

the N crowd

The Olympic Committee may have unwittingly precipitated a world crisis, the full dimensions of which they never dreamed in committing the seemingly small act which may trigger it.

For, without pausing to consider the implications of their move, they have instituted a so-called "sex test" for all women entering the Winter and Summer Olympic Games this year. Supposedly a doctor will examine each girl (?) in private and the results are to be kept a secret.

But of course this is a rather ridiculous sham on the part of the committee, for by the nature of the test, only the results of those who pass will be kept a secret. The others, those who don't pass, will naturally be barred from competition, and I think you can see that it will be fairly obvious that those competing have passed the test and those sent home have failed to, so to speak, measure up.

But this inconsistency is not the problem of which I speak—I point to the hideous legal and social implications of such a test.

First, why should a girl be barred from competition on an Olympic scale just because of one tiny little chromosome? After all, what's a chromosome between friends?

And we do all profess to be friends and international brothers (and sisters) during the games, do we not?

It seems to me that it is obvious that if a person is not a female, then the only choice left is the opposite, since there are only two recognized genders of the human species. So if they "fail" the test, let the girls . . . er, boys . . . compete in the men's division.

Since the committee makes no provision for this, we assume that they have, without thinking, imposed upon the world a new, third gender. I hesitate to call them a neuter gender since most of the girls . . . ah, men . . . who would be classed in this division could easily beat my head in, but man in his narrow conception of the world has egotistically provided for only these three classifications.

However, if this is so—that there are walking among us today a hidden band of eugenic misfits—and if it is true that the Olympic committee is imposing legal status and subsequent restrictions upon their actions and relation to the wo "straight" genders, then this leaves us with the unthinkable but unavoidable decision to administer this test to every girl in the world.

This would transform the entire world: before a girl could go on a date, she would have to present to her boyfriend her certificate of purity of essence; we would have to make three types of restrooms—gentlemen, ladies and others (or, if you prefer, miscellaneous); towel-makers would have to start putting out sets of three—his, hers, and its; I could go on at length, but it is too painful and I think you see the horrible consequences of such an act.

Sports people, I cannot impress upon you enough the gravity of a three-sex world concept. Please write your congressman today, for only an appalled public reaction can stem this terrible wave of the future.

Act now, or you may soon be singing that sweet old refrain, "I Want A Guy, Just Like The Guy, Who Married Dear Old Dad!"

Opponents ahead

So far this year, opponents have outshot Nebraska from the field in total field goals made, 452-435, and percentage-wise, 481 to 431. But the Huskers lead the free throw stripe, 300-208 and 75% to .654.

Baack leads

Tom Baack now has 1,114 points during his basketball career at Nebraska. Team-mate Stu Lantz has 1,062, putting both of the Husker stars above the NU leader before this year. Herschell Turner with 1,056 points.

—Lantz superb as NU gets 3rd—

Buffs fall 87-73

by GEORGE KAUFMAN
Sports Editor

A capacity Coliseum crowd packed to the seams saw Stu Lantz put on a fantastic performance Thursday night as the Huskers picked up their third conference win over a desperate Colorado crew, 87-73.

Trackmen take on Wildcats

Nebraska's track team opens its indoor portion of the 1968 season at Manhattan, Kan., Saturday night with a dual encounter with the Kansas State Wildcats.

Coach Frank Sevine figures to field one of his more potent teams this season, with heavy strength in the sprints and middle distances.

"Overall, we've got more quality depth, as well as some outstanding individuals who can become fine Big Eight performers," Sevine said.

Co-captains

Co-captaining the Cornhuskers are hurdler Dave Kudron, Columbus senior, and high jumper Steve Krebs, Diller senior.

Sevine has indicated the gaping hole left by the graduation of Big Eight and NCAA triple crown winner Charlie Greene will be filled adequately by veteran Clifton Forbes and sophomore John Mottley, with help also from footballers Mike Green and Dick Davis.

Another football star, Joe Orduna, will make his track debut in the high hurdles, a spot where the former Omaha Central ace sparkled as a prep.

New vaulters

The pole vault will feature a pair of transfers in Husker livery. Boyd Epley, a product of Phoenix JC, previously has cleared 15 feet, while Terry Medjo, a transfer from Kearney State is in the 14-foot class.
