Abel-Sandoz Residents Present Pajama Musical This Weekend

A pajama-clad cast of Abel-Sandoz residents will present the first performance of "The Pajama Game" at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Nebraska Union ballroom. The show will also be presented Friday and Saturday nights.

The musical-comedy is based on the novel "Seven-and-a-Half Cents" by Richard Bissell and George Abbott. Music and lyrics are by Richard Adler and Jerry Ross.

The play is set in the Sleep Tite Pajama Factory where angry employees go on strike for a 7 1/2-cent an hour raise.

The romance between a company executive, played by Craig Roeder, and a union striker, Kathy Gove, complicates the plot.

The show is the second annual Abel-Sandoz production. Last year residents put on Rogers' and Hammerstein's "Carousel." Director of "The Pajama Game" is Kenneth Cox, a graduate student in speech working toward his Master's degree. Mrs. Sandy Muschewski is musical director, and choreographer is Miss Nancy Standley, a Lincoln dancing teacher.

Student producer-coordinator Gary Grahmquist said all others concerned with the production are students. Sets, under the direction of Steve Frimann, are finished and will be moved to the Union ballroom Wednesday.

Tickets for the performance are $1.50 apiece and are available in the Union and from cast members.

Woodwind Program Featured Thursday

Recent works for woodwind instruments will be featured in the second of the Contemporary Music Programs sponsored by the University Music Department. The concert will be presented Nov. 30 at 8 p.m. at the Westbrook Music Building.

Robert Beadell, instructor of music, said the music, which has been produced just within the last five years, is in the experimental-chance style.

He added the chance element "is a kind of procedure where the composer creates music so that the performer is free to improvise."

Beadell explained the performer often improvises his own rhythm and pitch. He compared the experimental method to a shift in responsibility from composer to performer. He compared the innovation to jazz improvisation, although he added that type of music are on a different plane.

The program will include "Evolutions," by Felciano, performed by Jerome Kohl and Eugene O'Brien, graduate students in music theory. Donald Lentz of the music department will direct the Flute Club's performance of "Prelude," by Roger Reynolds.

"Wind Quintet," by Hovhanness, will be presented by faculty members Donald Lentz, Russell Bedrod, Jack Snider, Wesley Reiset and Robert Probasco.

Senators Face Light Schedule

Student senators have a light agenda facing them at Wednesday's meeting as a result of the Thanksgiving vacation, according to ASUN Vice-President Gene Porkorny.

The Senate will discuss the recently-published Faculty-Evaluation booklets and the upcoming Model United Nations program, he said.

Porkorny indicated the group has no old or new business to consider.

Camp Film Festival Offers Meal, Movie

High Camp Film Festival, a new phase of campus entertainment, will begin Sunday at 5:30 p.m. in the Nebraska Union cafeteria. The new program includes a meal and a movie for $1.

The Dec. 3 program features "Hail the Conquering Hero," a comedy starring Eddie Bracken as a soldier who is discharged from the army due to an allergy, but who nevertheless becomes a home town hero.

Geoff Heiden, assistant chairman of the film committee, explained that those who attend the movie will be served a hamburger basket and will be entertained by Dave Landis and Steve Ross, who will perform old Everly Brothers favorites before the movie and during reel changes.

Heiden added that the idea originated with University student Don Sutton, who urged students to contact the committee if they avored his proposal. Heiden said that the response was large enough to indicate a successful series.

The committee has tried to provide a new genre of movies for the program, Heiden said. He added that the films are not the foreign film variety or the type that would be included in the weekend series which features contemporary movies.

He said these films are old comedies and while they may have no deep message for viewers, they are entertaining and probably not available to the public today.

The films which have been chosen for the next three showings are "The Bank Dick" with W. C. Fields, "She Done Him Wrong" with Mae West and "Rock Pretty Baby" with Sal Mineo and John Saxon.

