Monday, February 26, 1968

The Daily Nebraskan

Expenses low for student travelers identification card enables students to stay in hotels for 25

ental Europe - fer $250.

Information available

Information on the flights and the French program will be available at the ESA meet-

Once in Europe, students can buy bicycles for $30, hitch hike, ride a train or fly at a

Camping is very popular in

By Joan McCullough Junior Staff Writer

Students today can travel cents a night, tour museums students today can ever the cents a man price or buy a before on travel programs three month Eurail pass — a three month Eurail pass — a subsidized by European gov- tickets to anywhere in contin-

Students operating on a Students operating on a tight budget can tour Europe for as little as $600, said Benno Wyman, spokesman for the European Student As-sociation (ESA). More than fifty people have signed up for the two ESA flights leaving June 19 and July 9. A one-way flight at $150 is also available. sociation (ESA).

Round-trip flights to Europe for $270 are available to University students and faculty members through the ar-rangements of the ESA and the Netherlands Student Coun- ing Tuesday at 7 p.m. cil for the first time at the University.

Minimal cost

These non-profit student or-ganizations and others like Europe now, Wymar said. It them in Germany and France is economical and a good way plan transportation and lodg. to meet Europeans ing for American students in Europe at minimal cost.

Some youth hostels are in old castles. One famous Stock-Places are still available for holm hostel is made from an a free 18-day trip through old sailing vessel. Most of France. All expenses in them are 10-15 miles apart special rate.

France will be paid by the and some are within walking French government. distance, Wymar said. West An international student Germany alone has 700.

Open house plan endorsed by IDA

The Inter-Dormitory Assoc- ed alterations in the registra-iation (IDA) Council Thurs- tion process. day passed a resolution en-The subcommittee is con-

by Harper Hall President Bill Chaloupka, also request- Residents to register student affairs.

dorsing the open house mo- sidering a motion which would tion currently under consider- require only those participaation by the subcommittee on ting in the open house to abide by the open door rul-The resolution, introduced ing.

photo by Mike Hayma

Kappa Alpha Theta sorority had the winning skit in the annual University Coed Follies sponsored Friday by AWS. 'Kamelot or 1001 Arabain Fights" gave the Thetas their second straight win. Pound

Hall was second with "A City of Two Tales." Sid Logemann, Sigma Nu from Bennington, and Mimi Rose, Pi Beta Phi from Rolling Meadows, Ill., were named Outstanding Collegiate Man and Ideal Nebraska Coed.

Both are juniors at the University and were selected by interview.

Linda Riggs of Lincoln and Peggy Rees of Omaha won the travelers acts awards.

Placement interviews

he following interviews are scheduled the period Feb. 25 to March 1 will be held at the Placement Of-in the Nebraska Union. TUESDAY, Feb. 27 PHILLIPS PETROLEUM COMPANY -

Survey results . . . University expects loss of graduate students

A special survey conducted the fall of 1967 was 2,631, in- mal supervision for laboratory total in the past 18 months by the Department of Institu- cluding 1,936 men and 695 sections and other areas in and second only to the 49,207 versity has revealed a poten-tial boss of several hundred graduate students from earlier women. Earlier the Univer-sity had anticipated a slight increase next fall. Bestricted input tional Research at the Uni- women. Earlier the Univer- which graduate students nor- drafted in October, 1966, the anticipated enrollment for the 1-A to 450 males fall of 1968.

of recent draft regulations shows that about 450 may be of new graduate students. since the re limiting graduate deferments subject to 1-A classification. Another survey conducted cember, 1965 to dental, medical and semi- The remaining 880 male on-the-spot Saturday by Gen. Defense I next fall's Graduate College ROTC and for other reasons. U.S. troop committment would gan in late summer, 1965. enrollment," said Harry S. This indicates that sufficient be steadily increased. The men drafted at Allen, director of institutional research.

"Many Unknowns"

"There are so many unknowns in the picture," he continued. "No one knows for sure of how many of the expected graduate students will be eligible for 1-A classifica-tion by their local boards." "We don't know how many in fact will get drafted after they are re-classified, and some might not make it on the physical. There may be other reasons for individual deferments that we don't even know about." Allen said.

He added that since re-classification will be left up to the viduals will react."

But the figures are reason- ified. ably accurate for the type of survey that was conducted. Allen said record for the Vietnam con-

But the survey further indi-The survey was conducted Of the current 1,336 male cates that there may be in-at the request of Graduate graduate students who might cresing difficulties beginning ka draft quota for April has College administrators to de- normally be expected to re- in the 1969 academic year be- been set at 295 men, the sectermine the potential impact turn this fall, the survey cause of the restricted input ond highest number called since the record 296 in De-

Defense Department offinary students only. "It is difficult to accurately ments by virtue of their sta-of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, large draft call reflects the predict the impact of the Se-lective Service regulations on the reserve, enlistment in Vietnam, indicated that the crease in manpower which be-

The men drafted at that numbers of second-year and Already the Pentagon has time have served out their beyond grad students should set the draft quota for April two-year committment and be available to provide nor- at 48,000 which is the highest must be replaced.

AWS election . . .

Executive heads to be chosen providing constitution ratified

New AWS executive offices pation in extra-curricular ac- sitions."

of president, vice-presidents, tivities, the chairman noted. cabinet members and court Miss Neumeister explained of appeals members will be that the candidate receiving chosen March 13 in an all- the highest number of votes campus election. will be elected AWS president

All election procedures are and that the next two candilocal boards, deferments will tentative, according to Nesha become for the most part Neumeister, AWS elections "individual concerns, and we chairman. The plans will be don't know how all the indi-made official only if the re-resident appoints vised AWS constitution is rat-

Applications for AWS executive offices will be available Tuesday in the AWS office, dicial area and the other to noted.

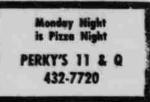

"Candidates for AWS exec- cabinet members must meet these elections, to be conductuffive positions must have the University's extra-curric- ed within living units, is March Applications for ASUN some previous experience as ular activities requirement. 15 and the voting date is bave board or branch court member or branch court member." Miss experience and a 2.2 accum-

The chairman felt that requiring candidates to have board or branch court experience would be a limiting factor this year on the number of eligible candidates.

However, if the revised con-stitution is ratified more girls will be qualified for AWS ex-ecutive positions in succeeding years. Women with exper-The president, with the ap- ience in any of the seven proval of AWS congress, will branch courts or with experiappoint one vice-president to ence as AWS committee chairbe in charge of the AWS ju- men will also be qualified, she "Congressional and branch court elections are open to all Applicants for seven court AWS members," Miss Neuof appeals members and six meister added. Filing date for

April's quota high

See. 2