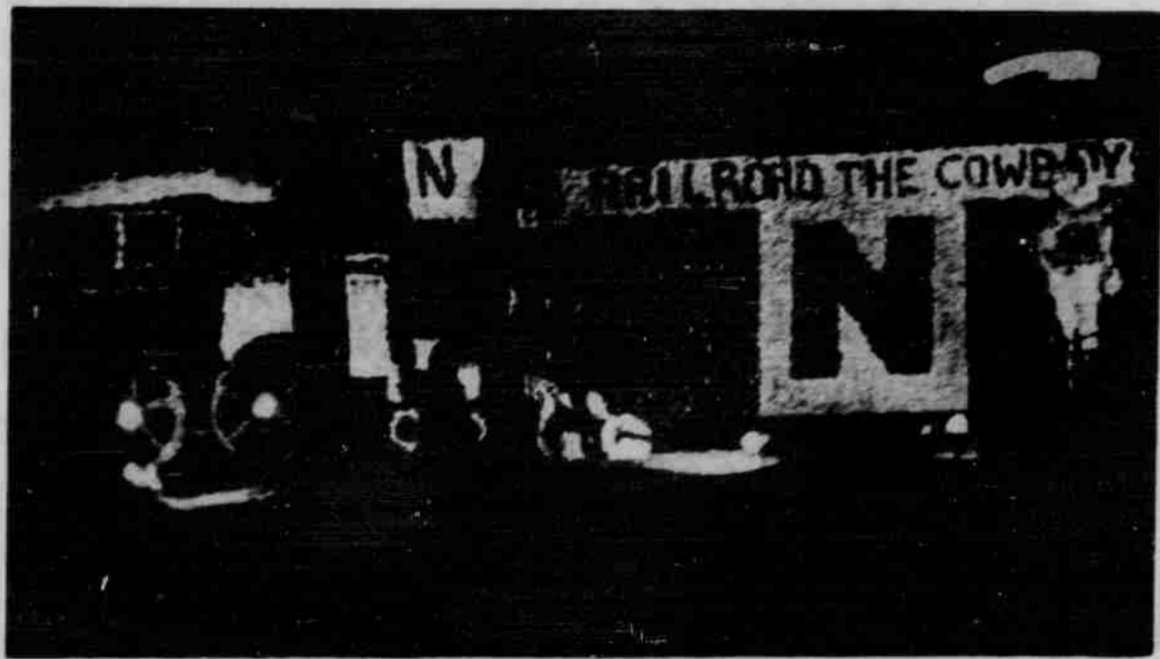

Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Alpha Omicron Pi, "Nebraska Beat Cowboys"; Phi Gamma Delta and Kappa Alpha Theta, "They'll be Surrey they came to NU" and Kappa Sigma and Kappa Kappa Gamma, "How Ya Hangin', Cowboy?"

The Huskers heeded instructions to devour, railroad, and can can the Cowboys in Saturday's 9-0 football victory. It was the third straight shutout performed by the Huskers this fall.

In addition to the regularly returning alums, sunny skies were partially responsible for the 65,461 Homecoming game attendance.

The Cornhusker marching band paid tribute to the armed services in a Veteran's Day half-time observance.

RAILROAD THE COWBOYS . . . was the theme of Alpha Xi Delta's Homecoming display.

HOMECOMING QUEEN GAIL SKINNER . . . holds a football autographed for her by the Husker team.

KEEPING A TRADITION . . . is Kimberly Coats, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Coats of Longmont, Colo. Kimberly's father and grandfather both graduated from the University.