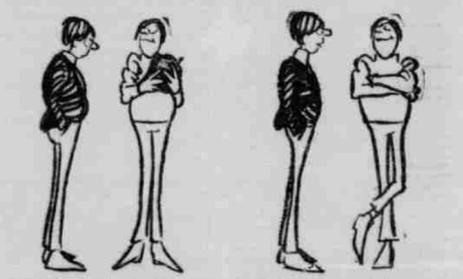

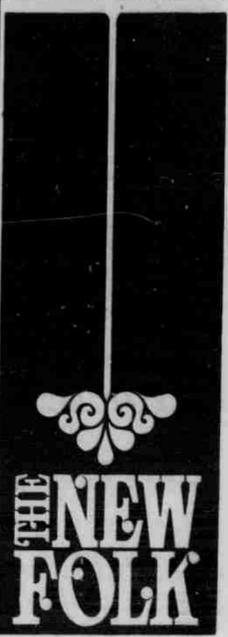

Interviews Set For Med School

The Admissions Committee of the University of Nebraska College of Medicine will have representatives in Lincoln on the afternoon and evening of December 7 and the afternoon of December 8.

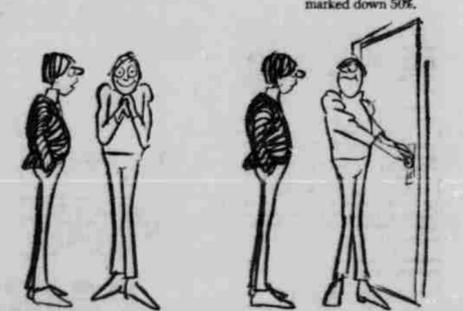

All applicants for admission to the College of Medicine in the fall of 1968 are expected to have interviews with members of this committee at that time. Each candidate should sign up for an appointment.

Signing up sheets are posted on the premedical bulletin board, located in the hall near the north door of Bessey Hall.

Further details can be obtained from the sign-up sheet, or from Dr. Paul A. Landolt, 109 Besset Hall.

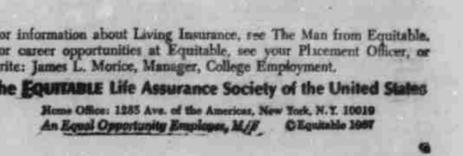

1. What's a math major doing with "The Complete Guide to the Pruning of the Breadfruit Tree"? It was a terrific buy.

2. That's what you said about the spelunking outfit you bought last week. Listen—that was marked down 50%.

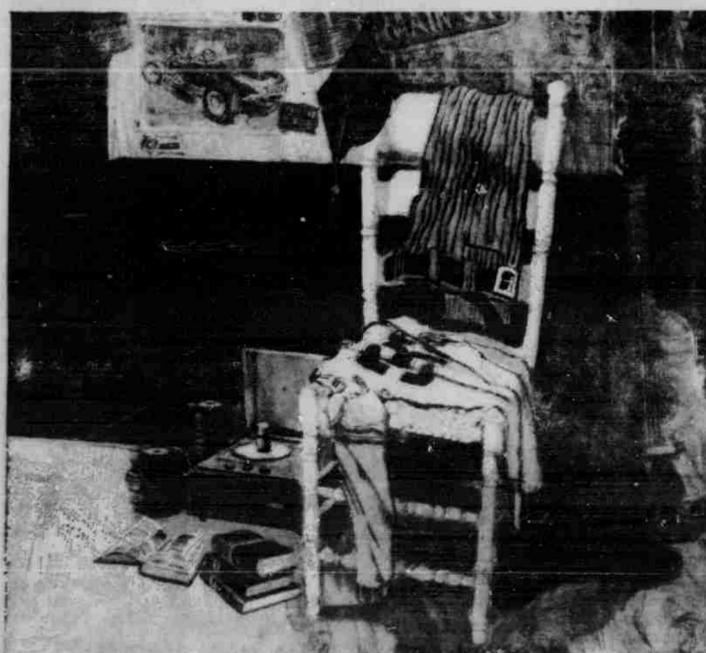

3. And the condor eggs? Could you refuse 2 dozen for the price of one?

4. No wonder you're always broke. But look at the buys I got! I'll take two!
