IDA policy acceptable to Regents

The new IDA Hours and the open house policy is acceptable in light of the University Board of Regents guideline, Dr. B. N. Greenberg, Regents president, said Wednesday.

He said by telephone from York the new policy approved last week by the Faculty Senate Committee on Student Affairs was reviewed Tuesday afternoon by the Regents and that it is the current policy.

"This is what the dean (G. Robert Ross, dean of student affairs) feels is a work-able policy," he said.

The new policy, which be-came effective Monday differentiates an open house and IDA Hours. An open house provides the opportunity for dormitory students to display their living environment to the general public in a formal, special atmosphere and the IDA Hours is an informal social exchange within the residence hall system.
